The Opened Closed Area

While you were transporting the suspect, he did suicide??!!

WHAT
?!!!

IDIOTS!!
What were you two doing!?

When I opened the door, he was already bloody with a knife in his hand, which he used to stab himself in the stomach. In order to contact Sato, I put the handcuff onto the bar, and trapped him for that time. Even if he had a lethal injury, it's dangerous to have a suspect with a knife in the train area...

when I took the suspect to the bathroom, he suddenly made a gasping noise...

Oh, well actually...

Anyway, I'll get some inspectors and officers to head over to the Tokyo station!! Until then, don't let anybody enter the bathroom area!!

Y, Yes Sir!

He already pulled out the knife, and died from blood loss...

And when I came back with Sato...

Hmm...If the suspect commits a suicide while being transported by an officer, then it's a pretty big problem

Ooh~ ~boy ..!

Sato, will you stop talking about it ?!! You have to be responsible too!

Poor guy

No, if it gets worse, he'll be fired from the police department

It could be a minor or major suspension from the job. Or maybe cutting down of rations...

So how was that? You know

Eh? Yumi?

HUH?

Oh, Takagi? It's me, Yumi!

Y, yes! This is Takagi!

How was it?
Did Miwako blush? Or was there no reaction?

You know, the romantic ticket plan
.....

Come on...~ tell me
.....!

Hmm...
Looks like it was beautifully suicidal like I thought

THIS ISN'T THE TIME FOR THAT!!
DON'T CALL ME AT A WEIRD TIME!!!

Oh, uh... nothing important...

So,
what did Yumi say?

.....

HA.
.....

He's not a magician
...

While he's being transported by 2 officers, there's no way he could hide a knife
.....

Yes...it's not like he's a
.....

But the problem is the knife he used was gone
.....

If it fell like this, it means he pointed up and held the knife like this!

Look at the direction of the knife on the floor
...

HUH?

This guy is a samurai!

Like this, right?

So that guy pulled out the knife like a samurai,

Hii

Of course he held it backwards... It's easier to stab yourself that way
...

Takagi... which direction was the suspect holding the knife when he stabbed himself?

HUH?

This blood is also wierd!

Haha... Could it be...?

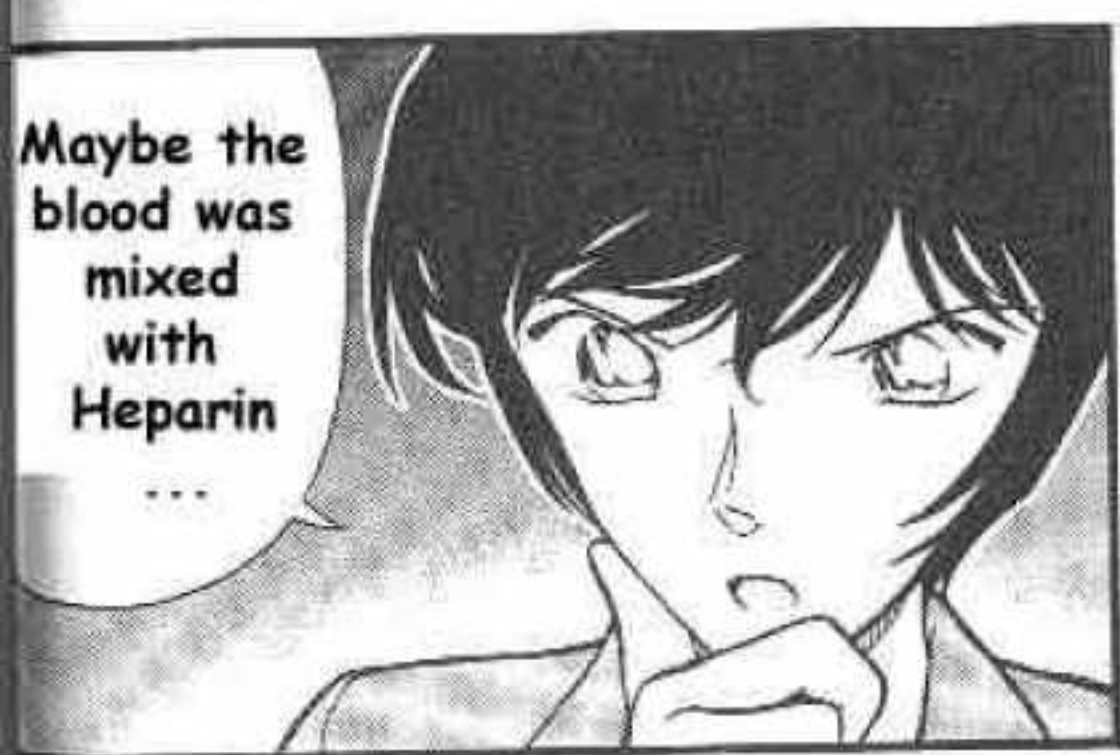

Maybe somebody else pulled out the knife?

He stabbed himself by holding it backwards, then switched to forwards when he pulled it out...? Weird...

See, the blood on the knife and so on is more solid like jelly...

But the blood on his hand is liquid!

Maybe the blood was mixed with Heparin ...

But this is blood's color...

Maybe the blood on his hands isn't really blood...

Yeah ...

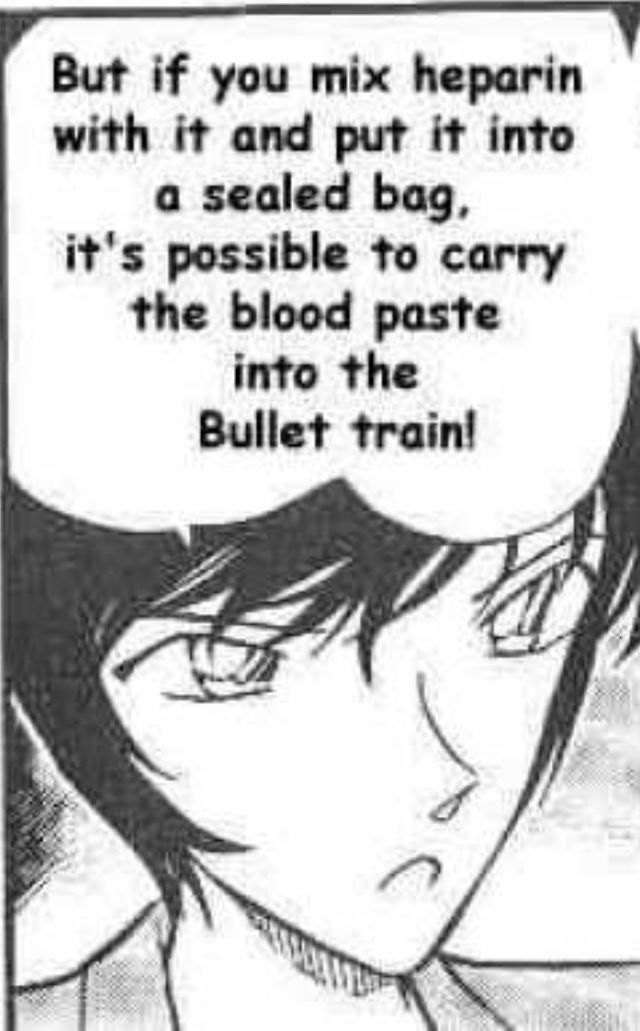

You mean...

H, Heparin ...

Yes! If somebody hid the blood paste and the knife into the bathroom beforehand then...

Blood paste? You mean ...

But if you mix heparin with it and put it into a sealed bag, it's possible to carry the blood paste into the Bullet train!

Normally, after a certain point of time, the blood hardens and it's very difficult to carry,

M, murder
...

Then, this is a complete murder!!

He gave out the message "Go to the front bathroom" and made sure the officer that's left, Takagi, didn't notice it.

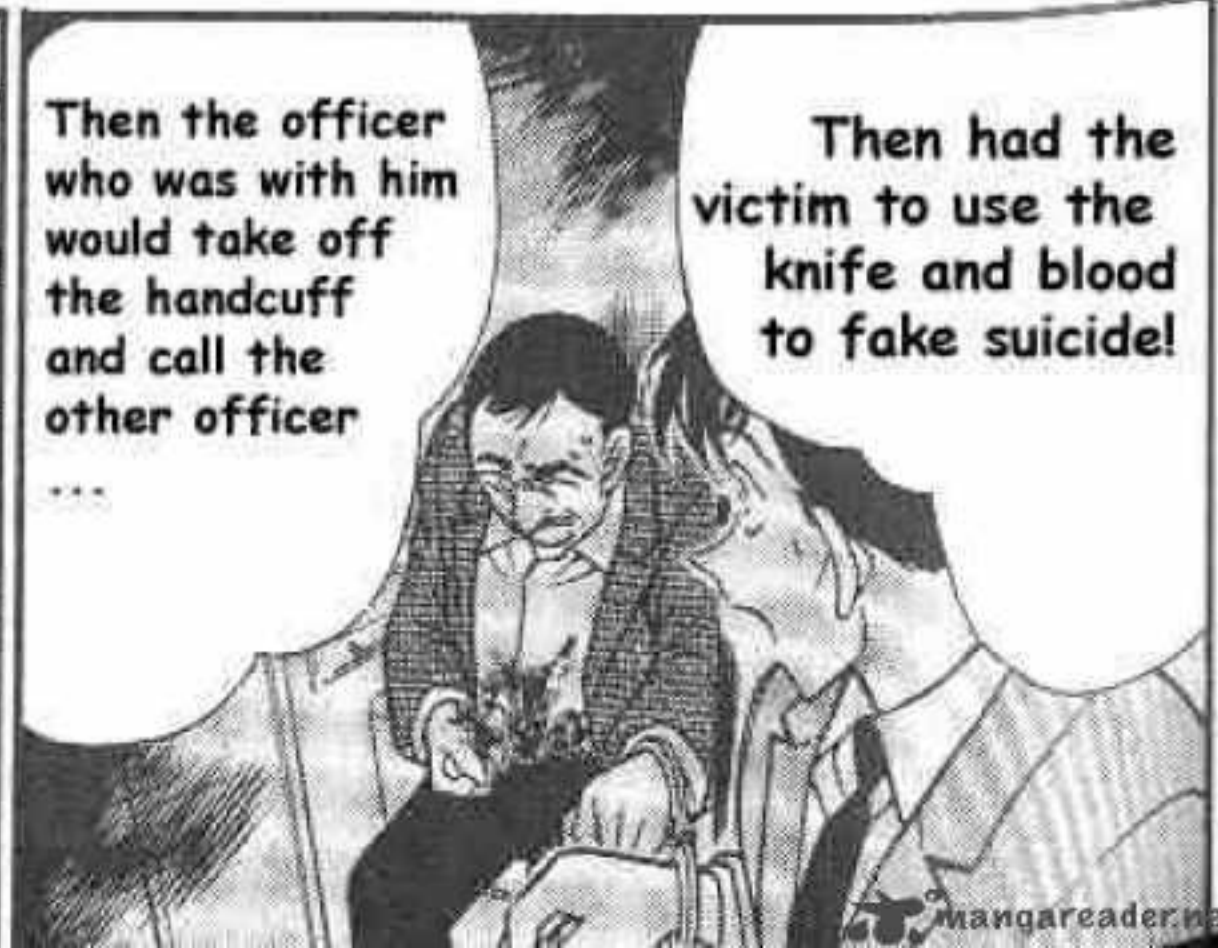

First, the criminal put the bag in the back bathroom with a sheet of paper said "Bomb inside, do not touch" to make me go there. After he managed to get rid of one of the officers,

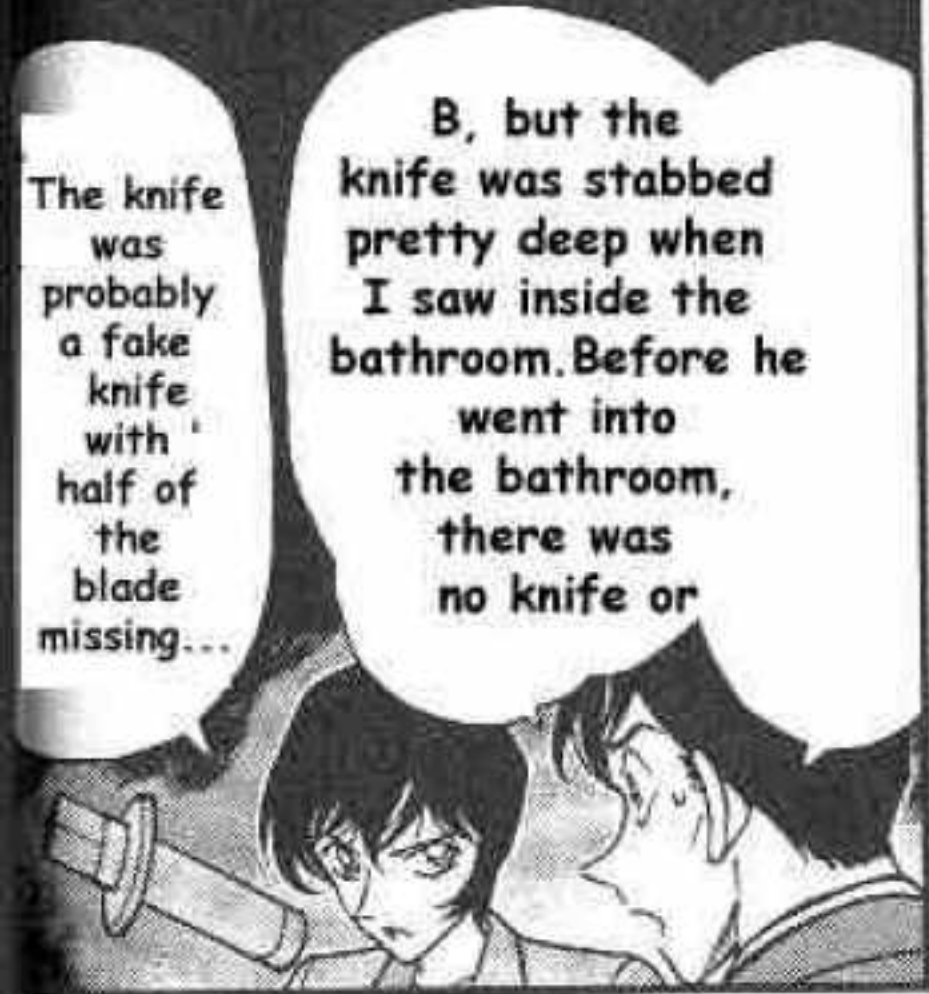

Then the criminal who was hiding in behind the sink curtain to listen to the conversation would go to the bathroom...

Then the officer who was with him would take off the handcuff and call the other officer
...

Then had the victim to use the knife and blood to fake suicide!

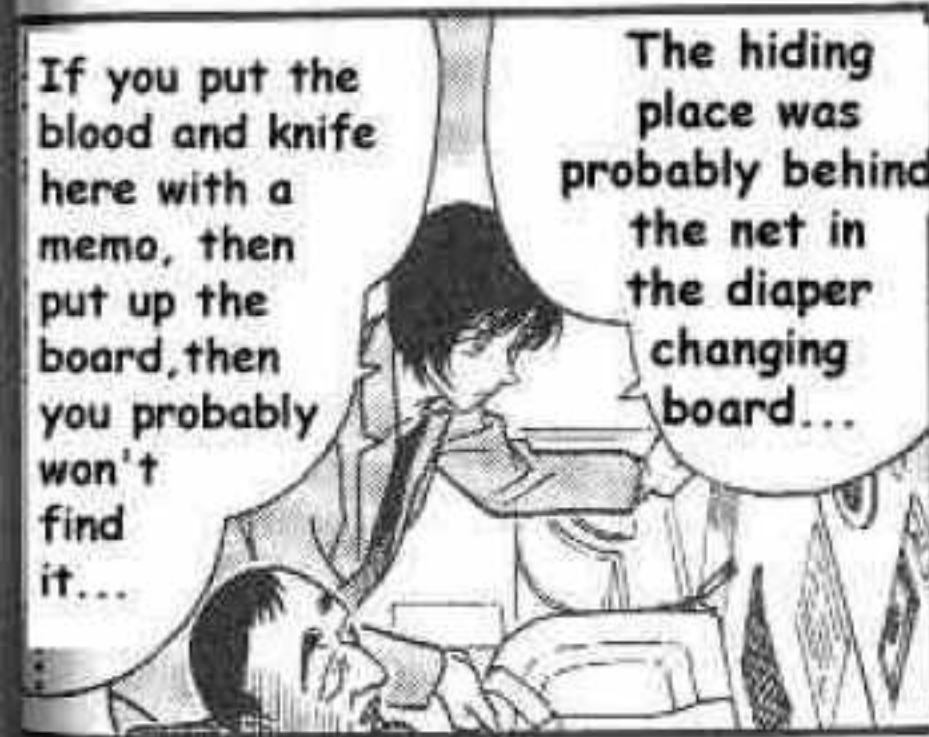

The knife was probably a fake knife with half of the blade missing...

B, but the knife was stabbed pretty deep when I saw inside the bathroom. Before he went into the bathroom, there was no knife or

....and used a real knife to kill him

Then before we came back, the criminal took all the proof and ran off!

If you put the blood and knife here with a memo, then put up the board, then you probably won't find it...

The hiding place was probably behind the net in the diaper changing board...

Probably saying something like "I set the bomb, so use the blood and knife to pretend a suicide. After the officer went, I'll cut off the handcuff and let you go in the disaster of the explosion."

A false plan to fool the victim!

A memo?

Yes...there was a watch on the memo. On the memo it said "When the train enters the Shintanna tunnel, do your act..."

AAH?!

Well, actually that time we went through a long tunnel and I couldn't use it

But why didn't you call Officer Sato with your cell phone?

And was fooled
...

I was watching the bathroom entrance door after Takagi went out, but I didn't see anybody come out after that...

Was there any sort of person like that in your train area...?

Yeah... somebody should notice if they were all bloody
...

However, if the person lost this much blood, then the criminal should have some amount of his blood

BATHROOM
WITH THE "BOMB"

Sato, Takagi, and the suspect's seat

13th

BATHROOM

Conan, Ran and Kogoro's seat

Which means that the criminal ran in the direction of the 13th

!?

There's something on the hand with the fake blood
...

What is this?

This is going to be a real pain to find the person...

Hm?

The criminal used that ...

I get it ...!

Oh, it just has to be "Go to the bathroom"!

You can't tell them "Look on the back of the diaper change in the back bathroom" ...

But how did the criminal tell the victim about the plan?

Didn't I tell you to watch him?

And if they go into the bathroom they'll think there's something about it and check around ...

There's no way the victim would go to the front bathroom where I was.

OW!!

* a confusing sentence, ask Pat ^_^ (Mercury)

What I don't get is how the criminal told the victim to go to the bathroom...

It's fine! This line doesn't have a lot of people (people were able to change seats), and if you hide the knife and blood at both of the bathrooms, unless you have really bad luck, you can go in! *

But then what if somebody happened to go into the bathroom...

And only about 2, 3 people passed after Sato went...

We chose a seat, which there weren't too many people around,

Huh? Not which I noticed

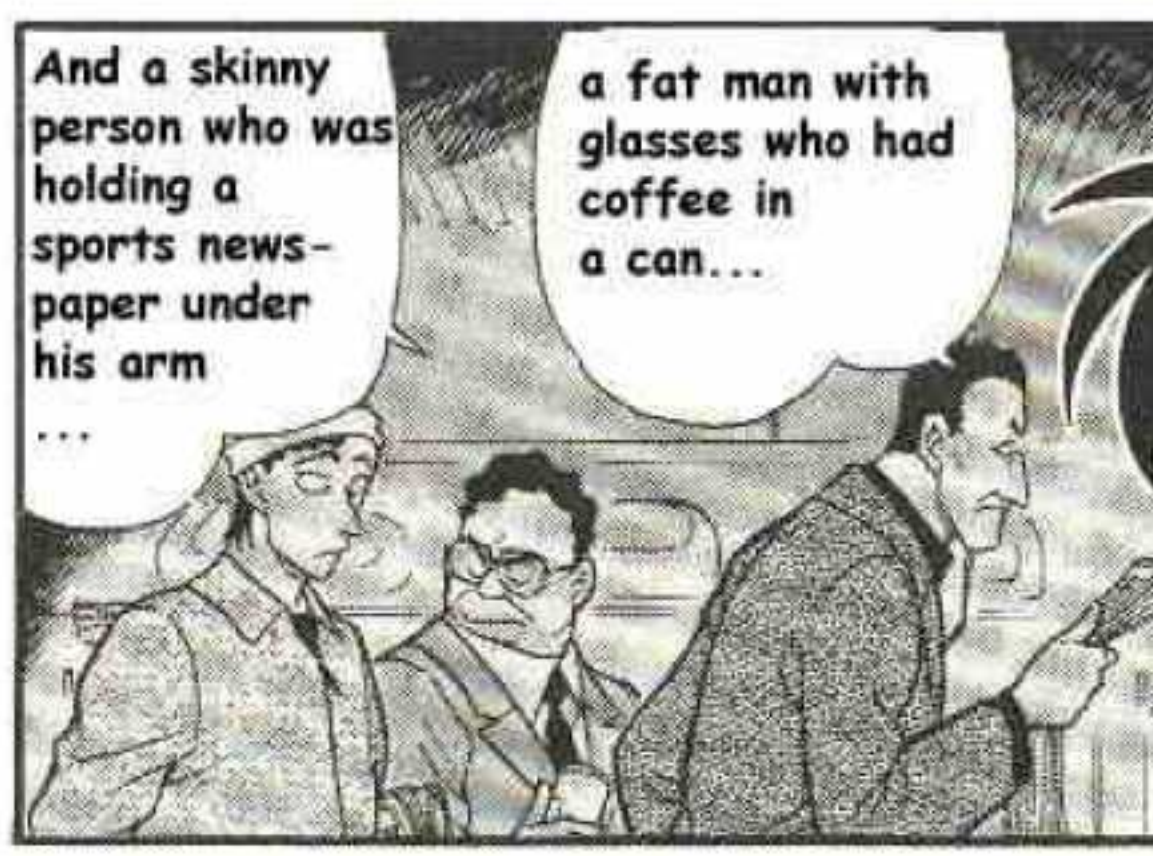

Hey, when I went to the bathroom, was there anybody that did anything suspicious?

I remember!

No...it was only a short period of time

Do you remember the faces of those people?

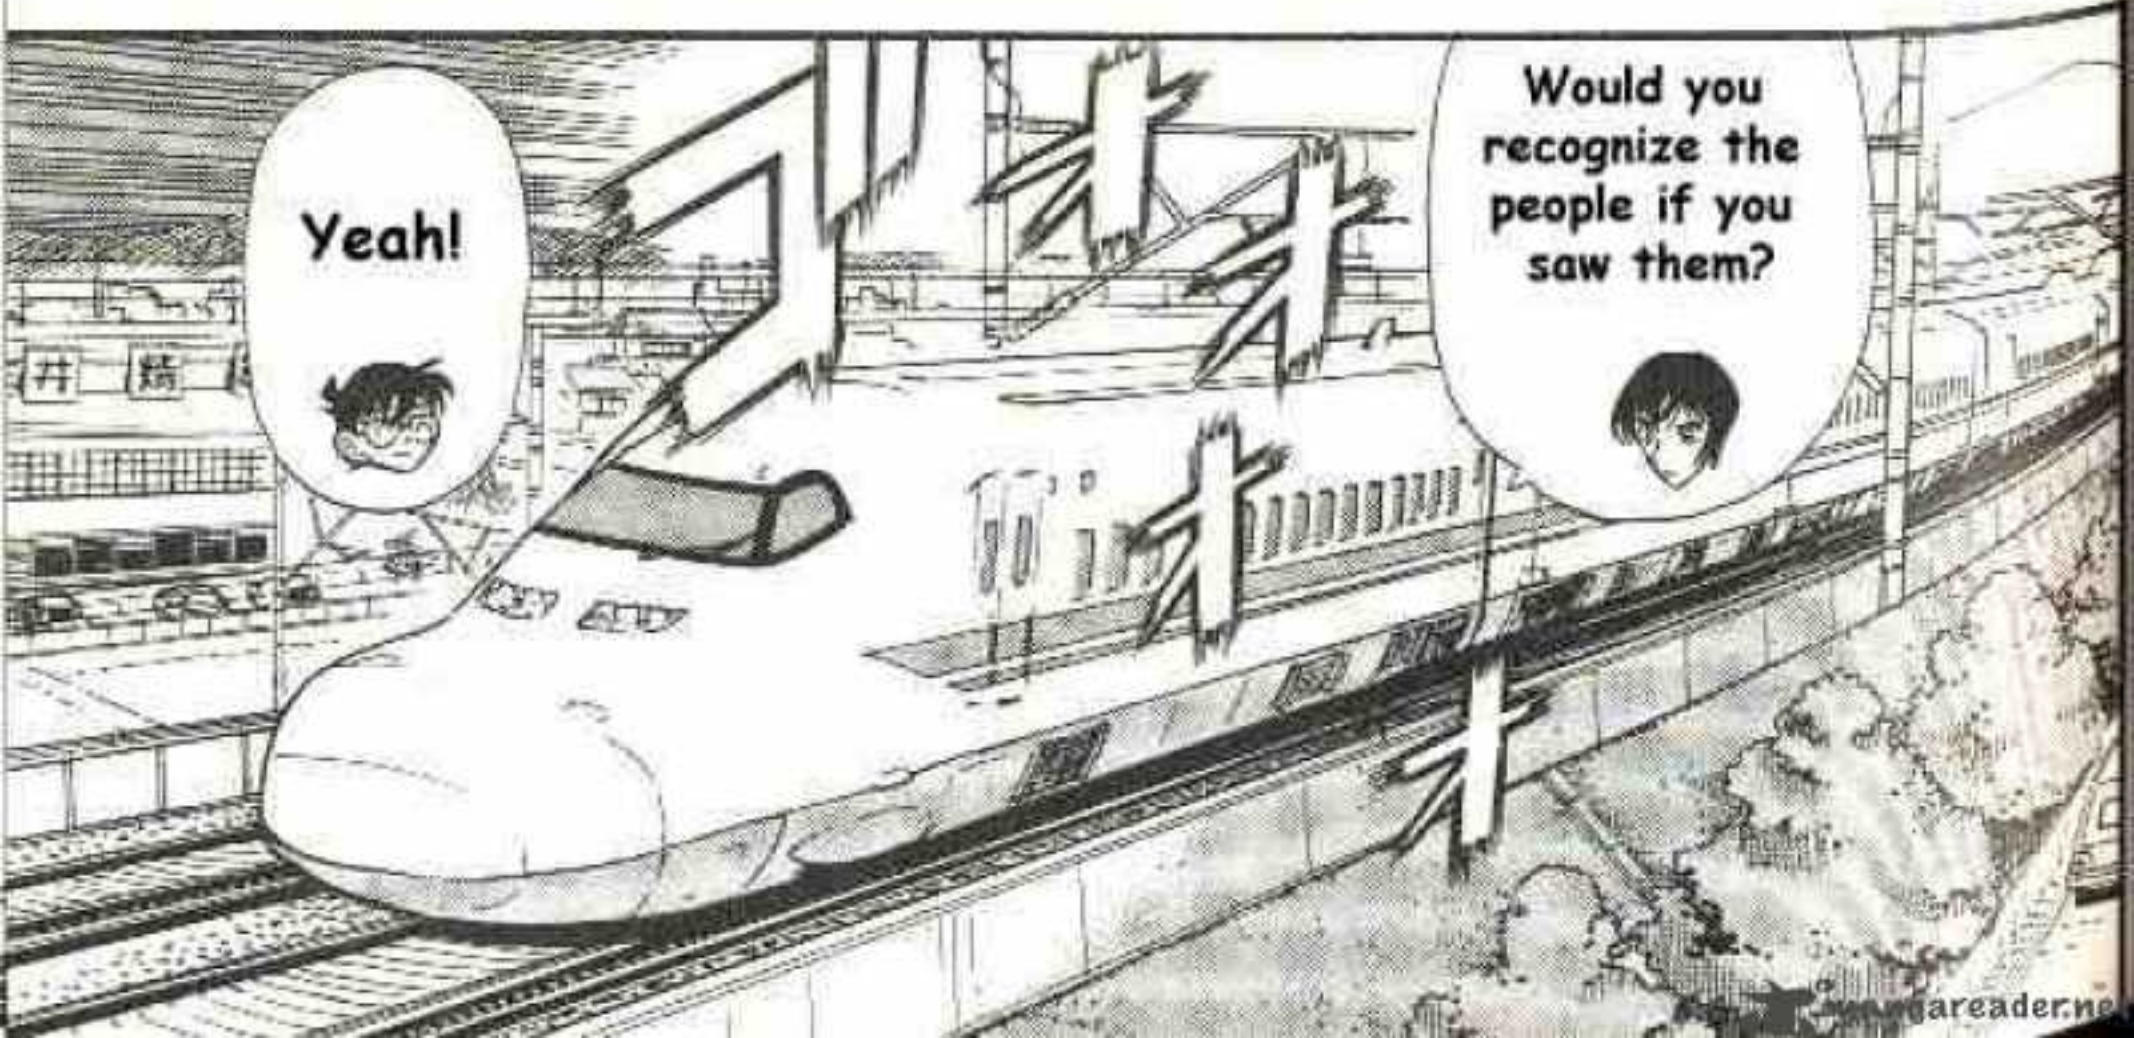

And a skinny person who was holding a sports newspaper under his arm a fat man with glasses who had coffee in a can...

There was scary large man with a newspaper on horse-racing,

Yeah!

Would you recognize the people if you saw them?

Oh, no...right before that man went to the bathroom, one of you may have sent a message to the victim to go to the other bathroom

And why would we have to answer the police because of that?

Somebody was murdered in the bathroom?

WHAT!?

If it's all right with you, why don't you tell us why you went pass our seats?

But there was some turmoil going on, and it disturbed my listening to the horse racing. So I moved to the front seat. There aren't too many people on this train, so I thought I'd find a place to sit...

I was 4 seats behind your seats ...

Taturo Iwakuni (47)
Passenger

I heard that there was a bomb in the bathroom, but I didn't think someone was murdered...

Norio Tokuyama (51)
Passenger

I bought a can coffee from the vending machine and was just about to go back to my seat in the front...

I wanted to get away from the bomb as much as possible..

I also heard about the bomb, and I got scared so I switched seats!

Akira Akashi (29)
Passenger

Y, yeah...

Right?

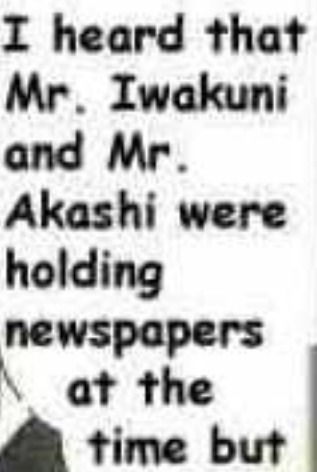

Oh, the guy with the glasses was also reading the newspaper in his seat.

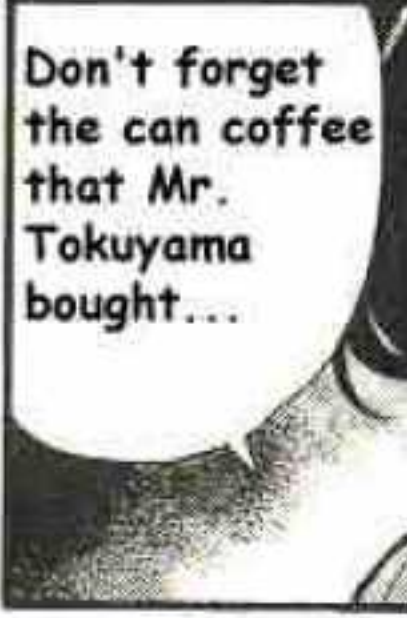

We were holding them!

Yeah...

I heard that Mr. Iwakuni and Mr. Akashi were holding newspapers at the time but...

Don't forget the can coffee that Mr. Tokuyama bought...

Then could you bring the newspaper you have?

That's because you were staring at other places!

I also bought my newspaper there, but I didn't see three of you...

Ho---... you all went on the train at the Shinosaka station, and bought your newspapers at a store at the station...

Mr. Akashi has "Sunday selling sports" ...

And a can coffee ...

Mr. Tokuyama has "Everyday newspaper morning issue",

Mr. Iwakuni has "Horse-racing 7" ...

How could you give the message "Go to the bathroom" with this...

The same goes with coffee ...

And there's no way, unless there's a hole ...

All three of them don't have any large words saying "bathroom" or "toilet",

Huh?

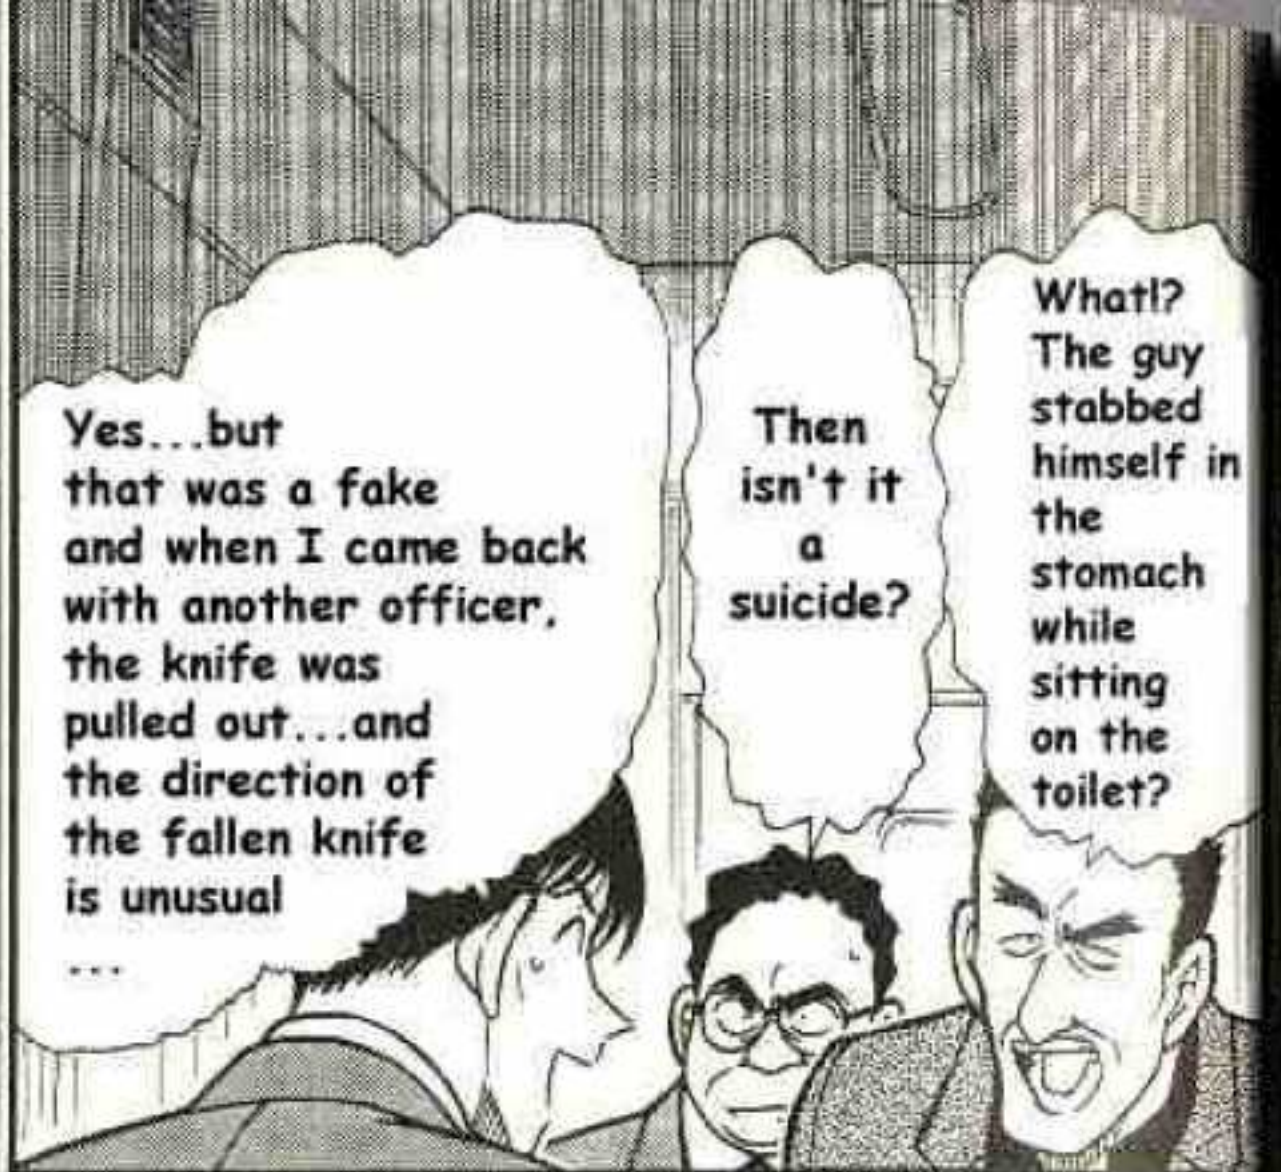

This is...

Wait a minute!

Then isn't it likely that the man used two hands and stood up because the knife wouldn't come out?

Oh...

Yes...but that was a fake and when I came back with another officer, the knife was pulled out...and the direction of the fallen knife is unusual

Then isn't it a suicide?

What!? The guy stabbed himself in the stomach while sitting on the toilet?

Oh, no ...

Are you suspecting us for something like that!?

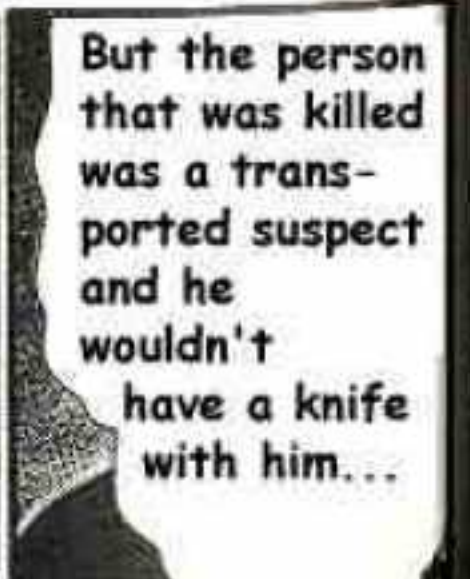

He's right! You can't tell which direction the knife would fall if he was standing up!!

Same with me!

Same with me! I have some important things to do

Why should we know! Even if we get to Tokyo, you can't stop us!!

But the person that was killed was a transported suspect and he wouldn't have a knife with him...

y, yeah...

Hey Uncle, when you went to the Shinosaka station store, do you remember what you bought?

W, what should we do...

What are you going to do? It's not even 10 minutes until Tokyo..
