"The Evil Device of the Will" Part 2

Detective Series File 44!

Yes!

Thank you!

Really?

I knew you were coming, so I kept it for you!

I can't wait to see the ending.

Finally!

I'm back.

This is heaven~♪

Then I'll read again!

Eat lightly and I must finish this book before tomorrow!

Today, I won't watch TV or play games!

And tomorrow is Sunday...

We could have a sleep over and play...

Didn't you want to see the professor new toy?

Well...

Err...

What's so important?

Huh? Pass?

the title of...

Oh, today was the release of...

The only thing left is detective series...

There's no soccer game today...

What's so important?

See ya!

* Doesn't really translate. Means something like 'I'm about to enjoy this meal.'

And it's not easy to get good seat in the theater!

What do you mean? The game going to be show over and over again in the TV and news.

And the game is only once...

The theater going to repeat the story anyway.

Why don't we split into two groups?

Where is it?

We can go to a different one...

Hey...there are five performances...

Eh?

It's at the same time...

I just remembered...

Yeah...

Isn't that right Ran?

Theater, too!

Stupid! A game has to be seen live!

Yeah...

If you're a man, you'll pick baseball, right?

Her aunts all kept their money to see it.

There's a famous theater...

The baseball game...!

Then...

Err... Why don't we do...

PICK ONE!!

But the theater is so interesting, too!

The game is very energetic!

How about uncle?

That's true...

The baseball game will start even if it rain...

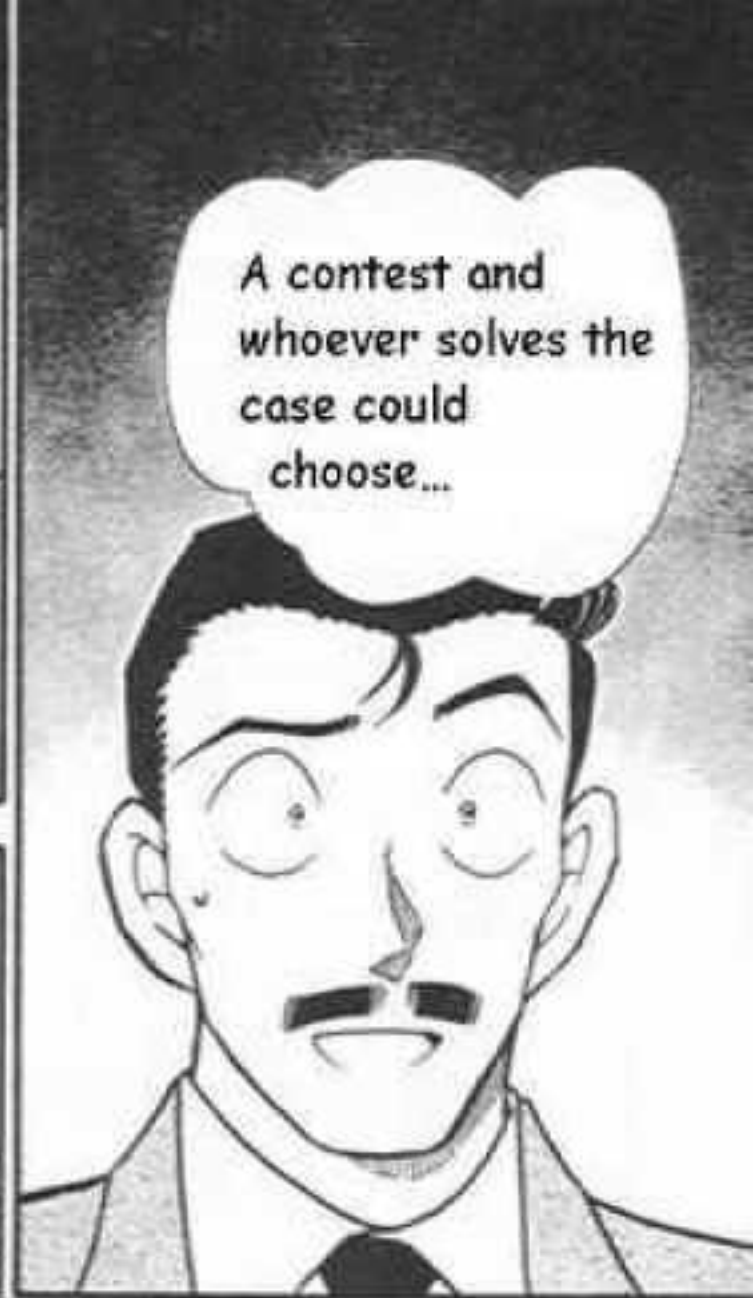

They all bought tickets for the same day, they only could get the ticket on that day.

The company they work for is on a holiday in Koshien. All the workers there like to see that play.

I'll be on Kazuha's team.

This is his home and work place...

The dead man was the boss to a toy company. His name was Kenji Tsujiya-san, 53 years old.

That's ok...

Sorry I asked you to come by...

Oh, Mouri-kun...

I was expecting you...

They usually wait for their boss to come to the restaurant below...

There were 4 workers who found him...

He was found at 10 AM, June 30th.

The death time was 5 PM on Sunday June 29th.

So they used an extra key to open the door.

But the boss didn't show up at 9:30 AM.

Ha ha, I thought so...

I already solved the previous case!

Hey, how about being paid...

Heiji Hattori-kun?

Err...

Ok...

Please come in...

Huh?

The body was found under the table!

The boss was tied up and was hit to death by golf club...

with this case that you can't solve.

Anyway, please tell us what happened...

The police already examined the place right?

It's ok ...

Hey, there's no outsiders allowed!

東部信販

辻谷玩具製作所

(有)

so the assailant had to kill him anyway...

His face was probably seen by the boss.

Oh, then the reason was money...

See the safe is open and empty!

Is, is that so?

I guess the two of us are going to figure it out ourselves!

Dad, why didn't you figure that out?

Ah ah...

Isn't that right, Inspector?

The police owe you, Hattori-kun...

I think the police already know about this.

Next to boss there were...

Ahhhhh

Yeah, tell us!

Huh?

Is there anything strange found?

Then the person was tied with rope...

Probably when he struggled.

That proves that the boss was struggling when he was tied down.

During that, the ink probably fell...

The body landed in the ink?

How do you know?

Because he wanted to know the combination to the safe.

Why did he hit after he tied him up?

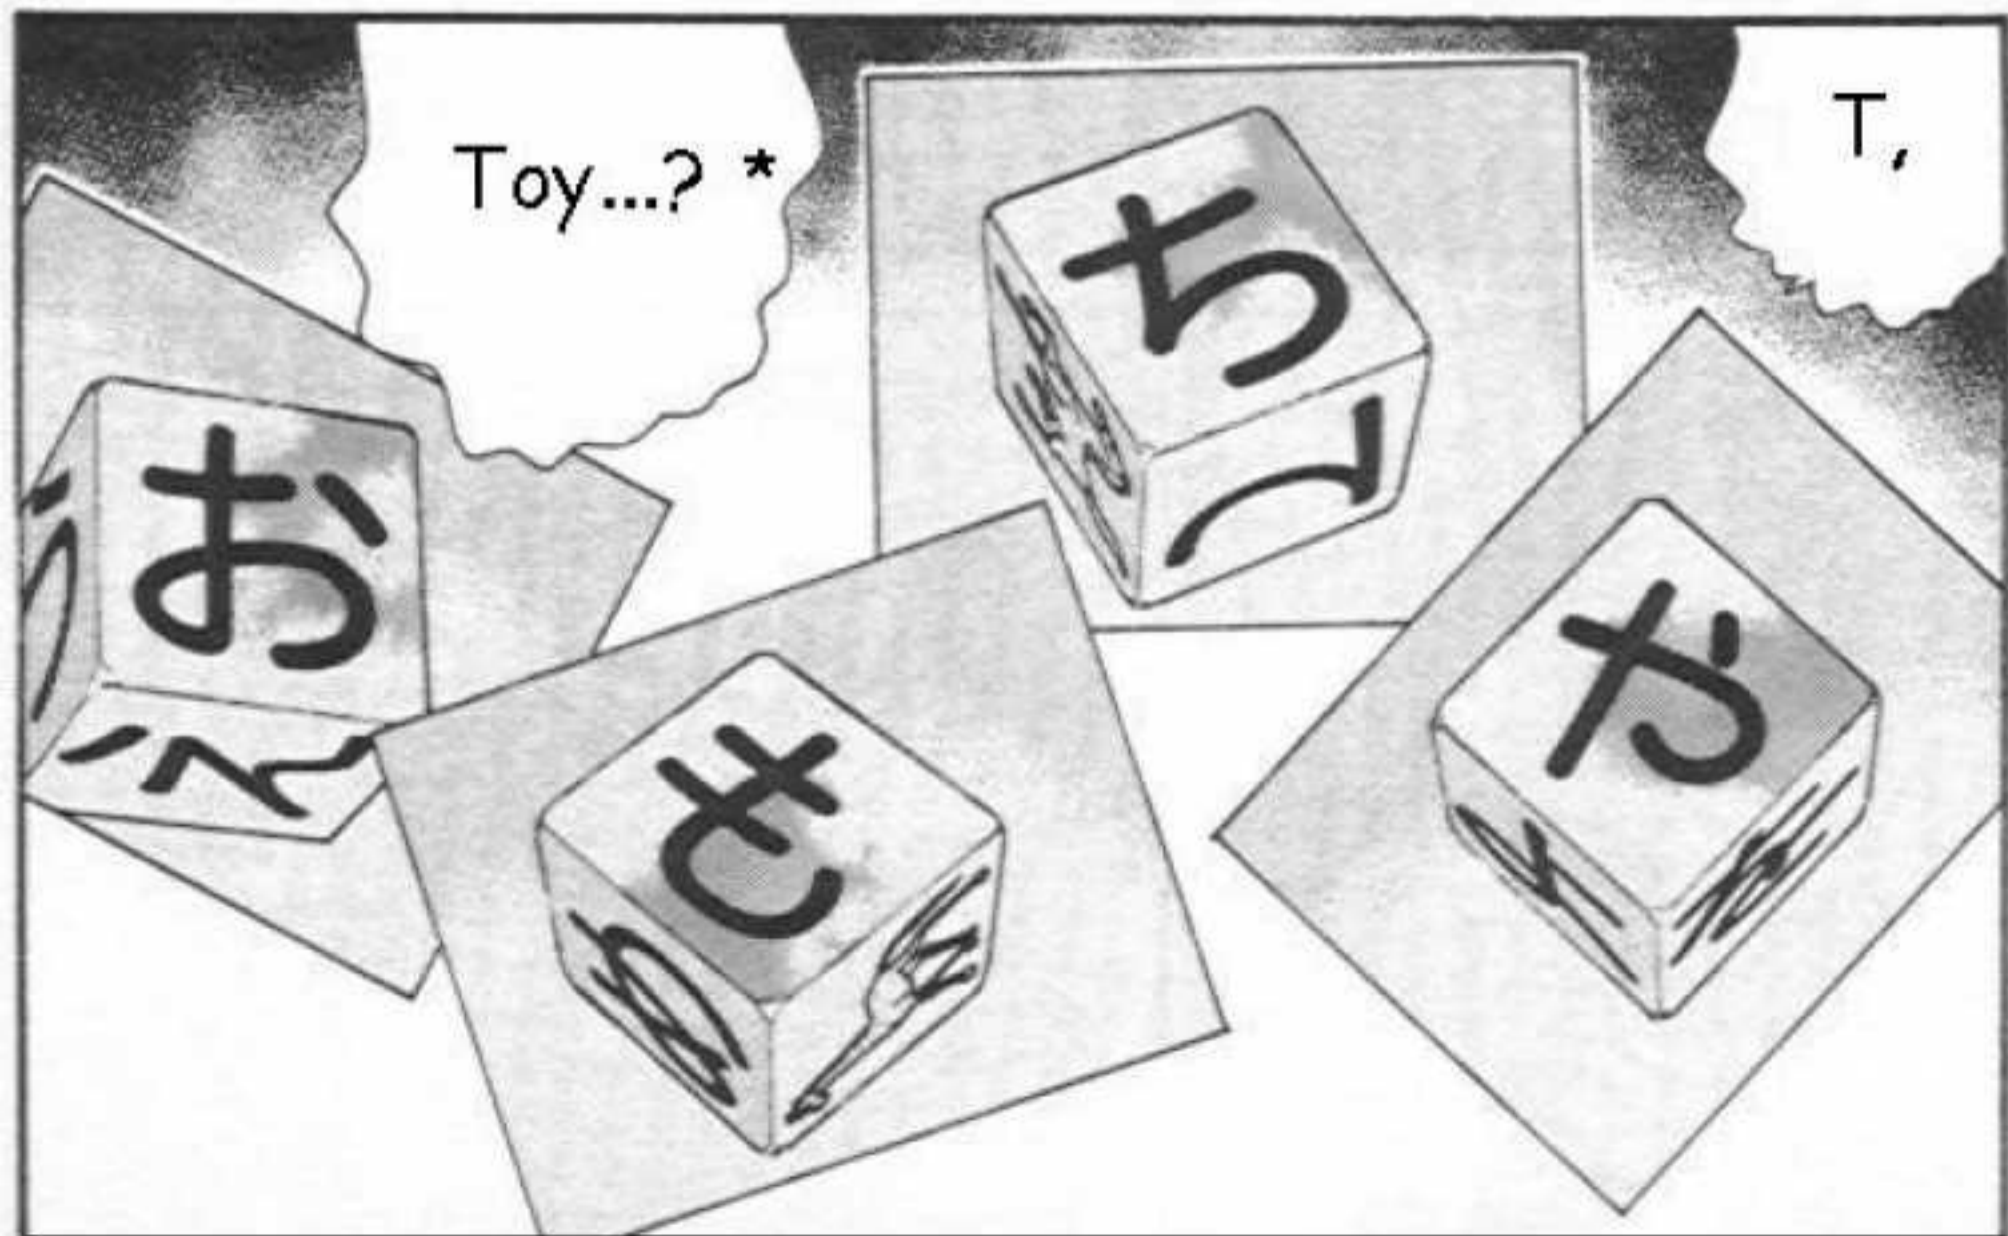

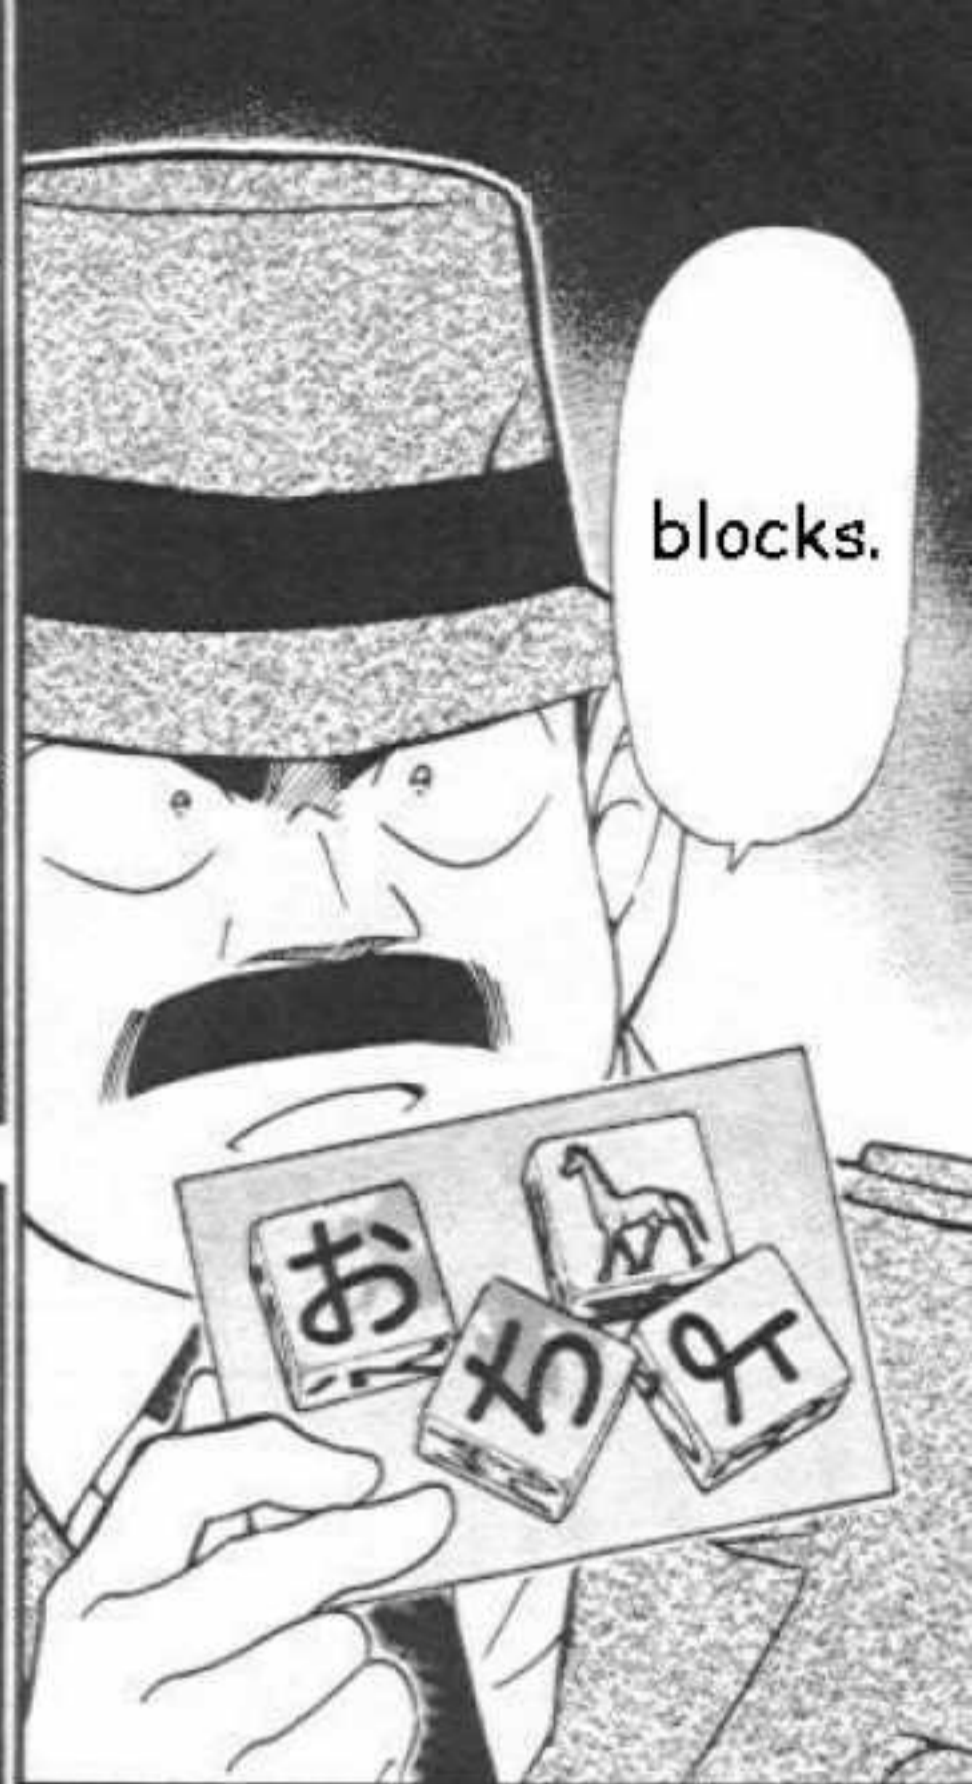

This proves that he was hit by inaccurately by golf club...

And there's some thin lines?

There's only blood on the head see?

Didn't you say the boss was hit with golf club?
