The Real Intention of Killing

The murderer who killed a hunter on the mountain...

Is that so?
So it's you...

Eh?

And introspect
...

Now I shall let you sleep...

He wants to kill the witnesses Haibara and Mitsuhiko who saw him commit the crime...
so he joined us to search and find a chance to kill them!

The murderer is one of those three...

Murder-er?

Hey, don't be in my way! I was aiming at that mur-derer!

What is that thing?

corp-se... ?
... cub's ...

Plus the police awhile ago found a hunter's corpse with a cub's corpse together...

Haibara was leaving crisps showing their route, but she didn't meet up with us instead they were escaping, it's because of them!

But how do you know?

Ah...!?

He has already solved our matsutake mushroom secret code...

Watch style stun-gun ...

Conan, what are you doing!

Ok!
Hey, after he hits the murderer we should take this cub and meet up with Professor!

110
7/14

Why
!?

W...

He's not...

Eh

There's no need to act now, can you stop now

Hey
...

derer
...?

Mur
...

Mr Murderer

The scattered shimeji are us three children, hatsutake is Professor, on the stick there is tengutake, matsutake and shiitake, these three represents the hunters wearing long guns...

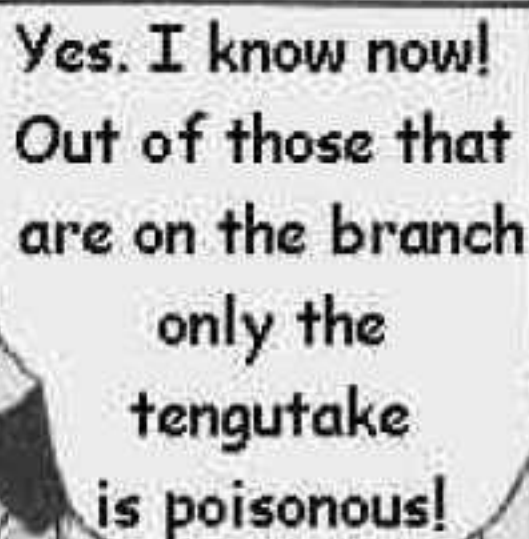

The seven mushrooms represent us seven...

We already know who the murderer is from the matsutake mushrooms...

This means that the murderer is the person who wears his long gun on the right shoulder...

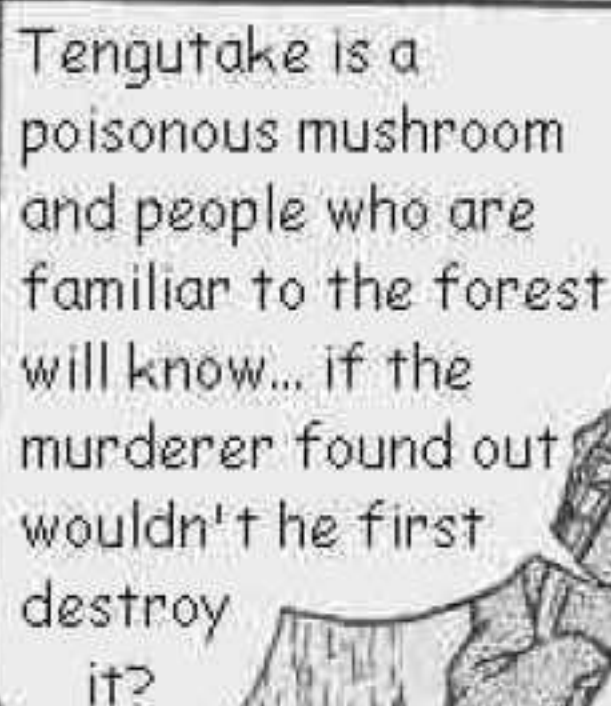

Yes. I know now! Out of those that are on the branch only the tengutake is poisonous!

Hey, didn't I say before? The way of searching for matsutake mushrooms can help to find the criminal ...

But. This one ...?

Tengutake is a poisonous mushroom and people who are familiar to the forest will know... if the murderer found out wouldn't he first destroy it?

Ah?

Wrong ...

Ah... that means the murderer is the same as this mushroom so the hunting gun is worn across the back...

You said 'Only we know this thing' that means this...

It's Mr matsutake!!

Great, found the culprit.

Ah~

What
!?

Wh

I'm talking about you!!

Uncle
...

Ah,
ah

The police has already found the corpse...
although there's no evidence, the person murdered is your friend...

Haibara thought of it... if it went on like this, they'll definitely die!

So this old man fired his gun at them two
...

Haibara and Mitsuhiko came by chance and found the corpse...

The opposition has a long gun!! You're still not using the stun-gun...

Oh!!

Hey, old man!?

Hey, Shinichi!?

He's aiming at something else...

The truth to firing that gun is...

No... this old man wasn't going to kill Haibara and them ...

What!?

Come out !!

Ah

Ju
...

What is that!?

Juubei!

Juubei
!!

Waa-aaah!!

WAA-
!!

Stare at him and slowly withdraw yourself ...

When you escape and let him see your back, the bear's instinct will think it's his prey!

DON'T RUN LITTLE BOY!!

Juubei! Remember me!?

Calm your fury and return to the forest...

Ok now, you're still not going!!

It's no good if you don't return, it'll all be taken by other bears.

You need to prepare the food for winter ...

Juu-bei !!!

I know you're watching us nearby! The bear next to you is Juubei's son! Quickly let him go!

Eh ?

Let the cub go!!

Haibara, the cub!!

The reason this old man fired his gun was because of ...

Haibara

Yes... to save Juubei...

Uncle wanted to stop him
so he shot him...

The murdered hunter
wanted to kill Juubei...

But why didn't he shout to warn
them?

On the tree next to where Mitsuhiro left his badge there were bullet marks which were roughly the height of a child, they should've been made at that time...

At that time Mitsuhiro and Haibara came,
before Juubei noticed them,
he fired his gun to make them leave the scene...

A person's voice will make the bear notice them, on the opposite if you fire the gun
then both sides
would withdraw
...

Because he understood that bears were much more intelligent

Didn't you wound that bear's eye!?

Plus it's the ferocious bear that you often talked about...

Wait! Aren't we here to hunt? What's wrong with attacking the bear?

Is it like that? Uncle...

He used one of his eyes to exchange with my life...

Yes... you could say Juubei's injury was made because of me...

For the spring season bear hunt I came up this mountain while it was still full of snow...

That was 20 years ago....

Exchange...?

I knew I was going to be eaten by him so I closed my eyes waiting to die... but I felt something warm touching my cheeks...

He appeared in front of my eyes...

Under the state of my injuries I couldn't even move a bullet...

I slipped and fell down tens of metres and broken both of my legs...

I thought that when he woke up he'll eat me, but he used his black fur to hug me, it made me felt his friendliness...

After he finished licking he slept next to me...

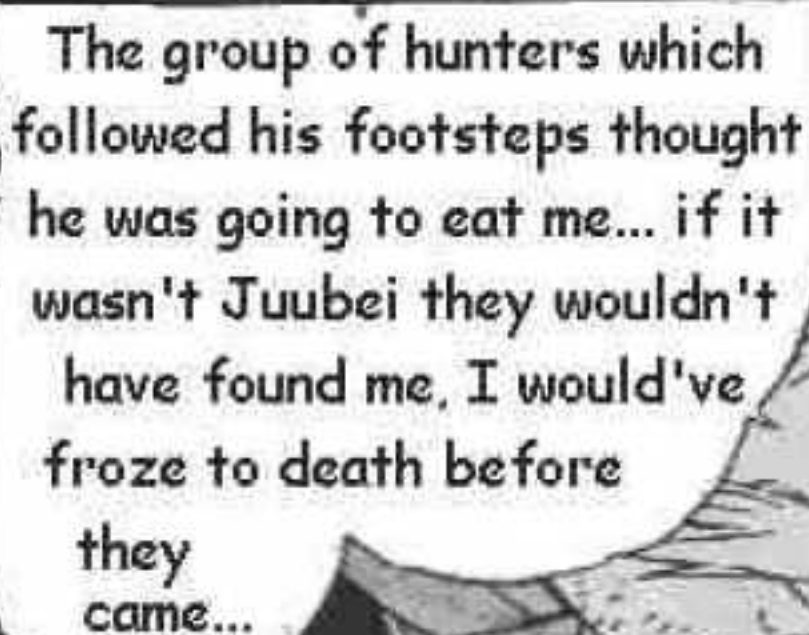

He was licking my wounds non-stop...

So I was panicking when I opened my eyes...

He made me gradually forget the pain in my legs...

I felt that he was kind-hearted...

The group of hunters which followed his footsteps thought he was going to eat me... if it wasn't Juubei they wouldn't have found me, I would've froze to death before they came...

After a sound of gun fire he lost an eye and left my side...

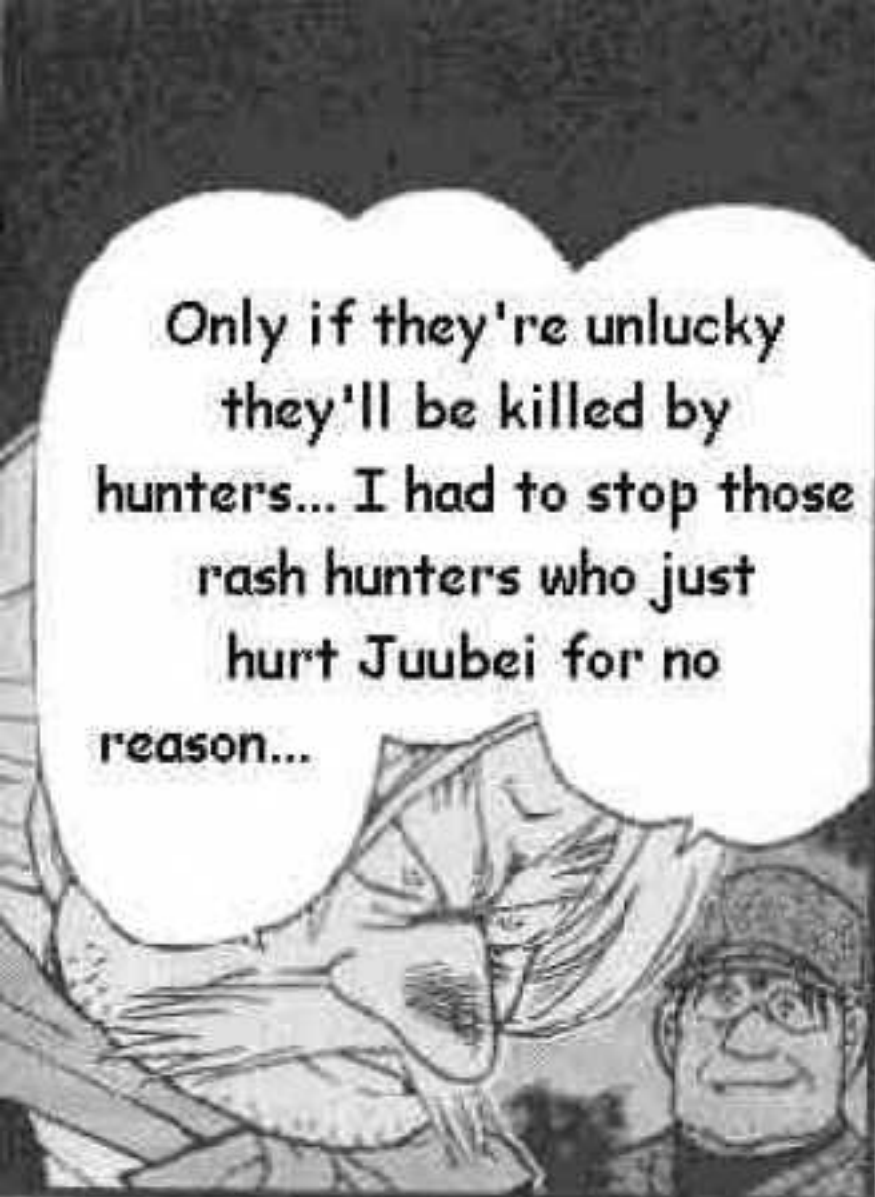

Ha ha... a hunter turns out to be an animal lover?

Recently it had an opposite effect...

It's just a fake story that I made up to make people afraid of Juubei...

Then would the legend of Juubei which you told be...

After that I went up the mountain everyday, when I found Juubei I would make him go up and away where there were no people...

Only if they're unlucky they'll be killed by hunters... I had to stop those rash hunters who just hurt Juubei for no reason...

Mm... bears are talented animals... only the side of hunters think they're enemies...

I feel sorry for that murdered hunter! He came to hunt for the bear but he was attacked by another hunter...

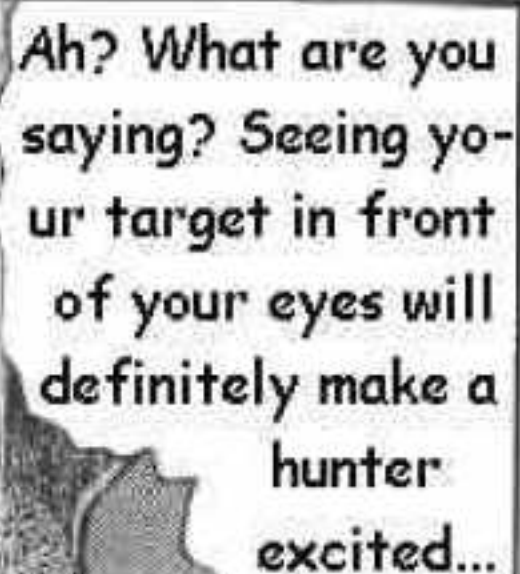

Used some cheap trick with the cub...

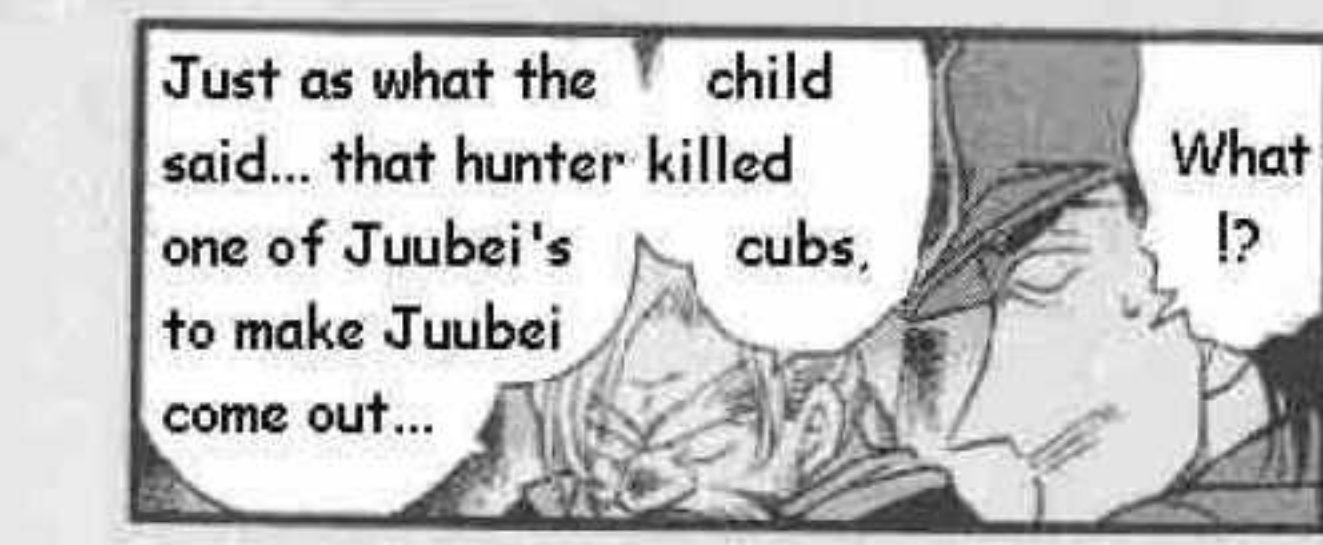

That hunter approximately ...

It's a cheap trick...

Ah? What are you saying? Seeing your target in front of your eyes will definitely make a hunter excited...

Just as what the child said... that hunter killed one of Juubei's cubs, to make Juubei come out...

What!?

Murdering a cub to make his mother appear then to killed her, that hunter...

In my eyes...

He hanged the corpse on a tree!!

Is absolutely a beast...

The old hunter was taken away...

He used his eyes which showed loneliness to look at the mountain which Juubei lived on

An hour later, we met up with the police investigating up
the mountain...

Ah ah... at first I thought it was a person who was trying to track down Juubei... and used only cruel ways to hunt him. I never thought that he'd bury the cub and make a tombstone...

You understand everything now?

So that's why...
the cub's grave...

He had a lot of chances to kill him...

He even knew that Juubei gave birth...

I saw that there were many cub's footprints on the crisps and knew that they were together... Ayumi often looks behind, it's because she heard the big bear follow the cub's footprints!

But how did you know Ai was with the cub together...

If I said it then the old man would be arrested, and the police search group will take action, Juubei will then be killed for certain

But why didn't you say it earlier!

It must be that old man... knew that Juubei was angry because one was killed, he wanted to help before Haibara and them was attacked

I know that bears usually has 2 cubs in one birth, the cub found dead and the one with Haibara, my intuition tells me they're Juubei's children...

Maybe he was...

That means that old man was more worried of the bear than we were...

But, isn't that good...

Ah, but...

Oh, but being an animal lover he gets this ending. How sad

You can't help that! To that old man, Juubei was to him a friend that he knew for 20 years...

That's right!

Winter is near, we could have snowball fights again!

The mother bear was saved!

No-thing ...

What kind of expression is that...
