So, tell us, why did you make a corpse
fall on a policecar?

You can't run away

It's strange to stay on the place
of a crime
without even running away!

It didn't fall on its own, did it?

Yes, I'm a chef on the first floor!

Yes he just went up because someone called him and told him there was someone strange there

What? Someone asked him to go up?

Yes, with Kudo we had already ...

Someone had attached the body with a rope, he was hidden under a plastic blanket. The other end of the rope was attached to the door, he made sure it would fall

It means Yesterday he was up there with his murderer, who killed him and attached him.

He died around 24hrs ago

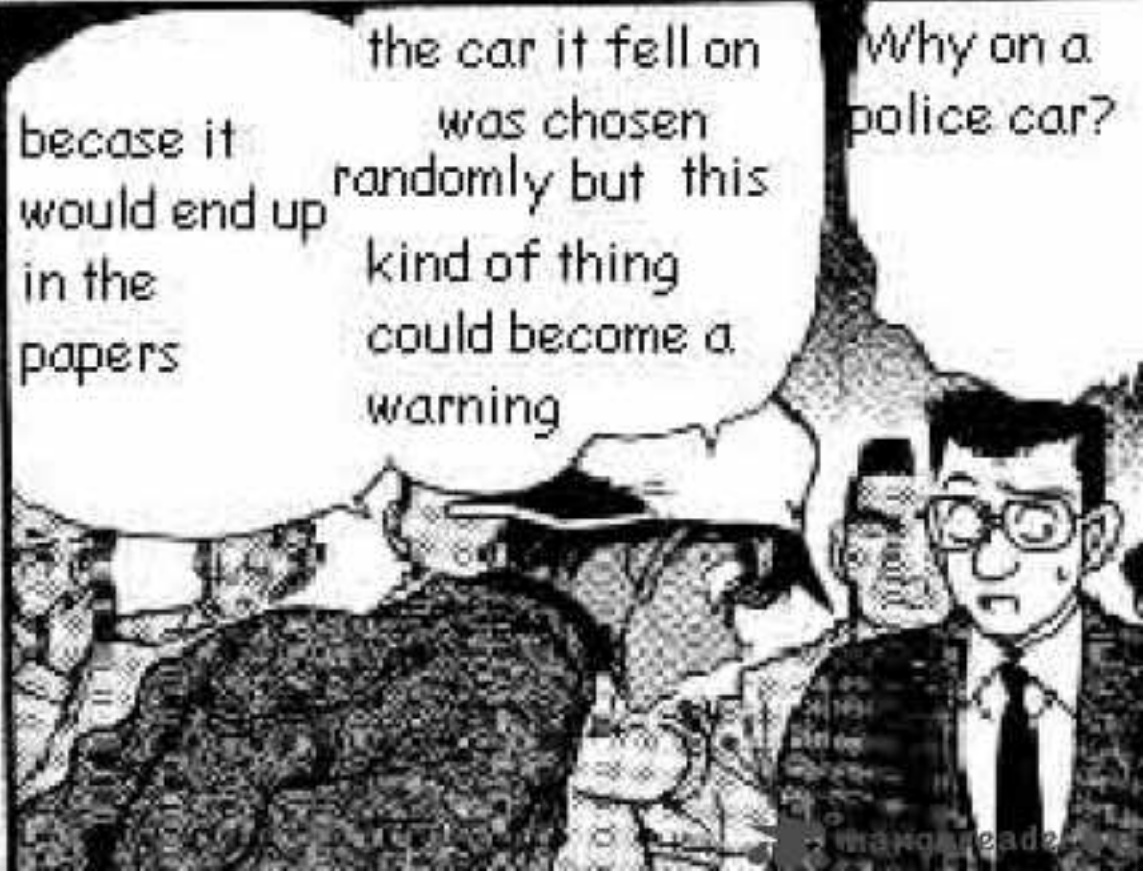

Yes it's the Hanaoka Case

I mean, you had already uncovered that trick once.

Yes, a knife goes through a wallet into the heart

a warning ?!

because it would end up in the papers

the car it fell on was chosen randomly but this kind of thing could become a warning

Why on a police car?

After the strangulation of the victim

in all cases the knife goes through a wallet into the heart

yes

So that guy is the third!

We can't prove that isn't it revenge compared to money

a wallet

Serial murders?!

Kazuto Noyasu
Taxi driver

The second:
Tayo
Nishigushi
Bartender

Convenience store* owner
Hidetoshi
Nagao

open all ours shop

They were all born in Osaka but totally different places same thing for the rest of their life!

none?

And so far, we don't find any link between them all they weren't rich enough for it to have anything to do with money

I made a T.V. channel lend it to me!

A video?

Yes look at this!

Is it true???

we found a link

Heiji, we found it!

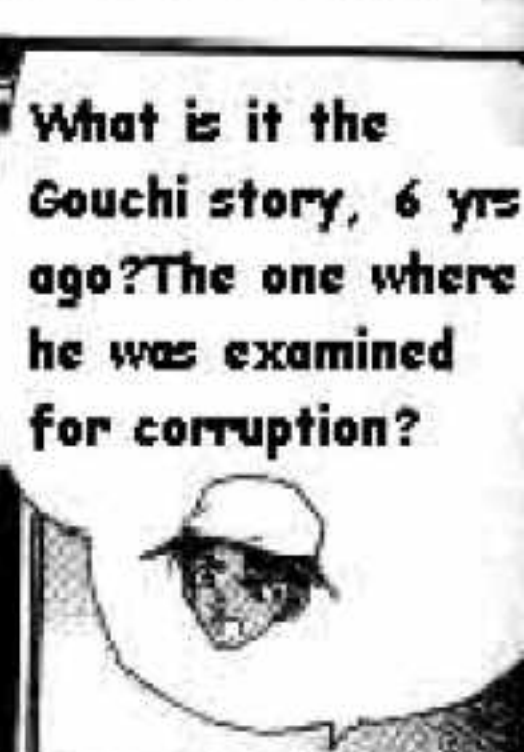

Yes, his secretary took the blame and it was ended... his name was nagao...

a word?!

M.Gouchi!

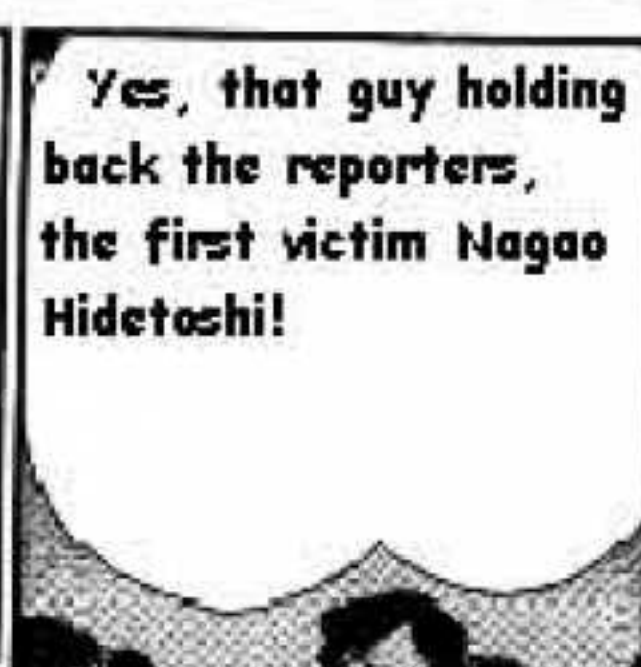

What is it the Gouchi story, 6 yrs ago? The one where he was examined for corruption?

No, I want you to look at the driver!

Didn't we already know that? then why...

Yes, that guy holding back the reporters, the first victim Nagao Hidetoshi!

he was!

Nagao... wasn't he ...

the driver!

It's a lucky charm I gave him it always saved him!

the lucky charm?

2?

It's very precious there are only 2

not at all! The only time he forgot it he hurt himself badly in a Kendo match!

his life? don't exaggerate

see you

o.k.

I hid some pieces in it

remember I told you about that time we were Handcuffed together is he in the loo???

HEIN?

By the way, where's the kid!!

it's true!

but then, it's none of your business!

Then I'll call to see where she is!

Yes, this lady seemed to know a lot about this story!

She divorced last year and lives in an apartment in Seito residence, not far from here... We're starting there?

She's called Sumie Okazaki 39 yrs

Today at around 1 P.M. a body fell from the Shinzai Bai east building ... It was Kazuto Noyasu's body, 41 years old
