N,
no...

TOILET

Tropical Land
Parking Lot

Why...

Why
Chihiro

Get up,
Dad!

Dad!

Huh?

競馬

GASP

If you don't have to do with the crime go back!!

Let us through!

We're the police!

Shut up and listen!
It's a murder!!

What Ran...
Weren't you going home after the fireworks?

Just come!

A noodle maker in skates fell in the bathroom?

What

Someone was murdered in the bathroom near the Skating Rink!!

Yes... Chihiro and I...

Everyone else's?

I put it in the locker with the electric lock like everyone else...

It's a special gun for clay shooting...

Sano Izumi (28)
OL

No... One boy was in there when we came...

No one came inside right?

Yes...

How terrible...

We made it "9017" like last time we came...

I did... But everyone knows the code...

Komatsu Yoriko (30) House Wife

And who put the electric lock on?

And those three back there are my part of our clay shooting group...

...Which means...

C. Conan-kun!?

We would all have it on us! We went clay shooting this afternoon...

Well, if we investigate we would find out... We'll find out if any gun powder got on your clothes...

Haha... I'm at the point where I can't get mad...

No, it's only a coincidence, sir, a coincidence! Please don't get mad!

That's impossible...

Then some stranger could have taken the gun out and...

Misawa Yasuharu (29) Banker

And what if the lock wasn't on properly?

That's mine...

Ok, first find the owner by looking on the gun's code number...

I guess...

Inspector! I think it is safe to say this is the weapon!

A strange person with a hood came out of the bathroom!!

Then the fireworks started... So I went to the nearest window to see and he came out!

Yeah... There was a sign that said the toilet wasn't working and no one answered when I knocked so I was waiting in front of the door...

And the gun is separated into parts in the case... It's not something the criminal could easily assemble...

And Izumi had only a leather case...

Don't you remember? The shotgun cases are made not to look like they hold a shotgun...

But if the criminal made it so the gunshot would be with the fireworks and he had had a hood and scarf ready then this was a planned murder!

No... He had a hood and a scarf so...

And? Did you see his face?

And how to put together the shotgun...

I get it... So the ones that know the thing in the case is a gun...

Kunitomo Oda (29) Fireman

And we came here before and it was fun...

It's close to the clay shooting place...

Wait a minute, we decided to come here together!

For now let's listen to all of your stories in different rooms... Then, we would know whose idea it was to come to this theme park...

N, no...

Are only you 4 people?

The person who killed Itami-san...

I kind of got it when I saw the crime scene, but what Sonoko said made me get it completely...

No... No need for that...

Well, well... We'll listen to that in the other room...

W...

Is it true?

What!?

The criminal running out...

Umm... I saw someone...

Yes!

Anyway... See if somebody saw anyone suspicious at the time of the murder around the bathroom...

The "S" for "Sano"!!!

This was the victim's dying message!!!

There are three things that helped me get it...

What are you saying! Why am I...

You're the murderer!!!

Sano Izumi-san...

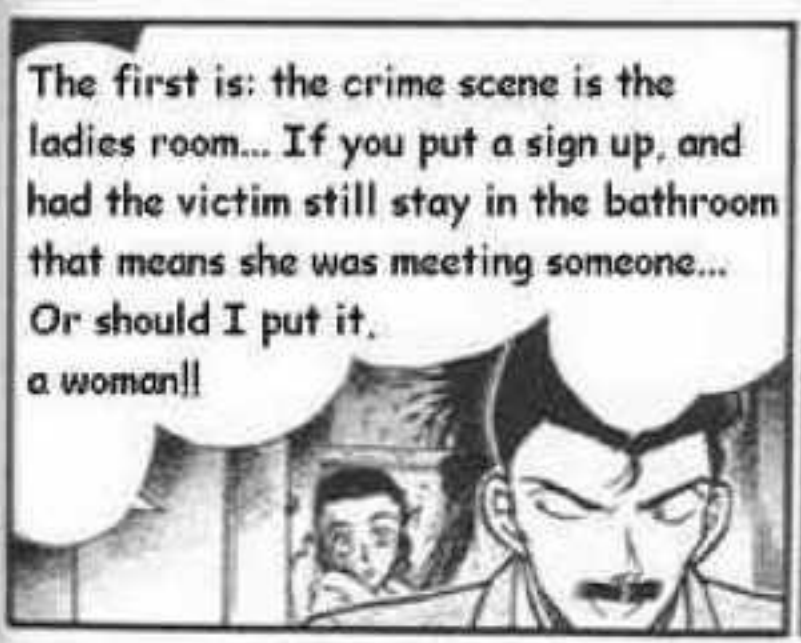

Huh? I think you are!

Am I wrong?

I asked before the Inspector came right? Your names... Out of you 4 people Sano-san... This only works for you!!

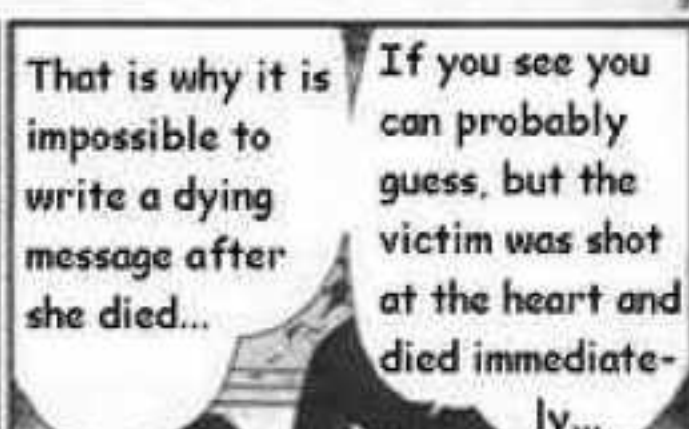

The first is: the crime scene is the ladies room... If you put a sign up, and had the victim still stay in the bathroom that means she was meeting someone... Or should I put it, a woman!!

And she could have been told to wait here by a woman but actually met a man...

...I knew that...

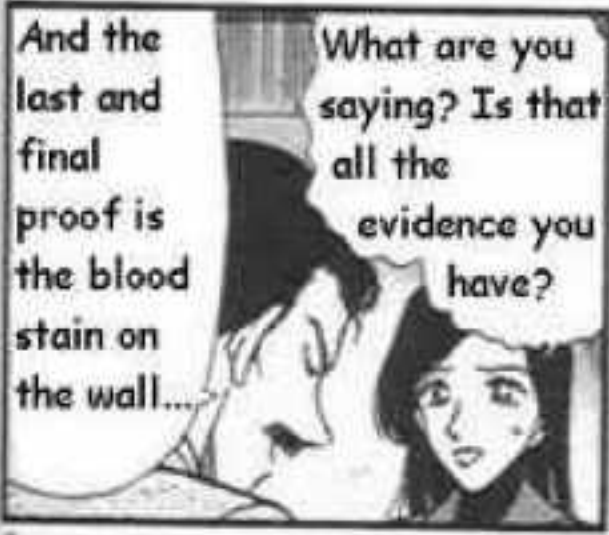

That is why it is impossible to write a dying message after she died...

If you see you can probably guess, but the victim was shot at the heart and died immediately...

Yeah, that's right....

Than that "S" is...

And the last and final proof is the blood stain on the wall...

What are you saying? Is that all the evidence you have?

I hear that you two always quarrel a lot...

The second is: how you 2 got along...

But you can't fool my eyes...

It may look as if it was there because there was a struggle...

Blood stain?

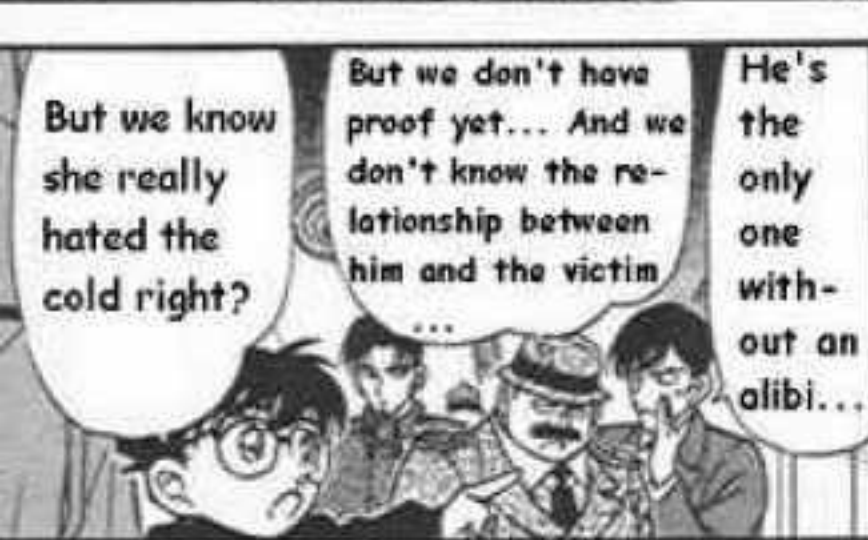

I was smoking with my back to the fireworks... I'm not the type that becomes excited over fire in the sky...

And? Where were you at that time?

But they were all there when the first one went up! There isn't 10 seconds apart from the 1st and the 2nd...

Were they really there from the beginning? It's only 30 seconds from the rink to the bathroom...

But we know she really hated the cold right?

But we don't have proof yet... And we don't know the relationship between him and the victim...

He's the only one without an alibi...

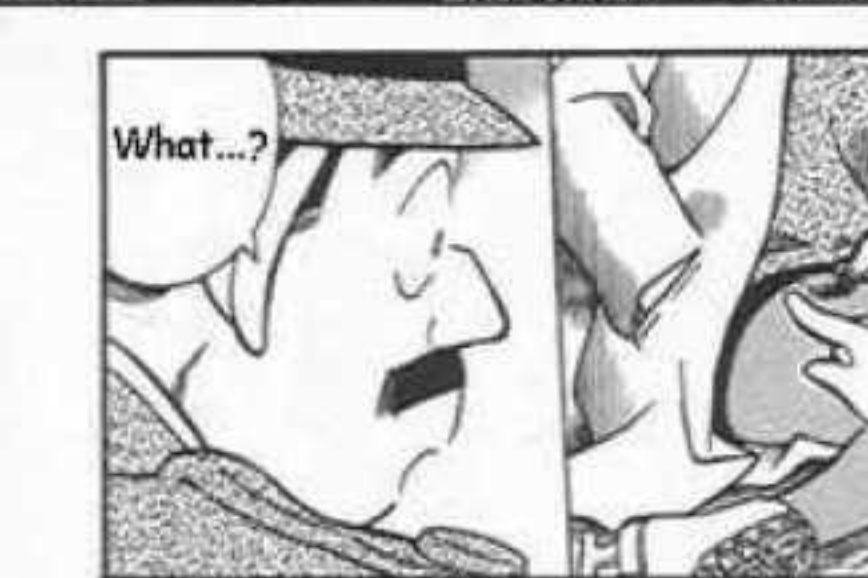

The criminal was probably hiding in the next toilet cubicle and came out right before the fireworks...

But isn't something strange? Sonoko-san knocked on the door right? If the criminal had the gun pointed at the victim, then why didn't the victim try calling for help?

The shotgun used also belonged to her...

I'm almost positive it was left to make people think Sano-san was the criminal!

What...?

Look! She knows she's gonna be shot soon but her hand's in her pocket!

Th, this is saliva...

See, the very tip...

Huh?

Hey~ What's this~!?

Something sticky is on this gun...

And right before the fireworks she moved it to her heart and...

I got it! The criminal stuck the tip of the gun's mouth to the victim's to keep her quiet!

I'll try...

y. yeah...

Why don't you try redialing? Then you can tell who she called last?

But nothing is displayed... She was probably shot before she dialed 110*

A cell phone?

Oh, yes...

Right, Ran?

Well, we were with her when the fireworks started...

Huh?

Then three of us aren't the murderer!

*911 in Japan

That's why he's not like the rest!!

It's hard to say one person did it...

But this trick could be done by anybody...

I already got the trick...

Two blackish red dots...

Huh?

That message isn't enough....

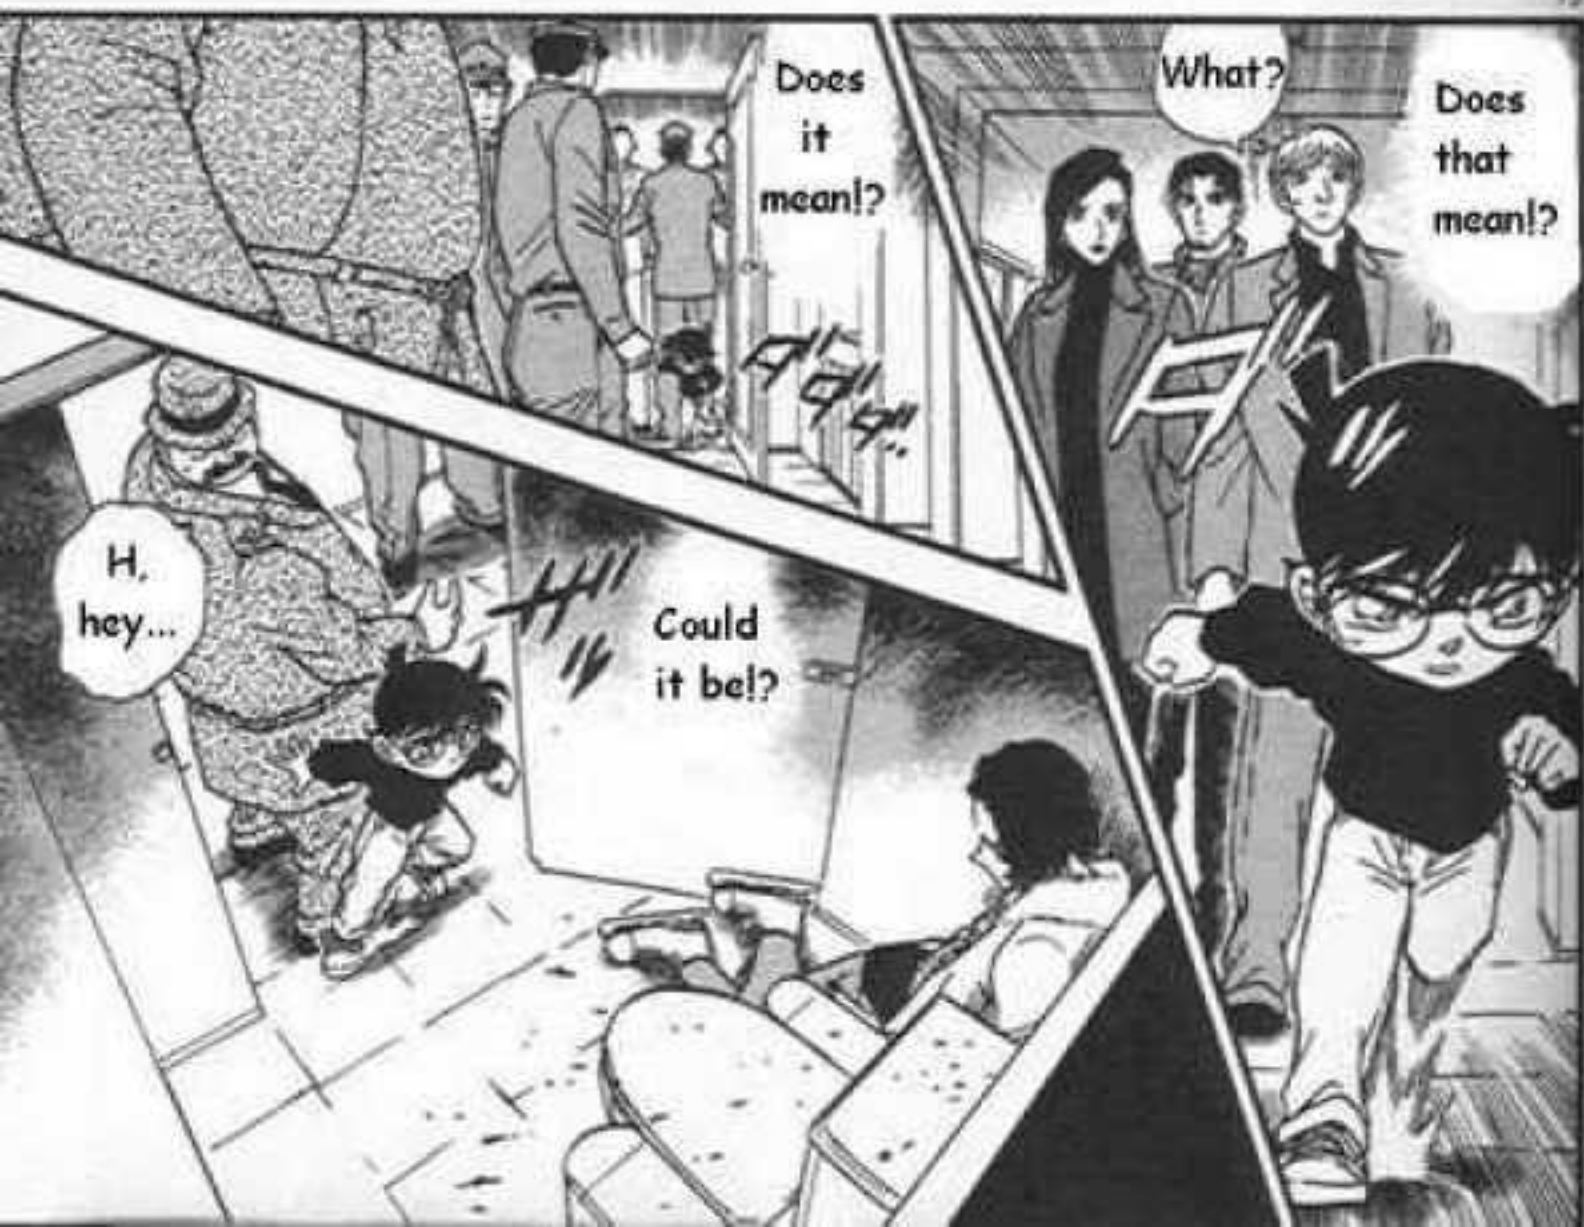

But I don't have proof...

You were lucky Izumi...

I just remembered that accident...

Cheer up...

H, hey...

Could it be!?

Does it mean!?

What?

Does that mean!?

It seems like we're haunted, and I don't want to be killed by the gun shooting off by itself like Narita ...

I, I'll stop clay shooting after today...

Don't you remember I had a bad cold that day? Can you not say a person is lucky like that?

You weren't there when the accident happened...

That's it... That's the reason ...

Yeah ...

Hey, stop gossiping and let's go...

found it!

This is it!!!
