The Time of Lies

From our theory, the death time is about 4 to 5 o'clock in the evening today

The people who knew where the sign was kept could only be the employees here! That means they are the suspects in this case

That time, the killer used the cleaning sign and hung it in front of the shower room to keep the people out. He then went in and gathered long hairs from the drain. He brought the hairs here and put them inside the newspaper to make it look like it was cursed!

2

But employees that never saw or even heard about the dead body shouldn't be count as suspects

I don't know if this case happened because it's from the curse or not...

W... Wait Officer

Please gather all the employees and met here! I would be investigating and asking them one by one

Now I understand

I never mentioned anything about a long-haired man to them

Also I only told the employees that I called Detective Mouri to help investigate about a briefcase that was left here 5 years ago

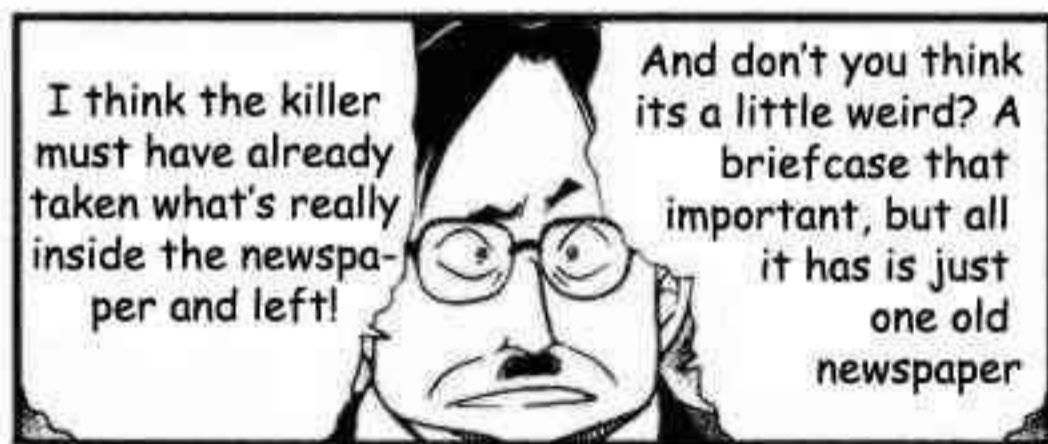

Uh...No. I went to pick up the briefcase at his room. Also he'd only been here during the Springs 4 years ago

Eh? But 5 years ago when the man came wasn't everyone also there?

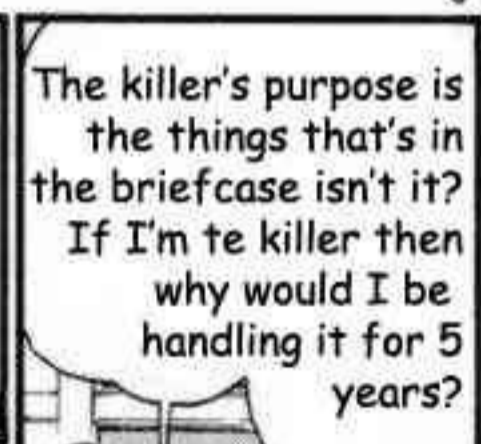

Wa... Wait! I'm not the killer ...

That means the only person who knew about the long-haired man was you huh?

I think the killer must have already taken what's really inside the newspaper and left!

And don't you think its a little weird? A briefcase that important, but all it has is just one old newspaper

The killer's purpose is the things that's in the briefcase isn't it? If I'm te killer then why would I be handling it for 5 years?

Um ... Officer?

Yeah, if the newspaper have anything special to it then it wouldn't be obvious

What he said is kind of true

It has the word "Mae 5" written on it

Look! In front of Agagi Maru has it!

Eh?

What is "Mae 5?"

Maeg-nashira?

That time Agagi Maru was the East. So they called him Maegnshira Number 5

This is Maegnshira number 5

Maegnashira is the highest title in Sumo wrestling

That has nothing to do with it even more!!

How about Maedaore-Jizo?

How could they be linked together?

You Stupid?

Does it have anything to do with Kashi-gami Forest?

Careful?

So even though Agagi Maru won the highest title, but he wasn't any good could only meant he must be really carefull

Oh?

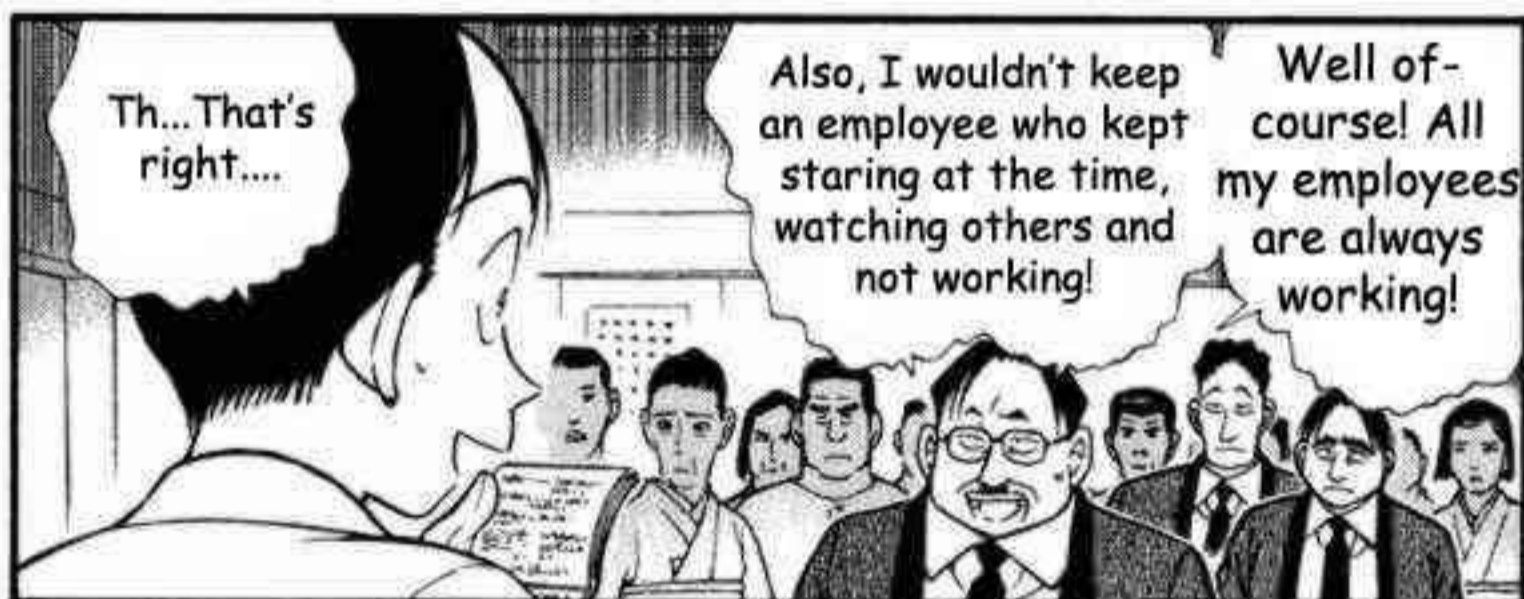

Maegnashira is the highest rank Sumo wrestling! Then coming down are Tokosuna, Oseki, Sekiwake, and Komusubi. The number 5 meant the 5th person in that title

Nobody had any witness where they were around 4 to 5 o'clock

I interrogated everyone ...

Th... That's right....

Also, I wouldn't keep an employee who kept staring at the time, watching others and not working!

Well of-course! All my employees are always working!

6

Oh! Detective Mouri!

Yama-mura speaking...

Eh?

Have you seen Conan-kun and Dad?

Yes ?

Offi-cer Yama-mura!

I understand

Yes!

Yes sir!

Is that true!?

What!?!?

It's that ...

U..Uhh ... nothing

What did Dad said ?

B ... But ...

I'll go pick them up right now! You could just go back to your room and rest!

AAA

Oh! and uh... Conan-kun is with him!

Huh ?

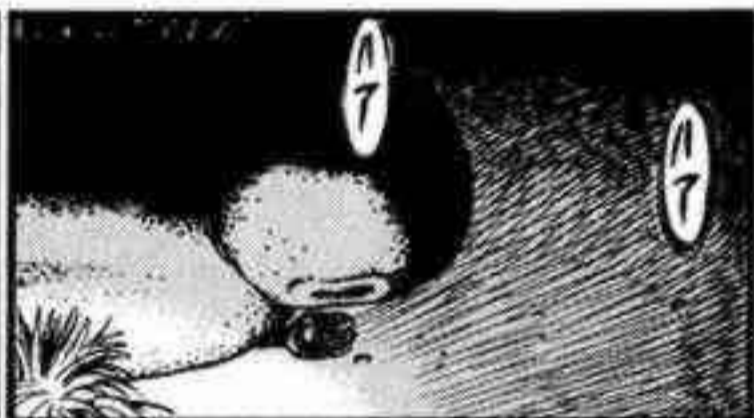

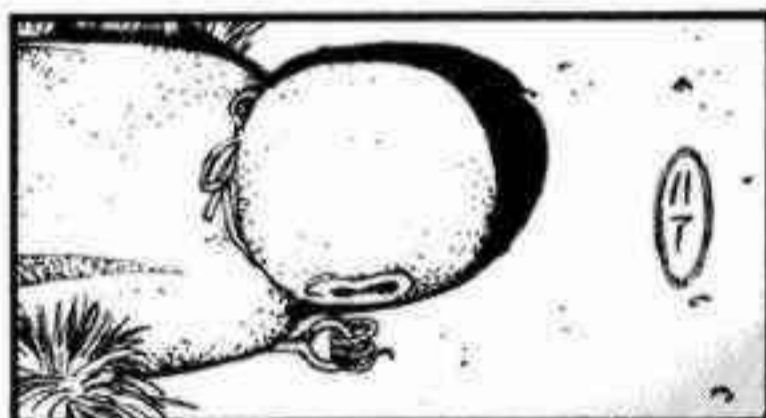

Well your dad went out to investigate about this case in near by neighborhood, but people thought he was suspicious so they arrested him. He's at the police station right now!

I'll investigate about this case a bit later tomorrow

Also, please tell the employees to go back and rest!

8

H...How could it be
?

Rocks

10

And the newspaper is the map that leads to the hidden money that was robbed !

The other is the long-haired man who left the briefcase at the Hotel !

One of the robbers was you !

When I saw the 10,000 Yen bills I knew right away its the stolen money from the 100 million Yen robbery case 5 years ago!

Maegnashira is the keyword that meant the statue of Jizo in Kashignami Forest!

The point is during that time, Agagi Maru was Maegnashira number 5 of the East

The Black Star indicating the place of the money !

Then walk to the right into the forest 8 steps just like the number of holes in the newspaper!

From the statue of Jizo, walk to the east 5 steps

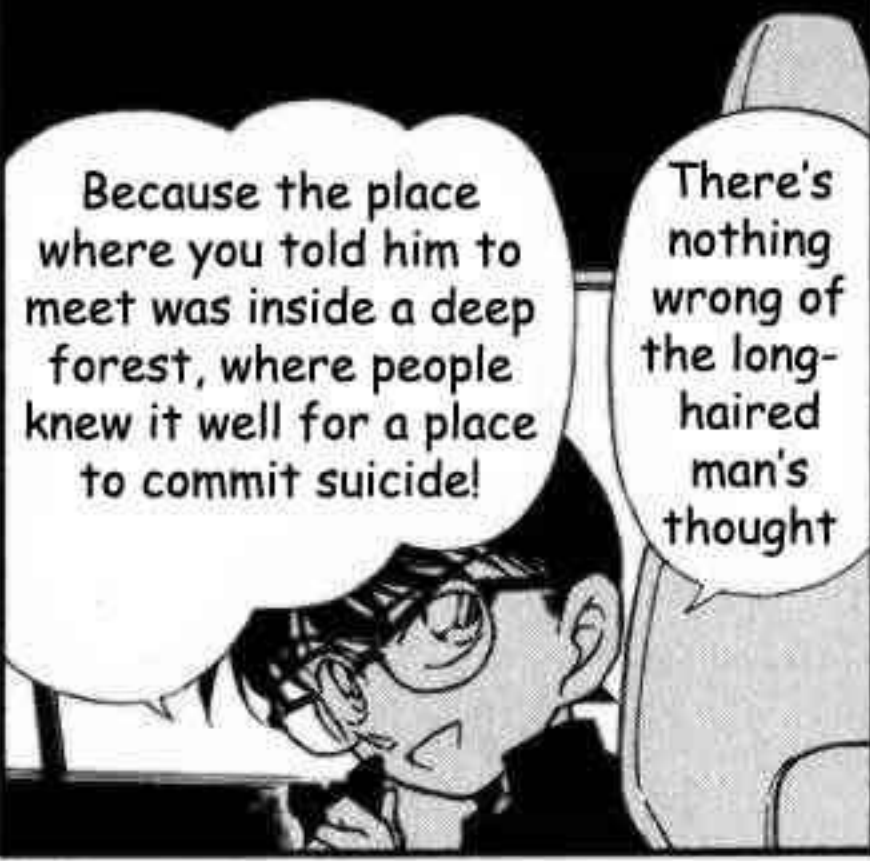

Was because he had a thought ...

The reason that the long-haired man left the briefcase at the Hotel ...

Yes ...

Isn't that right?

If you dug it up, this is what you would find !

Because the place where you told him to meet was inside a deep forest, where people knew it well for a place to commit suicide!

There's nothing wrong of the long-haired man's thought

A thought that you will kill him and take all the money ...

Mr. Jimbo ...

In case if his thoughts were true

So he put the money in a jar and left a newspaper containing a map that only he could understand and left it at the Hotel !

It contains a message that cursed you for killing him and desired to take all the money to yourself

The evidence is the letter that was left with the briefcase

You didn't gave up, so you decided to become an employee to find out about the money yourself !

But all he gave you was a letter containing the message "I Curse you to death!" in it

To protect your identity !

You then came to the hotel in disguise

And things turned out to be true. After you heard the long-haired man said the money was left at the Hotel, you killed him and hung him in the forest. You made it look like he committed suicide

And use the key that you took from the dead body to open and see what's inside the briefcase

You then hired a man who looked like me to take the briefcase before I arrive

Time passed, the body of the long-haired man was found. The manager head the news so he called me to investigate and check the briefcase that was left here 5 years ago

You then killed him and put the newspaper back and let me solve the mystery puzzle behind it

"I'll expose everything to the real Mouri Kogorou that's coming!"

The imposter who thought of receiving a large amount of payment and escape probably got angry and said...

But unfortunately, inside was not money but only an old newspaper!

Ha ha... What are you talking about?

Follow me to the Police Station!

Well there couldn't be any better evidence than you coming here to dig up the money

Nope! That man didn't died in the summer 4 years ago....!

The other thing, the long-haired man died the 10th of October 4 years ago when I was on my vacation with other employees!

Why you ...

I just saw what's inside the newspaper and have a weird thought. So I decided to come here and investigate incase it might help you!

So his time of death would be wrong and you would have an excuse in case you were interrogated!

The milk, bread, and receipt inside the backpack was something you put in after !

But he was killed during the Fall not too long after he brought the briefcase to the Hotel !

Because if the Driver License isn't extended then your excuse wouldn't be effective!

You took the Driver License to cut out the expiration date

That's why the body had a jacket on and cigarettes without a lighter!

You found the milk and receipt from other dead bodies on your way back here from vacation

But your purpose was actually to tell that the person who killed the imposter had something to do with the long-haired man! So you would be excluded from being a suspect

You put in the hair inside the newspaper so it would look like it was cursed

14

It's the straw ...

Uh.... about that

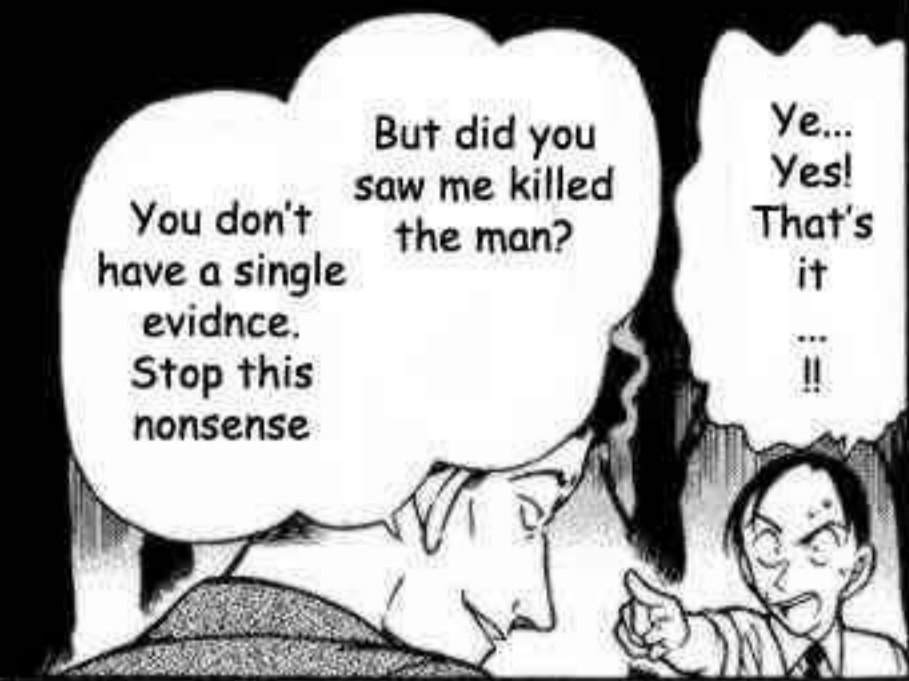

It might already belong to the long-haired man!

Huh ?

How'd you know that the milk and the receipt was put in after ?

Isn't that right? ♡

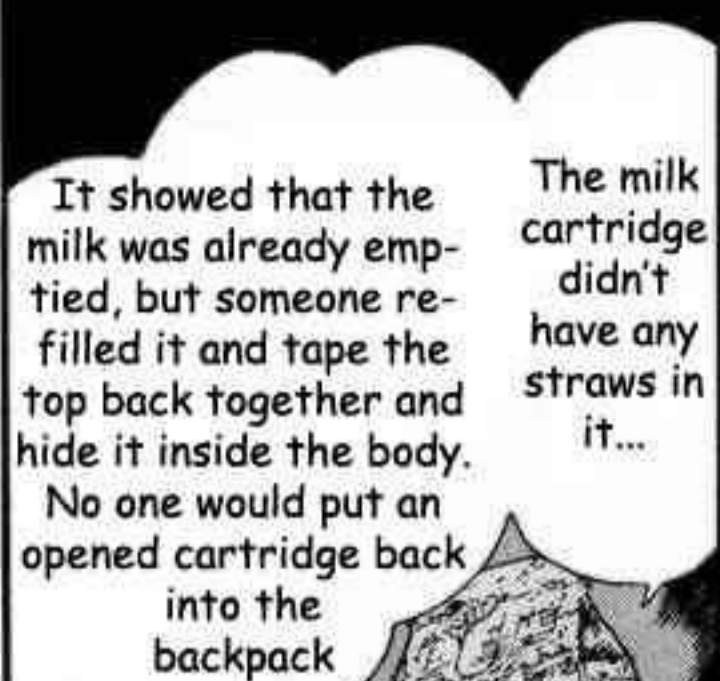

We know all your plans!

You don't have a single evidence. Stop this nonsense

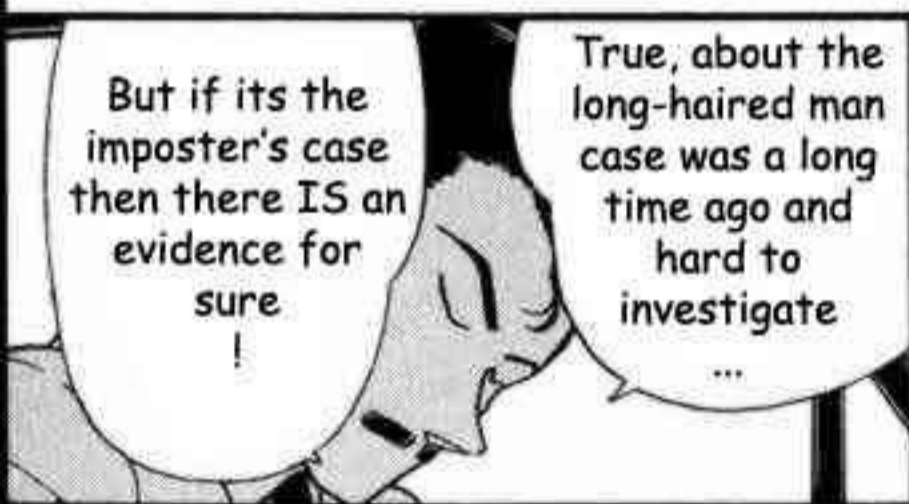

But did you saw me killed the man?

Ye... Yes! That's it ... !!

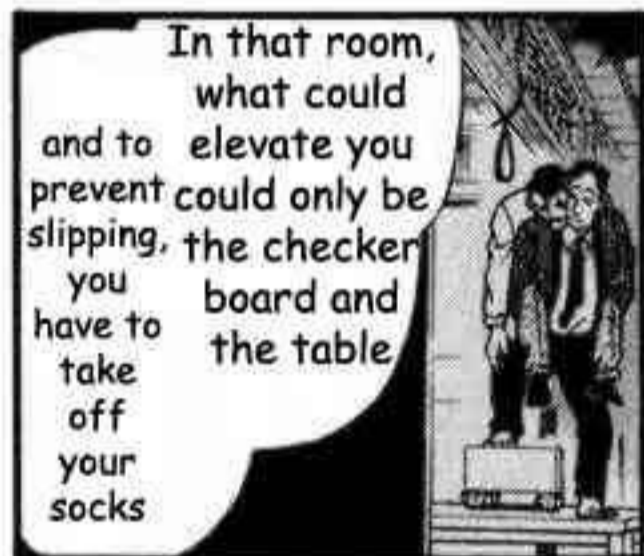

It showed that the milk was already emptied, but someone re-filled it and tape the top back together and hide it inside the body. No one would put an opened cartridge back into the backpack

The milk cartridge didn't have any straws in it...

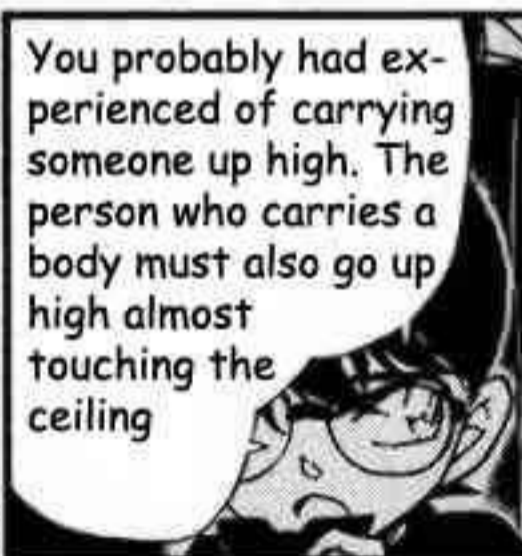

But if its the imposter's case then there IS an evidence for sure !

True, about the long-haired man case was a long time ago and hard to investigate ...

In that room, what could elevate you and to prevent slipping, you have to take off your socks

You probably had experienced of carrying someone up high. The person who carries a body must also go up high almost touching the ceiling

What ?

Yes...it's true that there's your finger prints on the light bulb

I'm not lying! you could check for my finger prints on the light bulbs!!

To change the light bulbs in the room....!

O...Oh Yeah! I used it to stepped up ...

If the foot print is the same as yours then everything would be solved

We were already informed by the police that there's someone's foot print on it

I don't believe that any Hotel would leave their table as dirty as their light bulbs

It's probably your finger prints from long time ago

But under the thick layers of dust....

Stop lying ...

Stop it Mr. Jimbo ...

You're the one who told me When you brought me my daughter's cellphone

Or else you wouldn't let the kid gave me hints and lure me out here?

How... How'd you know it was me?

Yes... You knew since you met me ...

I saw the sticker written "RAN MOURI" on it so I...

Ha...ha Why?

and you asked "Is this your daughter's?"

That time you handed me the phone even when Officer Yamamura was next to me and you saw us for the first time

That I'm the real Mouri Kogorou...

Jeez...I was so excited when you told me "I know who the killer is... come to the forest"

I can't remember a thing after following that Conan Kid

The Sleeping Kogor-ou!!

Wow!
That was amazing!

Don't worry about it

Oh yeah! How come people called me
"Miss Ejigo"
at the Hotel

Eh

Oh... you don't have to go to the Hotel for that...

We heard Mouri Kogorou is showing his deduction there...

Does this road lead to Aoiya Hotel?

Excuse Me
~!!

Oh!
Really!?

Would you like to come with us?

WOW!
What a coincidence!
We're heading to that Hotel too!

Uh... my name
?

What's your name

Thank you very much
!!

Hop in the back

Sure

A wandering playboy
...

Just call me...
Toyama
Kingorou
...
