Six Masks of a Message

メッセージ

The blocks were found on the left side of the body...

This is the toy company's boss.

had ink and the boss finger prints...

We are not sure why only 4 blocks

Maybe the murderer put the cube on the boss hand...

There were boss's fingerprints on it...

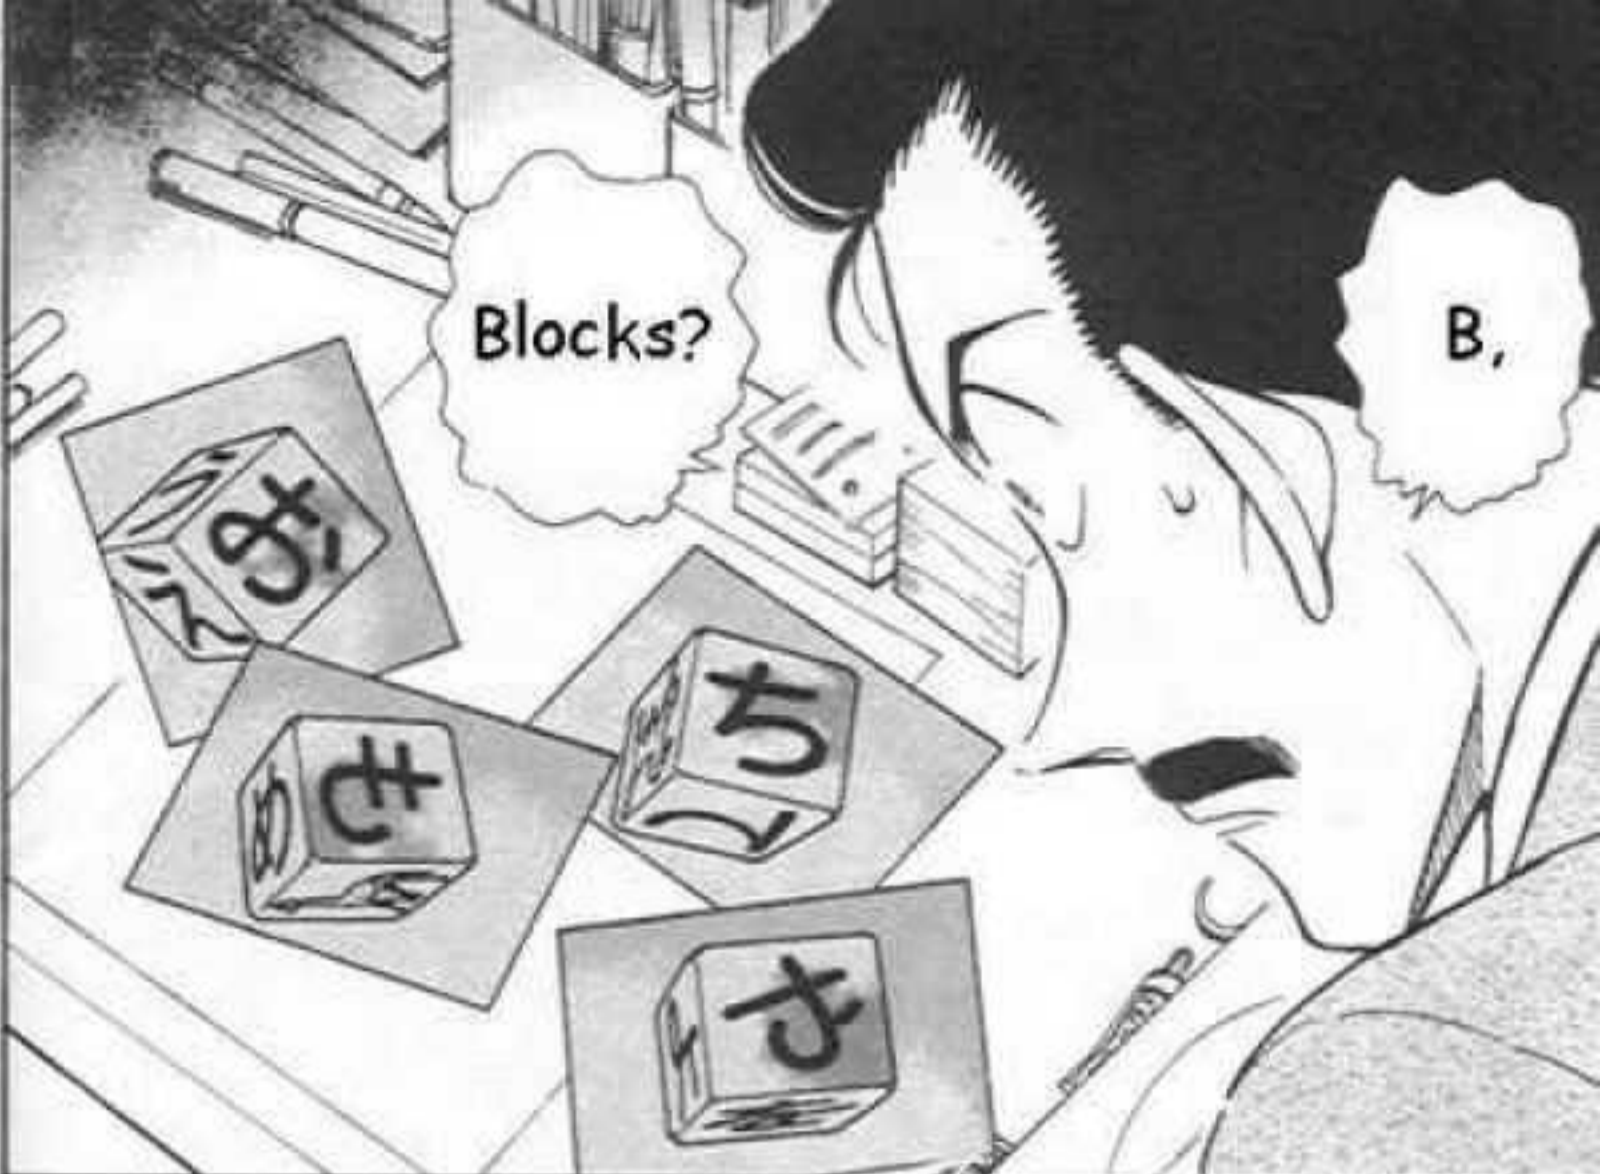

What's puzzling me is who put the ink on the cubes ...?

Is the ink the same with the one next to the body?

No, there were more... But we think it was just ink dropping when he put it back.

Were there only 4?

Blocks?

B,

No, it says toy?

Yeah ...

Can you tell us where exactly were the cubes? Um, Inspector!

The cubes have hiragana on them, right...

Maybe...

Maybe he was playing?

The rope also tell us that...

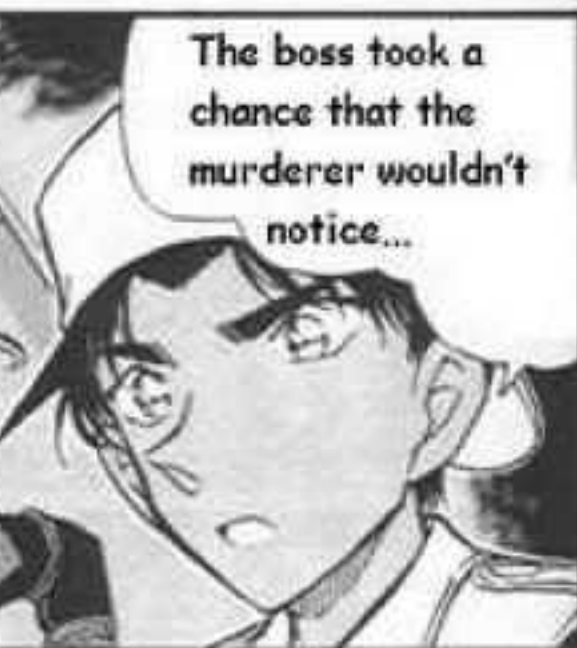

When one dies, they will disappear...

Sweat and fats help fingerprints to be visible...

He was probably worried when he would be killed.

As he went back and forth to the cubes and ink...

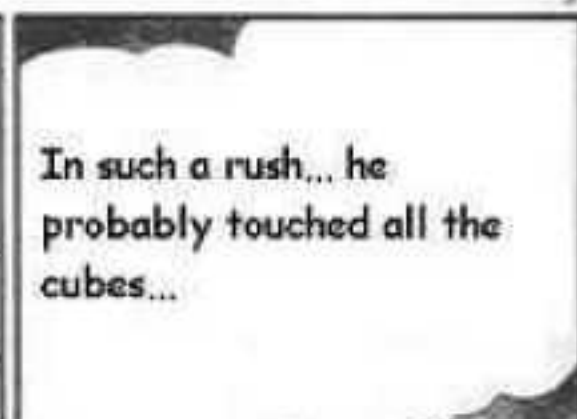

The boss took a chance that the murderer wouldn't notice...

Wow ...

But, this is a toy company, it would make sense to leave toy related message...

In such a rush... he probably touched all the cubes...

He's great !!

That's true!

But he has a lot of information ...

We only got here...

As his dying message...

I think the boss left it,

In this situation...

Weren't his hands tied back?

Just look at the picture.

How do you know?

And a lot of ink on them...

The blocks have the boss's finger prints...

There's more

Is that so...?

Then he used the katakana on the cubes, dipped it in the ink, and left us the message.

In order to get those four cubes, he must have touched the others...

No, but...

Anything else?

How are we supposed to solve this?!?

There's a lot!

Let's list the possibilities... *

* They are reordering the hiragana, like rearranging the letters in a word

If we want to win...

And this isn't something I want to lose...

If this continues, he will win!

Wait, Ran-chan!!

The expensive coat that has blood on it. The coat belonged to the boss.

This is the golf club and...

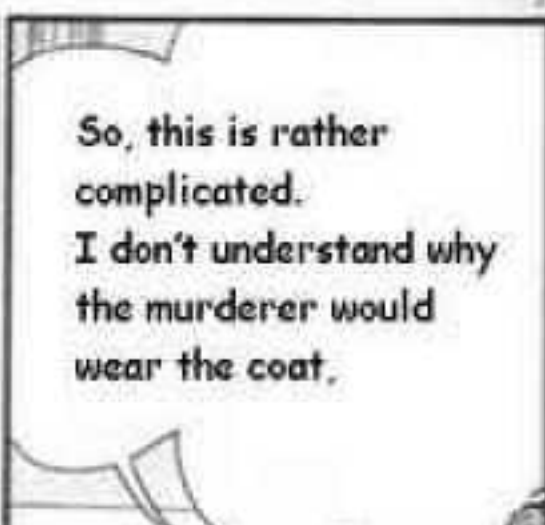

So, we have to solve the dying message first.

We have to figure out what "omocha" means.

The murderer came in when the boss was gone, saw this expensive coat and put it on.

The room is really messy, too...

So, this is rather complicated. I don't understand why the murderer would wear the coat.

Are you sure?

Huh?

No, there's no other toys around!

Hmm?

And, so, the murderer has to leave the coat behind.

Unfortunately, the boss saw him. So the murderer tied him up and then killed him.

Let's try that...

Rearrange...?

Have you tried rearranging it?

Furthermore, we already tried to solve the blocks.

Looks like...

Possibly ...

Was there something here before?

Another clue maybe?

We didn't notice that.

It looked like it rubbed on something ...

The blood is smeared...

The blood on the left side of the coat...

TO #

Don't mess up everything! We haven't checked the desk yet!

Remote control... remote control...

Um, this blood...

Did you find any gloves?

Maybe it happen when the murderer took off the coat!

There's nothing inside?

Huh?

Hmm?

Splatter pattern is interesting.

Please ask some examiner to examine it again...

No, it was tape recorder ...

The thing that was here were video tapes, right?

So...

The top part of the blood is cut off.

At the edge of some of blood, you can see that.

If you look closely.

I really want Kazuha-chan to win.

In this competition.

Dad can't figure out anything...

Do you mind telling me in secret first?

If you think of anything.

She was really wants us to see the theater with us...

Pretty please!

Can you?

He didn't have to move the camera...

If it was to watch the Boss that's tied up...

This room ...

This really doesn't make sense...

IF the tape recorder was here, why did the murderer move it after the boss died?

Weird...

Not right...

There's something ...

Huh?

Can I ask for help?

Um, Conan-kun?

He didn't want the boss to see his face.

But if he wanted to keep an eye, couldn't he just tied him up in front of the safe?

Maybe he wasn't to watch the boss until he gave up the lock number...

But why is there a camera here?

Nope !!!

It seems that the murderer knows what going on with this company.

But the boss saw his face and wrote the dying message.

They're being interviewed by Takagi-kun.

So the four workers that saw the body are bigger suspects...

As long as we understand the message, everything will be clear.

If not, how could the boss write the dying message?

You were the one who dragged me into your group!

Hey, you're helping your girl, huh?

Don't disturb us, okay?

This kid is in my group.

Are you even listening?

Nonsense! I must see the baseball game!!

Please tell!

Hattori-kun

Huh?

Really? Did you get anything?

Ah!

I'm finished interviewing them.

Inspector Megure!

The amount is so little that it couldn't be detected.

The blood on the camera and floor are the same.

The same...?

Dying message
....

The blocks...

If it's like that...

Wait a minute
....

You noticed it, huh?

Hey, do you get it?

I will win...

Sorry, Kazuha, but this competition...

He is the treasurer.

Hasa Miasshi-san was watching videos at home.

They are all inventors. On June 29th, Nao Aiko went out fishing.

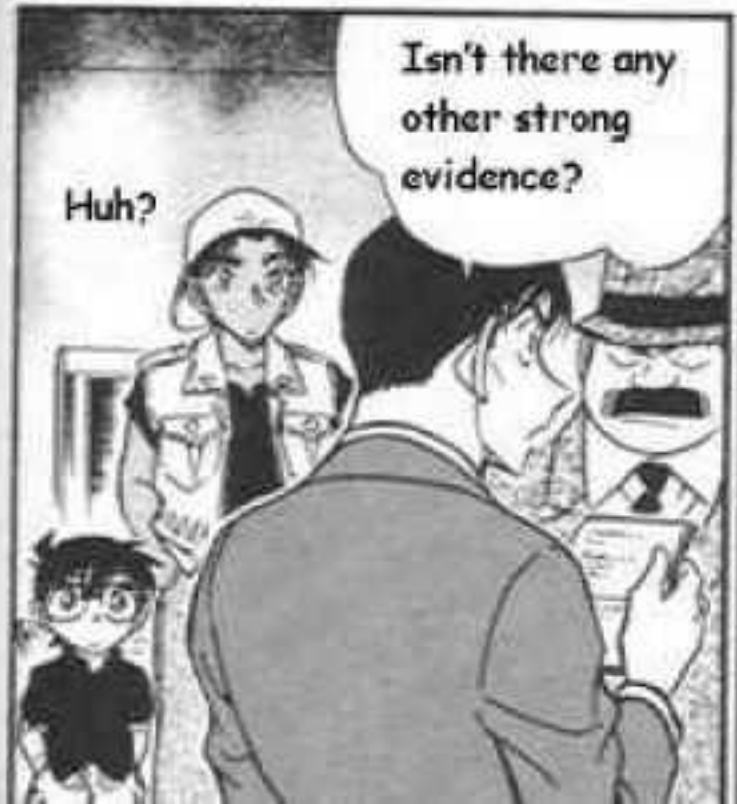

Nakagami Isao-san takes care of manufacturing. At that time, he was at a horse race.

Was watching a golf game...

The assistant manager, Iwatomi Hajime-san
....

Huh?

Isn't there any other strong evidence?

Chiba is checking their alibis.

Do they have a solid alibi?

Huh?

Ka...

Kazuha ...
