The disappearance of Mitsuhiro

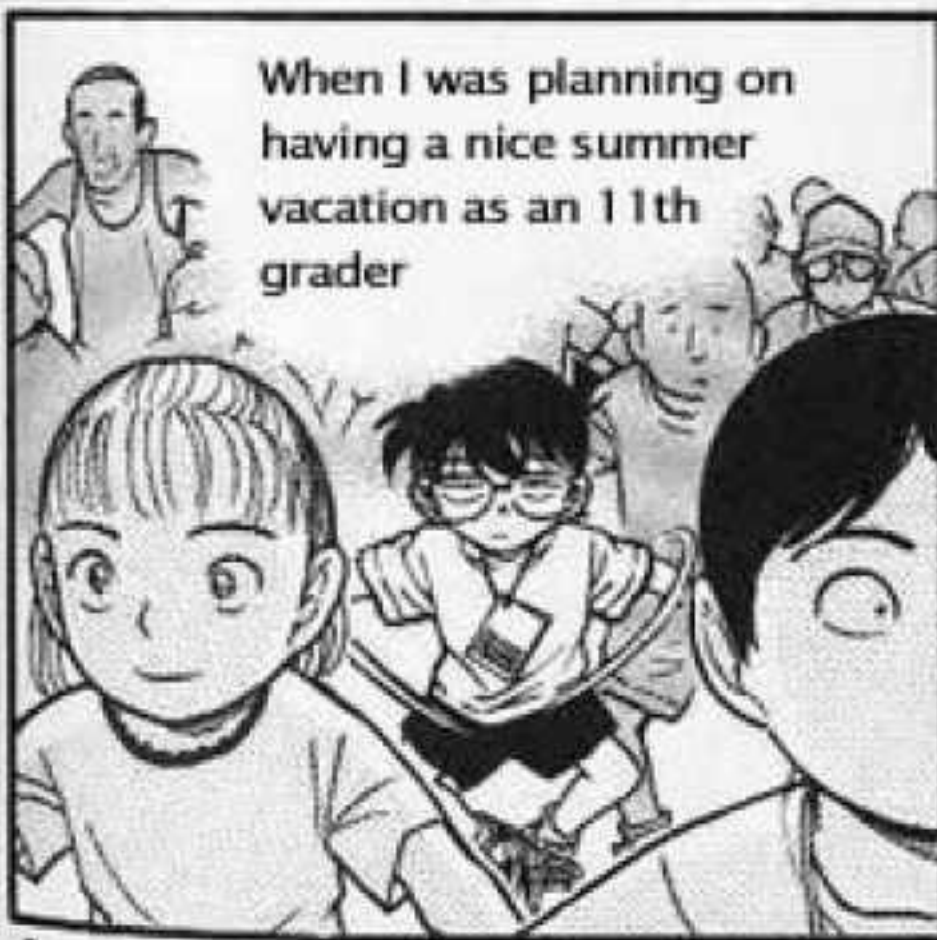

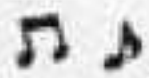

Ok
...

One,
two,
three,
f-

Let's go!

First we raise our arms up high and stretch our back

When I was planning on having a nice summer vacation as an 11th grader

What am I doing here...

If you don't exercise properly you'll feel sorry when you're older.

That's right!

A symbol of summer huh.

Radio exercising is an important symbol of summer!

Hey! Do it properly!

Well, I guess the doctor will need it.

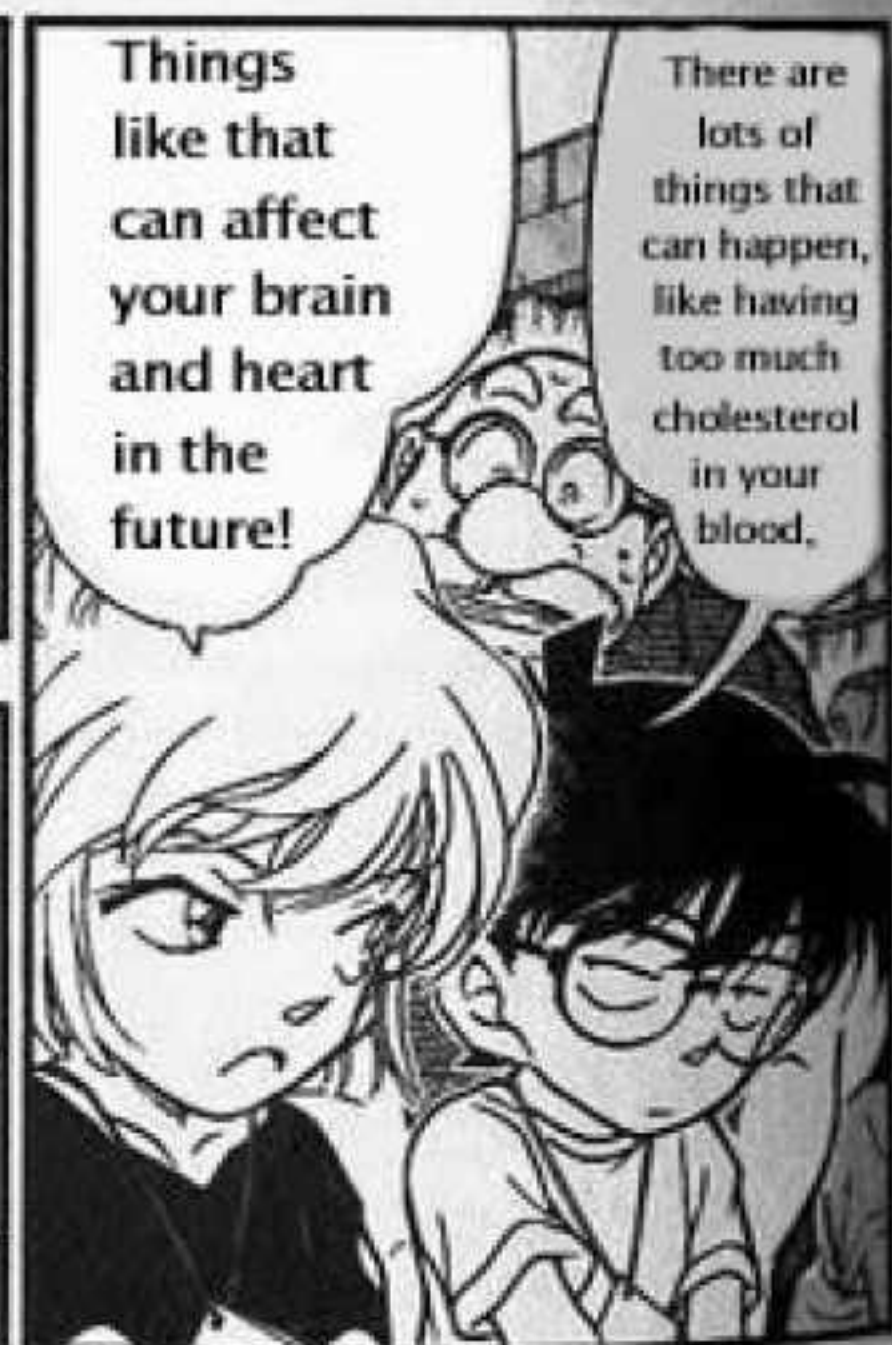

One, two!
Three, four!

It makes you think that summer is finally here!

The symbol of summer!

But what do you mean? By the thimble of summer or something.

Things like that can affect your brain and heart in the future!

There are lots of things that can happen, like having too much cholesterol in your blood.

Talking about not having something...

The only things left are probably fireworks and radio exercising!

You know, the doctor was talking about it on the way back from the fireworks! These days there's nothing like a symbol for summer in the city.

Camp?

He was saying that he was going camping with you guys after the radio exercising...

Stranger

Mitsuhiko didn't go?

Oh,

He was putting dango in his bag that he wanted to eat with everyone

Yeah. He was packing since last night

Well yes...

But seeing the likes of this I guess he didn't go camping.

The woman next door gave us a whole bunch of them!

Dango?

Mitsuhiko leaves a note a lot of times ...

Do you wanna go to Mitsuhiko's room?

No, Mitsuhiko always sticks with you guys.

Anywhere he would want to go by himself.

Do you know anything about it, Mitsuhiko's sister?

And his wallet's gone...

He didn't leave anything this time.

Huh, wallet?

That's strange ...

D, does that mean...

Bringing food for one day and a wallet, that means he went somewhere far.

He ran away.

Eh?

Well, even if he didn't run away he definitely was planning something.

Why are you happy

Oh my god, really? It's just like on movies!!

The days he skipped it are all Sundays?

See! Mitsuhiro's radio exercising card.

A date ...

Yeah right

Hey. Maybe he's going on a date with someone

Is there something special on Sunday?

They really are

That the girl helping out at her parents' flower shop said he was cool.

Mitsuhiro was talking about a while ago...

But still...

Because he went up to me and asked me for my sun block! The cool one that I ordered from America!

Huh? Why the beach?

Maybe that girl invited him and he went to the beach with her or something?

Oh-

You've gotta be kidding

Eating dango

On the beach ...

That Mitsuhiro ...

With a girl ...

So that's why Mitsuhiro speaks so properly.

Our parents are both teachers so they start yelling if we don't speak politely!

Oh y, yes mother!

Asami! If you do not hurry you will be late for your piano lessons!

I also wanna know about Mitsuhiro's love life!

Well, if you find anything cool out just call me on my cell phone!

She seems kind of happy.

That's true

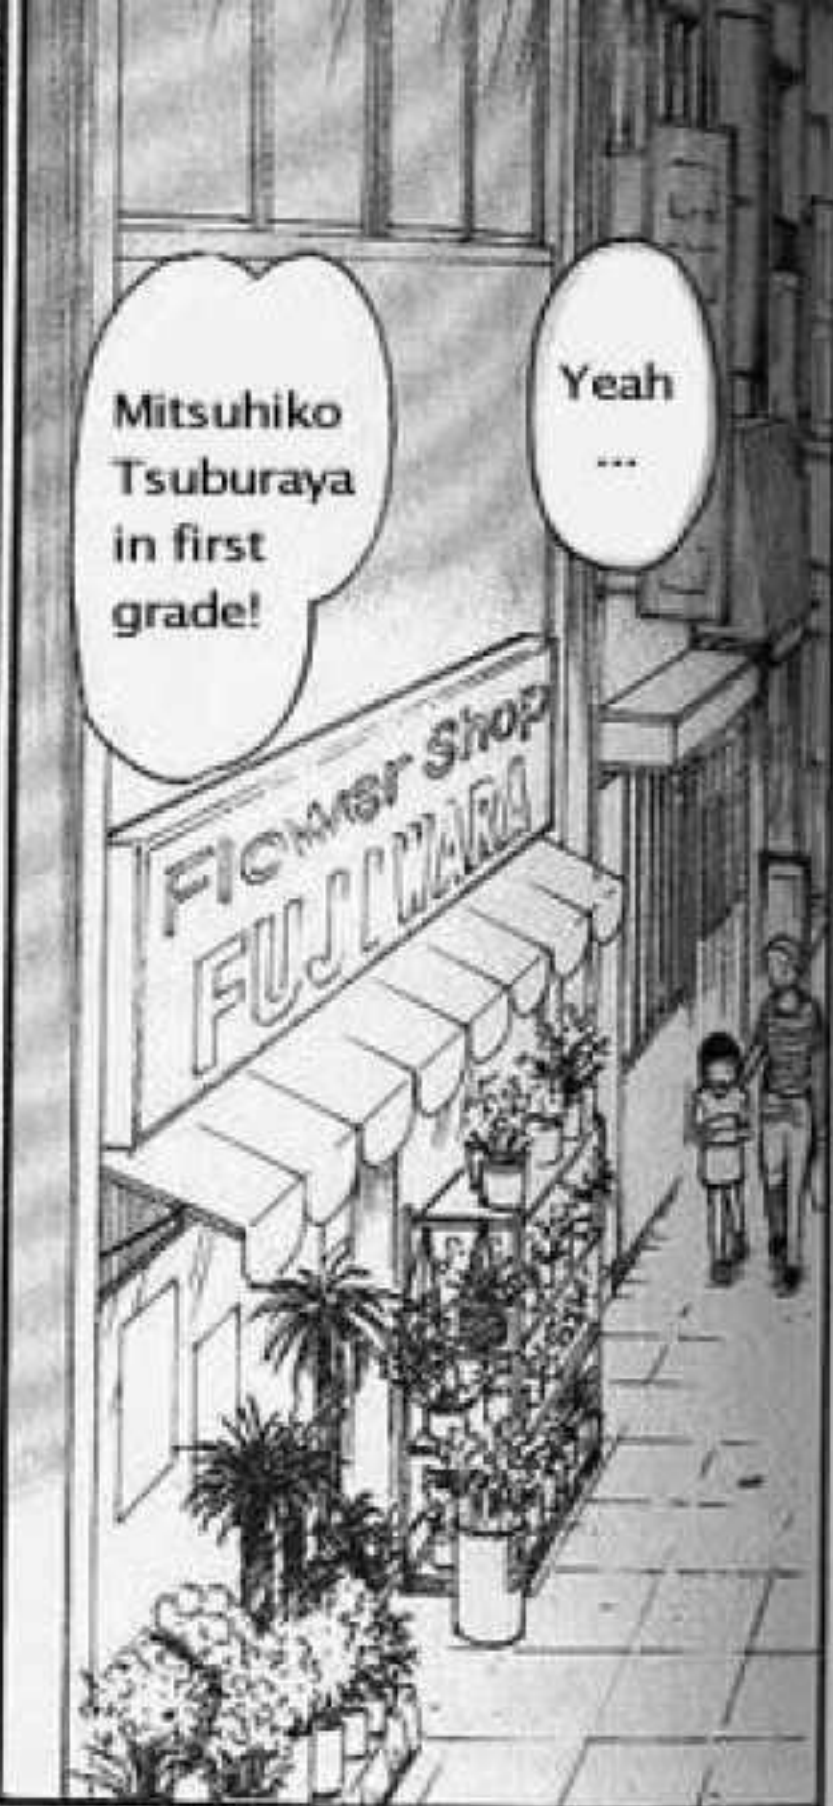

But, when her little brother is missing...

Till X X

Even around six thirty in the morning?

He didn't come today though

Mitsuhiko Tsuburaya in first grade!

Yeah ...

Oh yeah

This shop is from seven, and I was also radio exercising at that time so I don't know.

Some old guys were yelling at him.

But, last Sunday on the way to radio exercising I saw him at a bus stop...

Or was it Toyotomi and Tokugawa ...

Like Uesugi and Takeda...

I don't know... But he was saying some names of old people....

Couldn't take it?

Yeah! They were saying he couldn't take them!

Yelling at him?

Tokugawa's big treasure!?

To-

Huh?

Then maybe that kid I saw this morning was him.

Yes. This morning he disappeared.

Hey, did Mitsuhiro go somewhere?

Not again.

Mitsuhiro must have gone looking for it!

It was probably hidden on some beach!!

He looked like Mitsuhiro so I called his name. But then he ignored me and went away.

I was at the bus stop I just talked about this morning. And then there was this kid hiding his eyes with his hat who had a strange smell!

Not strange ...

A strange smell?

A lemon?

It smelled... sour like a lemon!

A strange smell?

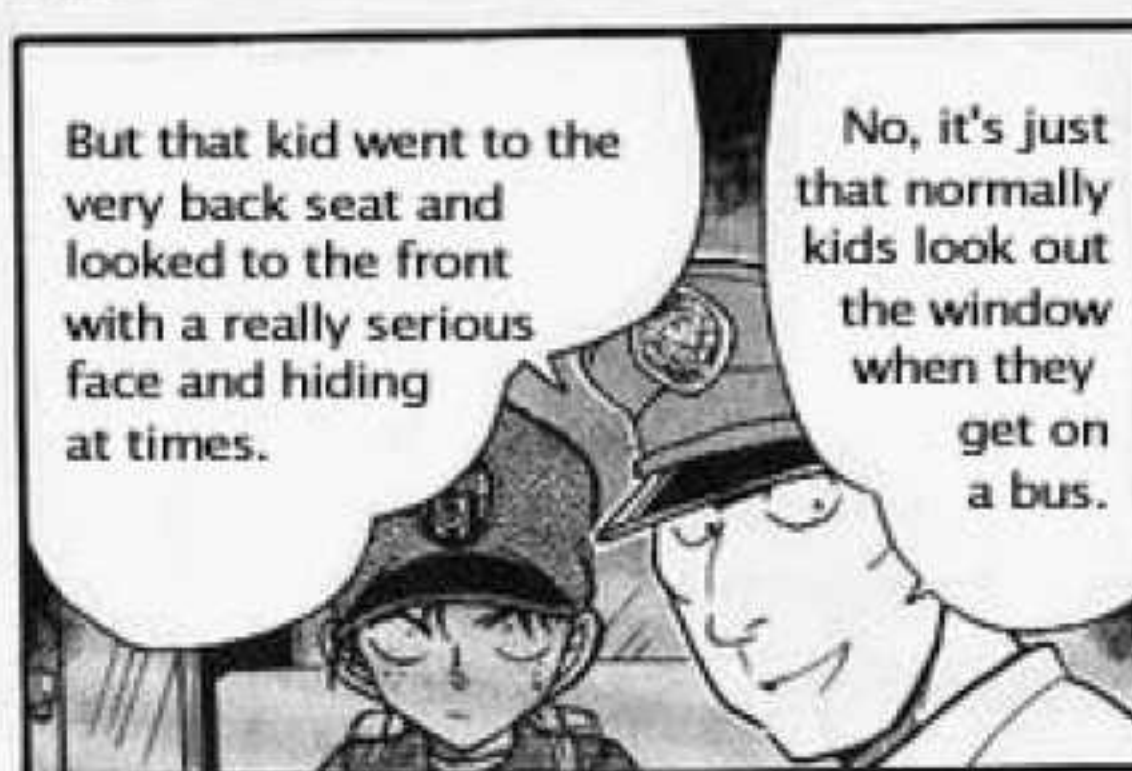

Oh, no that hasn't been decided yet.

That kid was a run away wasn't he?

The kid that smelled like lemon and had his hat over his eyes right?

Yeah I let him on!

But that kid went to the very back seat and looked to the front with a really serious face and hiding at times.

No, it's just that normally kids look out the window when they get on a bus.

And hiding at times?

With a serious face...

Main gate of Beika Station?

Hmm I think that was...

Do you know where that kid got off?

H, hey!

H, he ran away. Mitsuhiro ran away!

A kid that smells like lemon?

Huh?

The kid that bought an adult ticket by mistake!

Huh?

Maybe he's talking about that kid?

He had a hat on and a day back.

Was there a kid like that ...

the kid that was rushing me for his money back

Oh yeah

Or around Gunma ...

So from here it's either Chiba ...

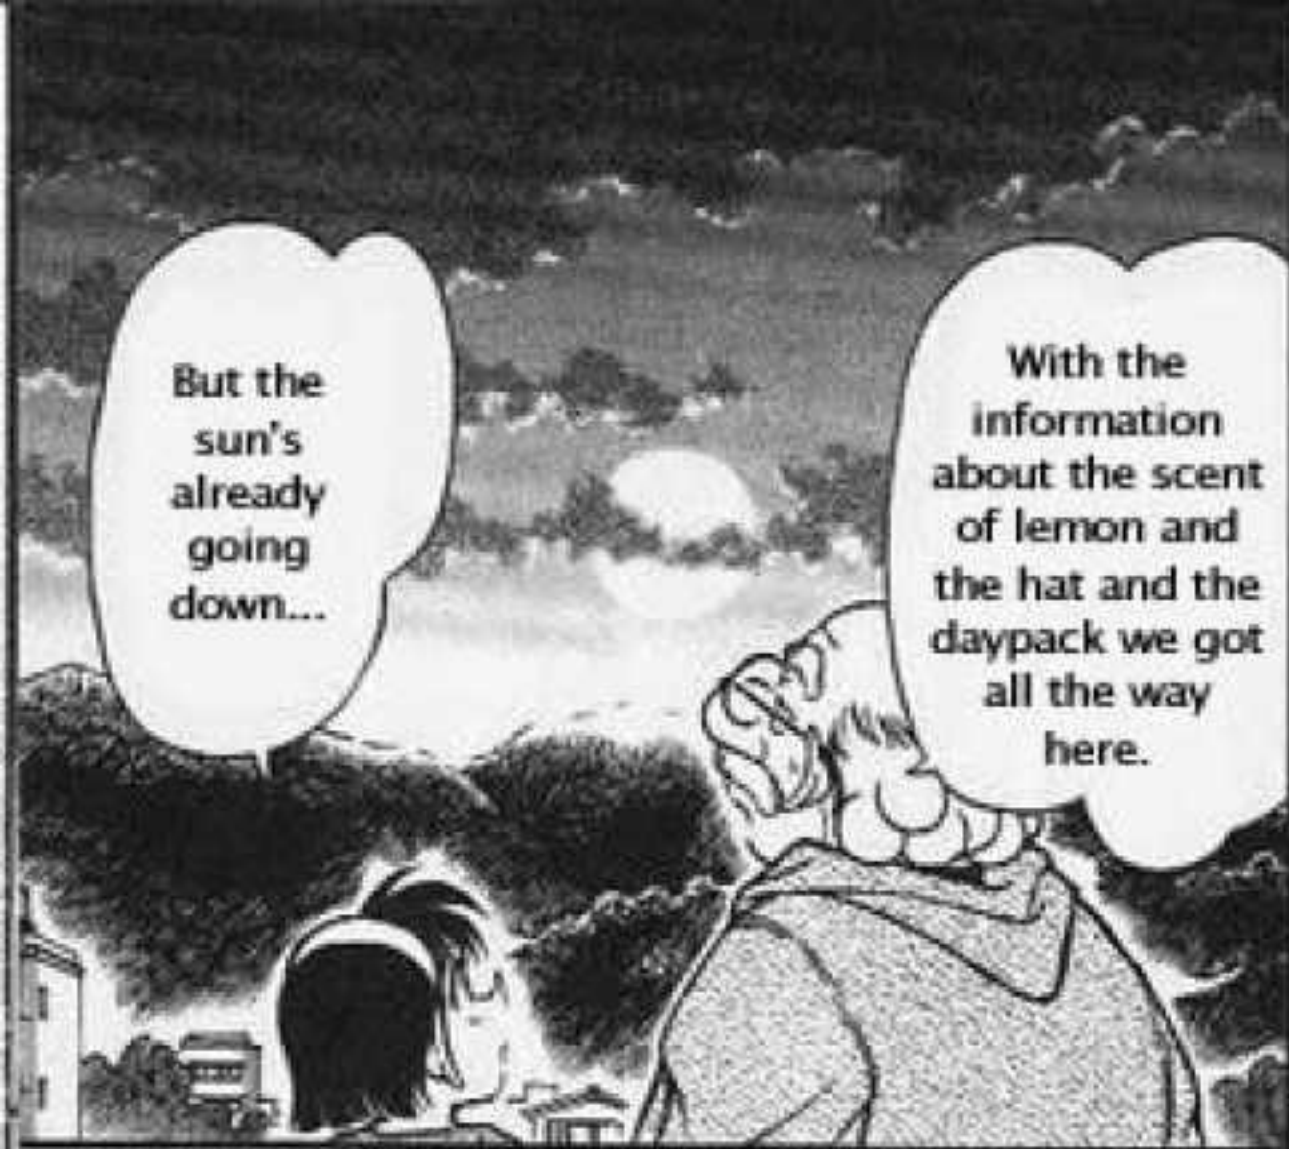

Hmm. It's 1900 yen for an adult ticket.

Do you know where he went by train?

Almost like someone was chasing him or something.

Rushing?

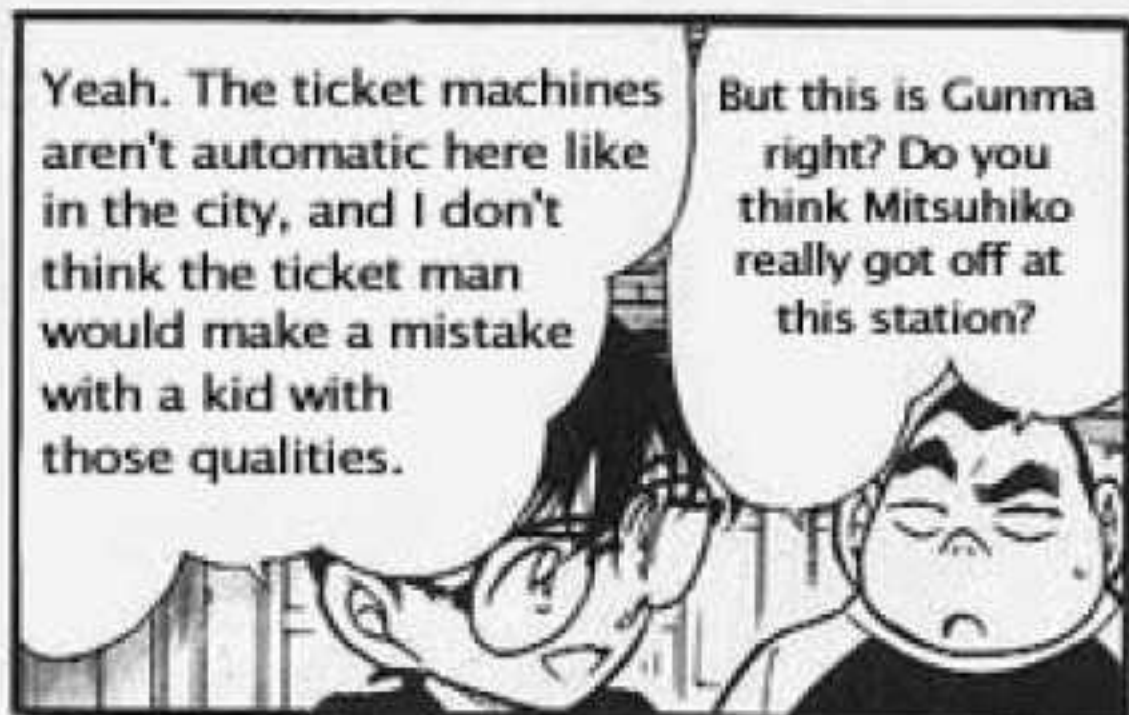

But the sun's already going down...

With the information about the scent of lemon and the hat and the daypack we got all the way here.

Ha ...

Yeah. The ticket machines aren't automatic here like in the city, and I don't think the ticket man would make a mistake with a kid with those qualities.

But this is Gunma right? Do you think Mitsuhiro really got off at this station?

We're positive he's around here!

And plus, Mitsuhiro's detective badge is reacting.

But don't you wonder?

Well, with these glasses we'll be able to find him soon.

I've been trying to but he doesn't answer!

If Mitsuhiro has his badge, why don't you call him!

It could have been a cute reason?

Well well we don't have to think about it that hard!

D, do you think he really ran away?

For the first time turned his back to us and went this far into the mountains.

The reason that that Tsuburaya that never breaks any rules..

Fell in love ?

and after following her he got all the way over here.

Maybe he just fell in love with a girl he saw,

First love tastes like a lemon!

You know what they say!

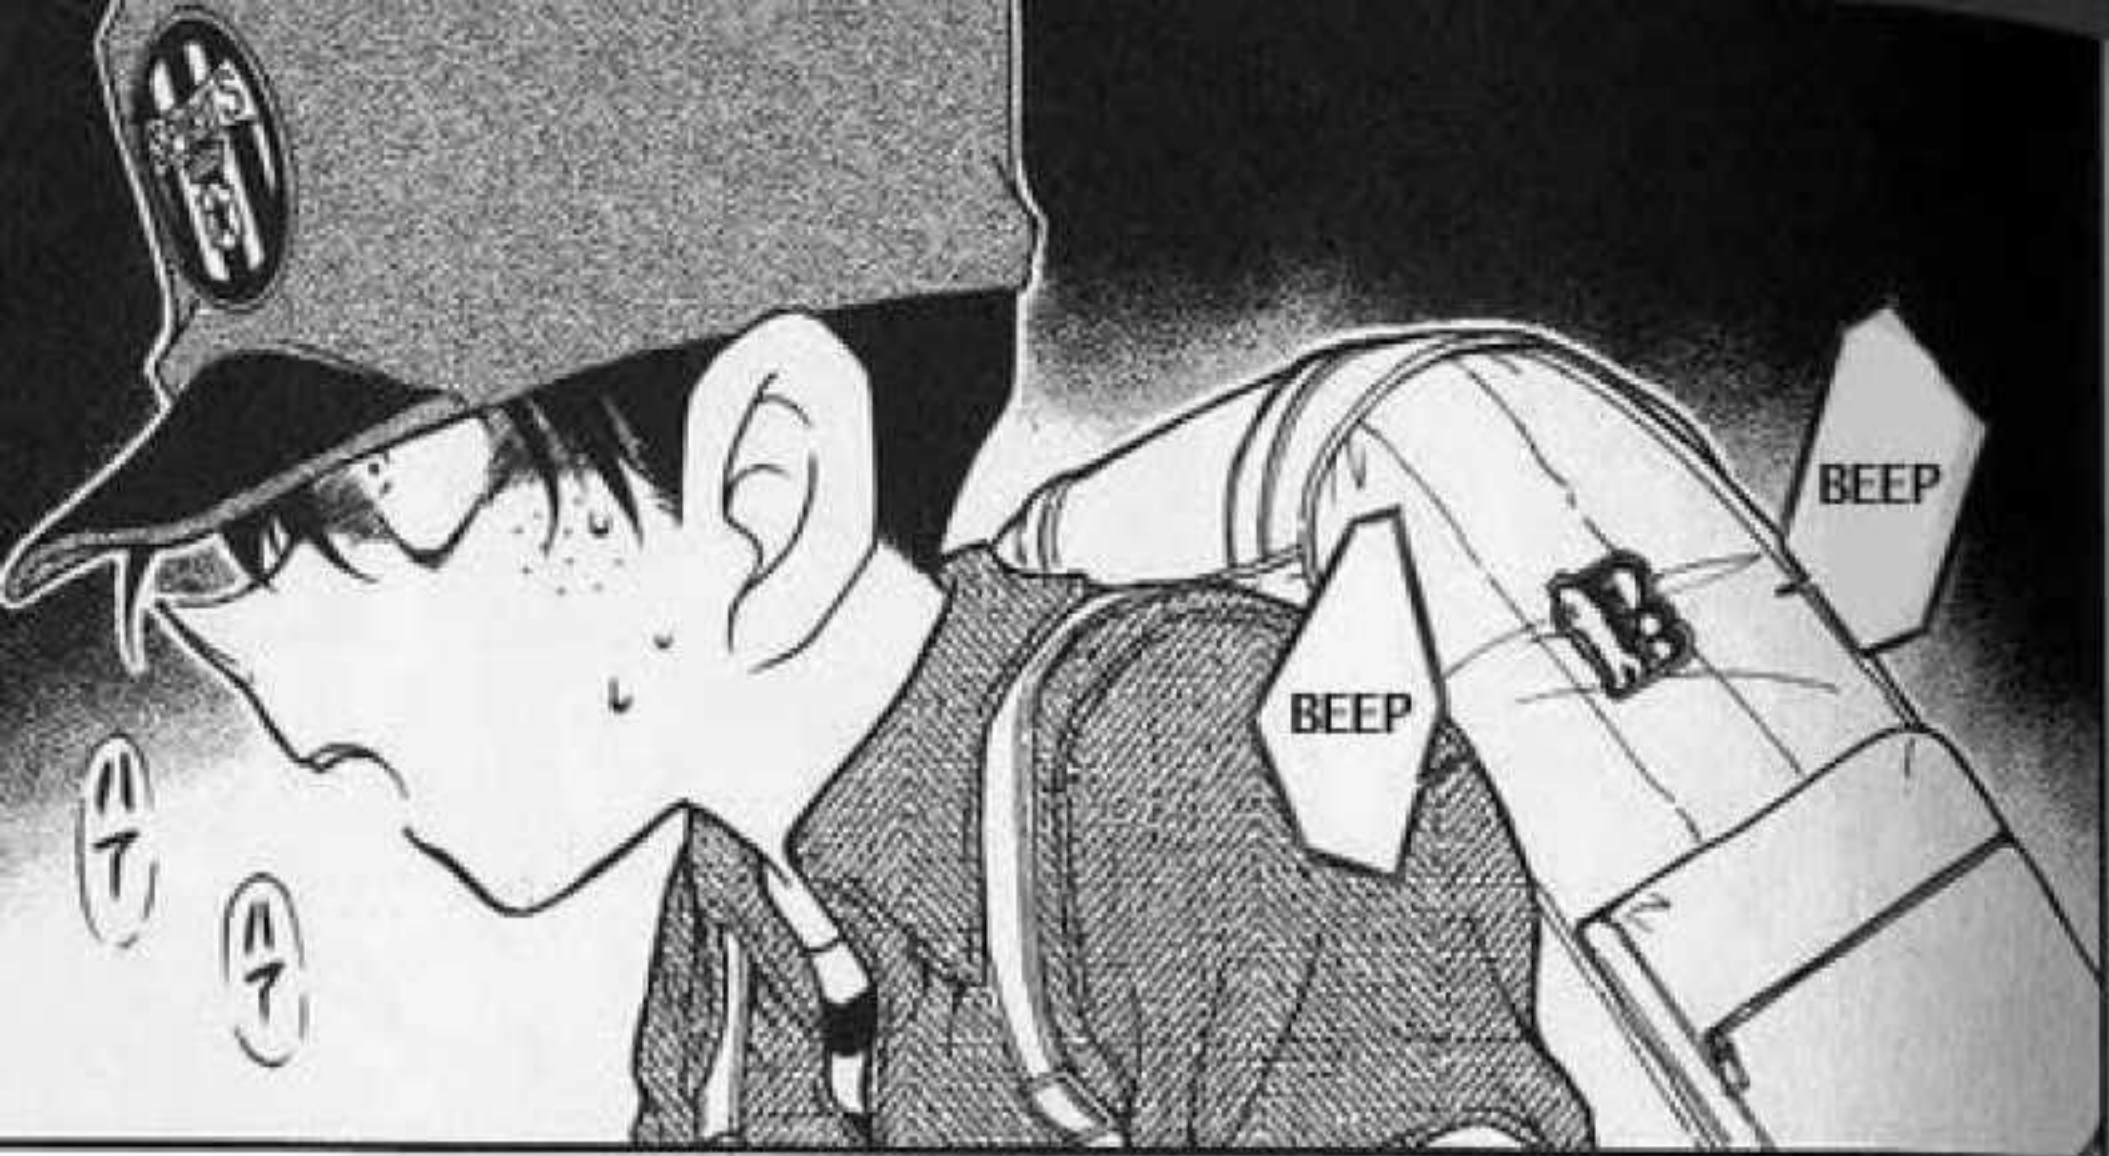

BEEP

BEEP

H, hey.

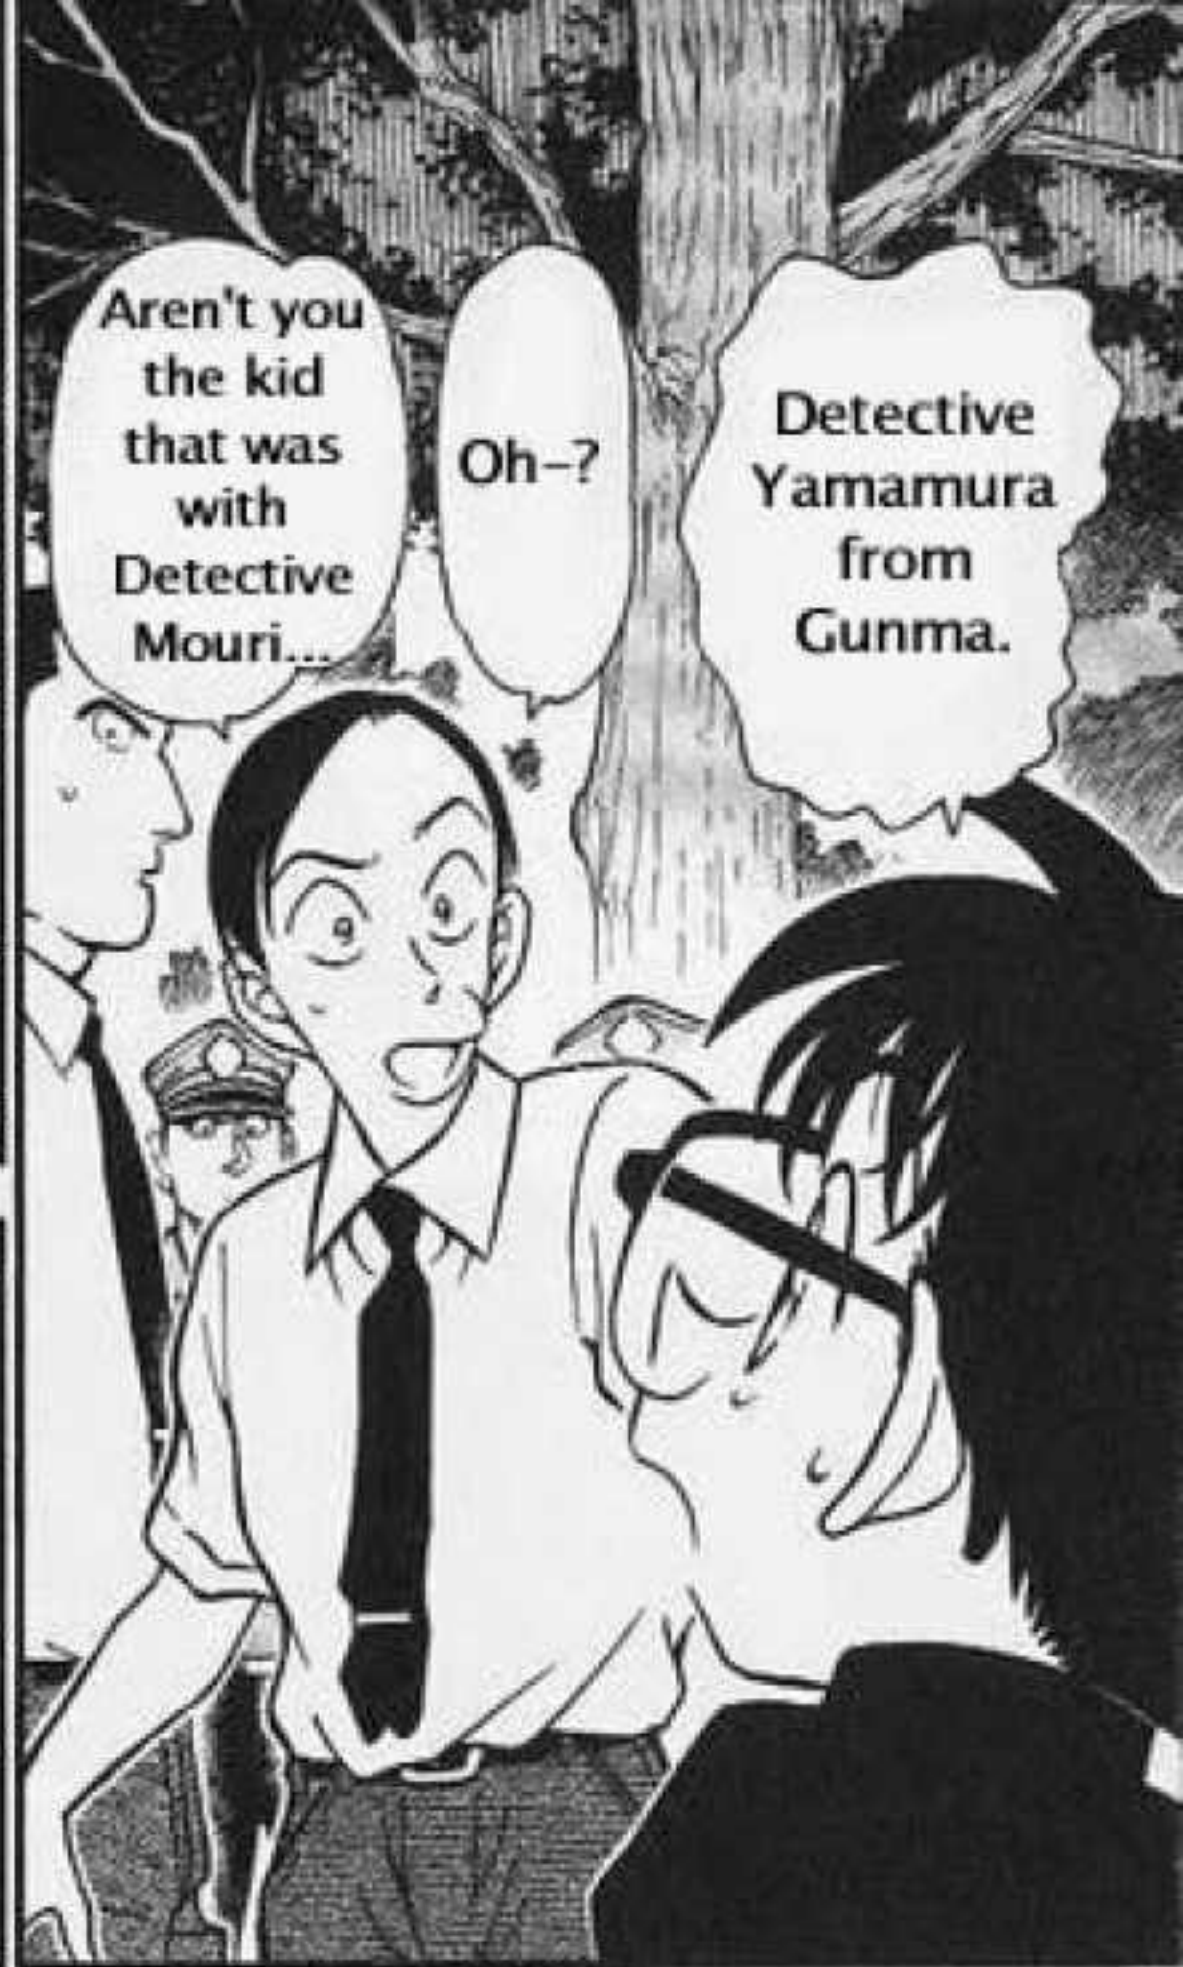

Ok! Let's go.

What am I doing ...?

What are you doing? In a place like this.

Aren't you the kid that was with Detective Mouri...

Oh-?

Detective Yamamura from Gunma.

Huh ?

The truth is... One of the older detectives missed and he got away ...

A man ?

A man way scarier is hiding in this forest!

Why, do bears come out or something ?

Can you please leave this place at once!

Anyway, it's dangerous here!

Kiichirou Yamabuchi

That serial killer..

What!?

Wh

We have to tell this to Mitsuhiro quickly

H, hey Conan

B, but in this forest...

That's why you have to...

That guy I saw in Osaka is in this forest

Why don't you answer !?

Dammit!!
