GOSHU AOYAMA PRESENTS

It's the end of the 2nd inning. The batter of Kohnan High School is...

웅성 웅성

No. 3, Sato!

161

Listen to this loud cry covering the whole inside of the camp!

This final match at Koshien, where we can see similar faces in 3 continuities surprisingly!

Will it be Kohnan High School, the loser of last year, to gain the victory?!

Or Ohgane
High School, which is aiming for the successive victory?!

162

Pitcher!
He's raising his hand highly.
The first ball...

He threw it!!

St ~ rike!

The match is taking place over there!

Hey, uncle! What are you looking at since a while ago?

Strike!
St~rike~

It's really a strike!

Since we have managed to come here, let's watch the match properly!

You're such a pervert!

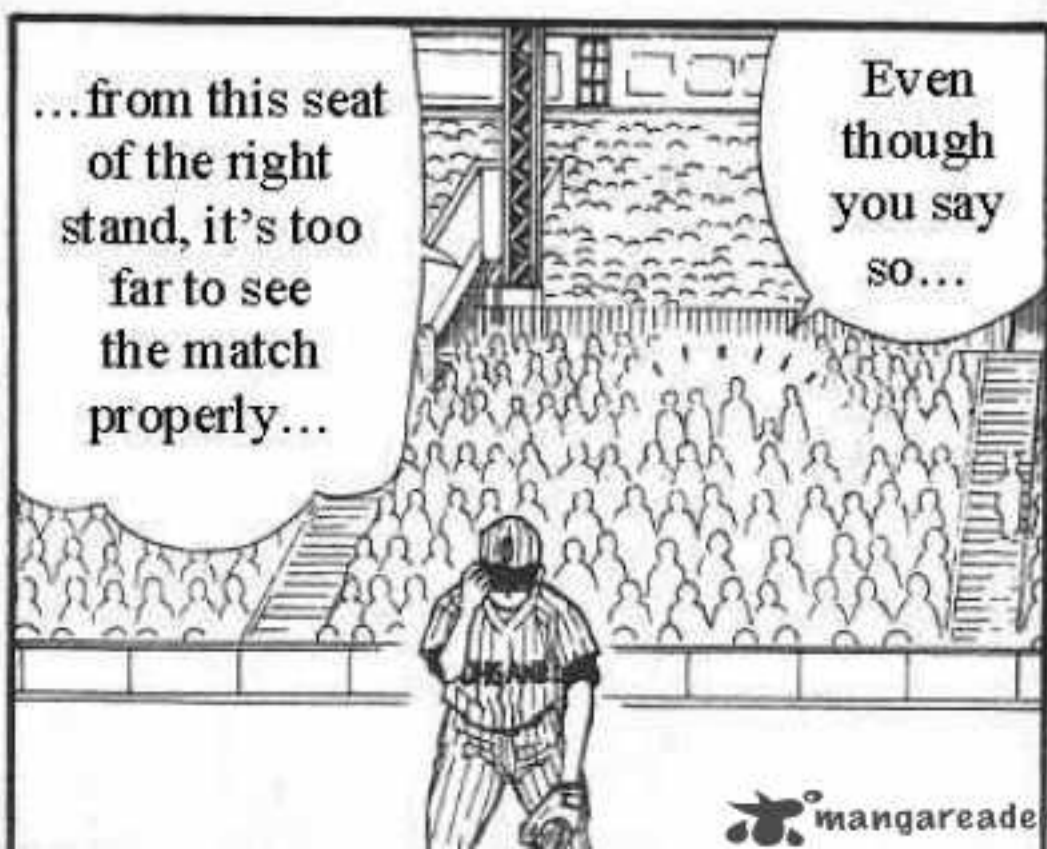

I'm sure he was peeping into the skirts of those cheering girls at Alps Stand.

163

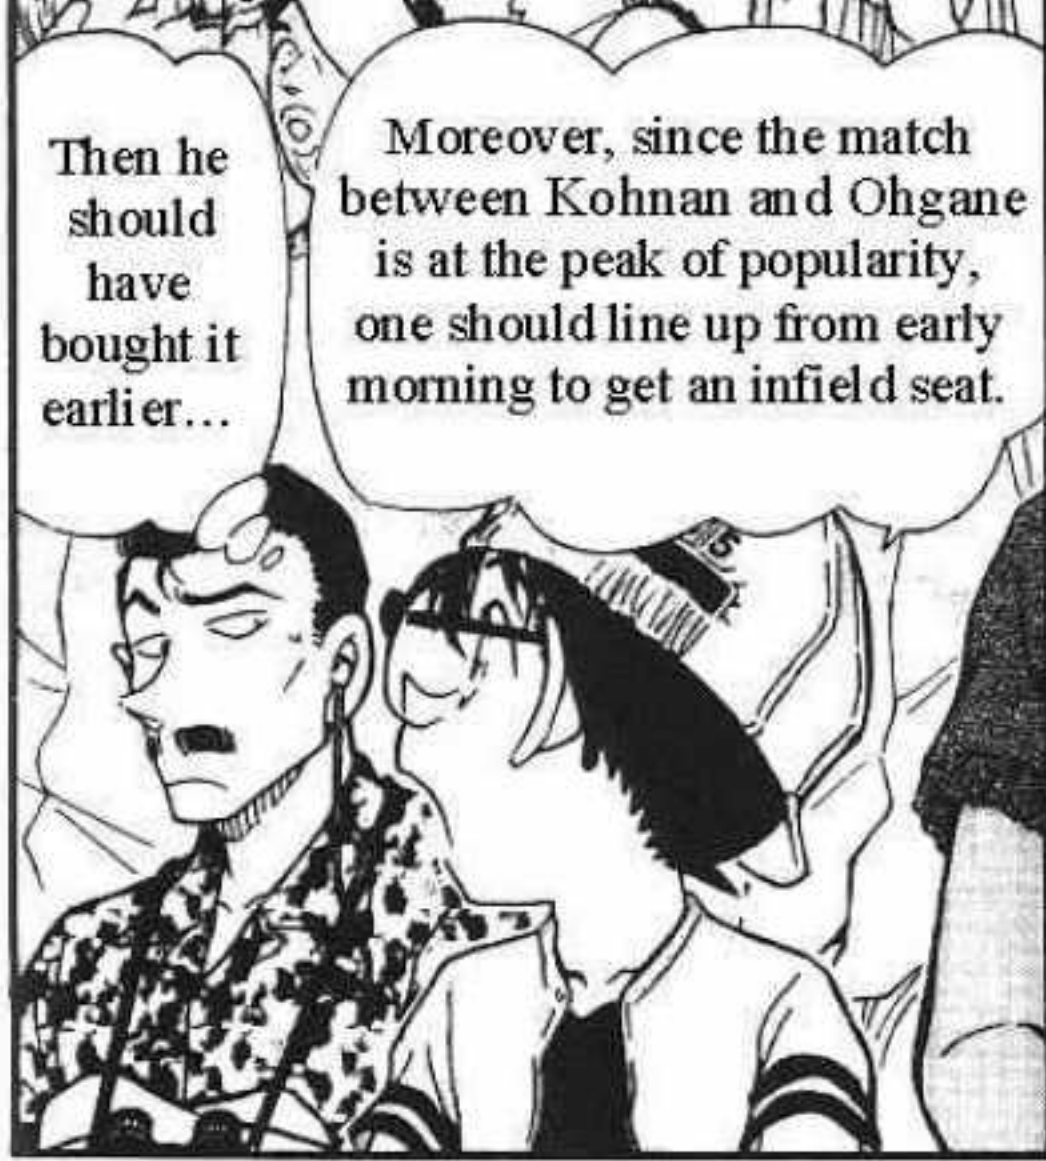

I'm sorry...

I expected a good position as it was an invitation...

...from this seat of the right stand, it's too far to see the match properly...

Even though you say so...

Then he should have bought it earlier...

Moreover, since the match between Kohnan and Ohgane is at the peak of popularity, one should line up from early morning to get an infield seat.

Officer Otaki...

...but it seems he overslept a bit...

I asked my friend, who lives here, to queue up for the ticket...

Thank you!!

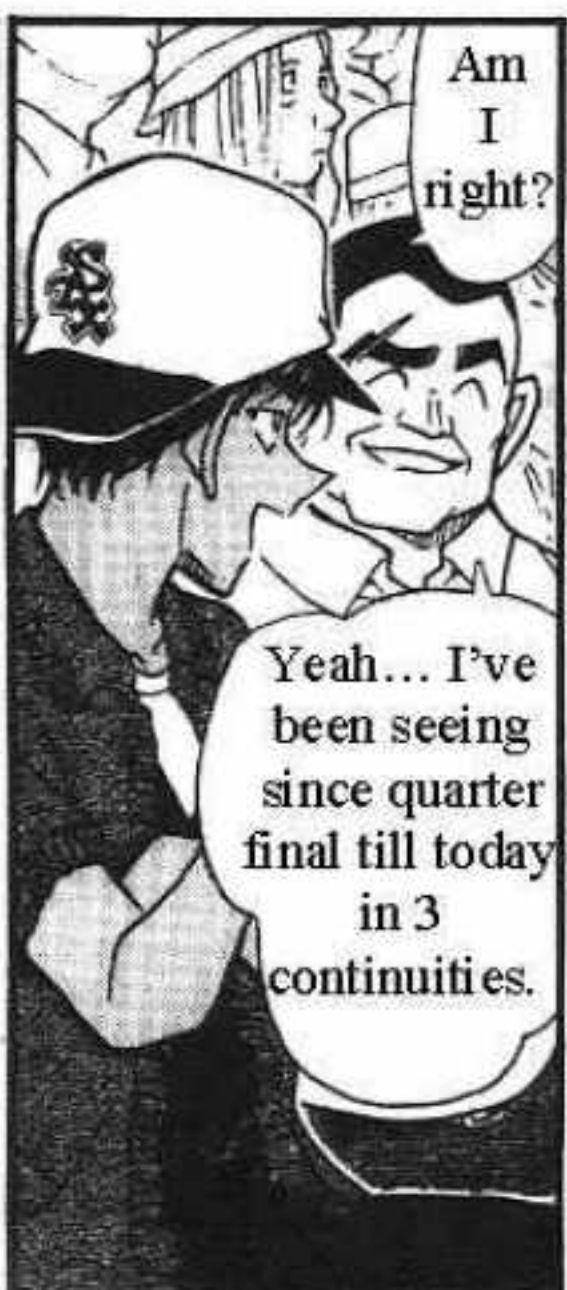

Wow, it's so cool!

Here! It's ice water! I bought for everyone.

Wow! Looks like you're a Koshien fan.

Of course he is!!

Am I right?

Yeah... I've been seeing since quarter final till today in 3 continuities.

It's alright, he must have taken a holiday to come here...

But is it okay? What about your duty?

...a baseball player in the past.

Officer Otaki was...

...and see them playing, I remember...

But when I come here ...

Oh, no. The 8th local preliminary match was the most.

Ah huh, then have you ever been on this Koshien camp?

...that ball, and becoming dirty with sweat and mud...

...those days, chasing, no matter what...

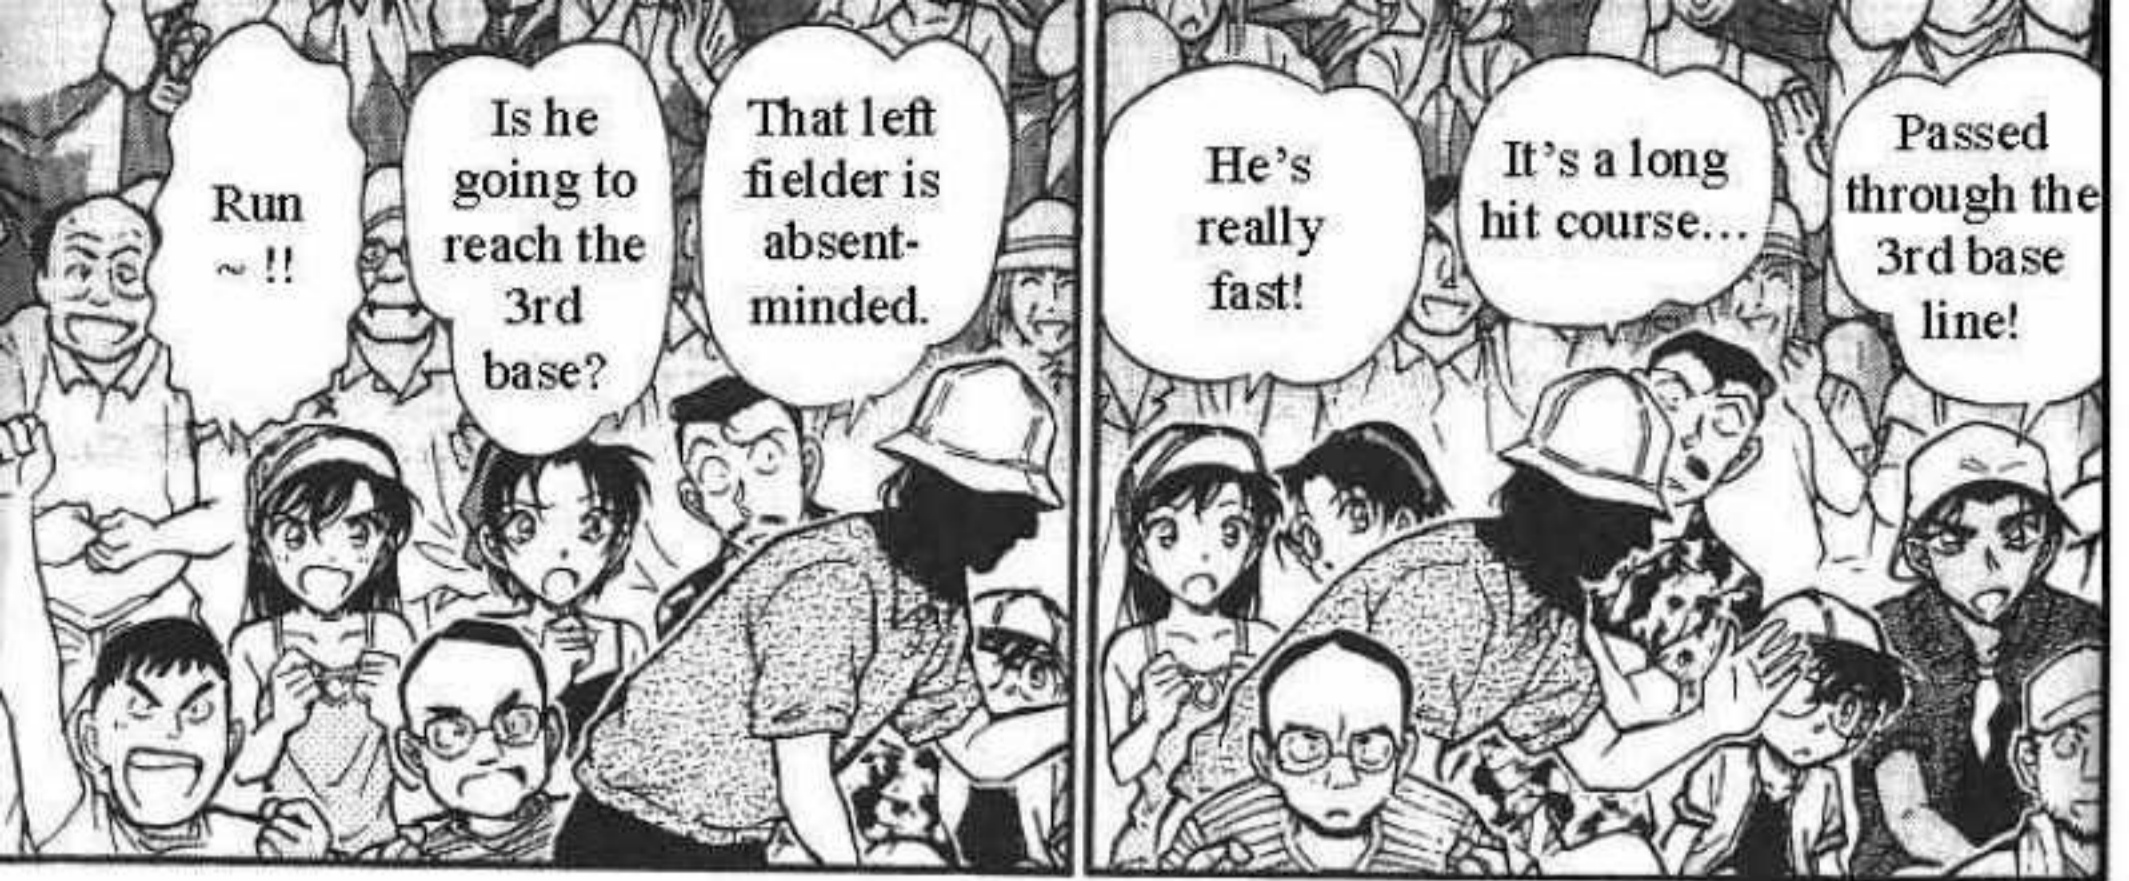

165

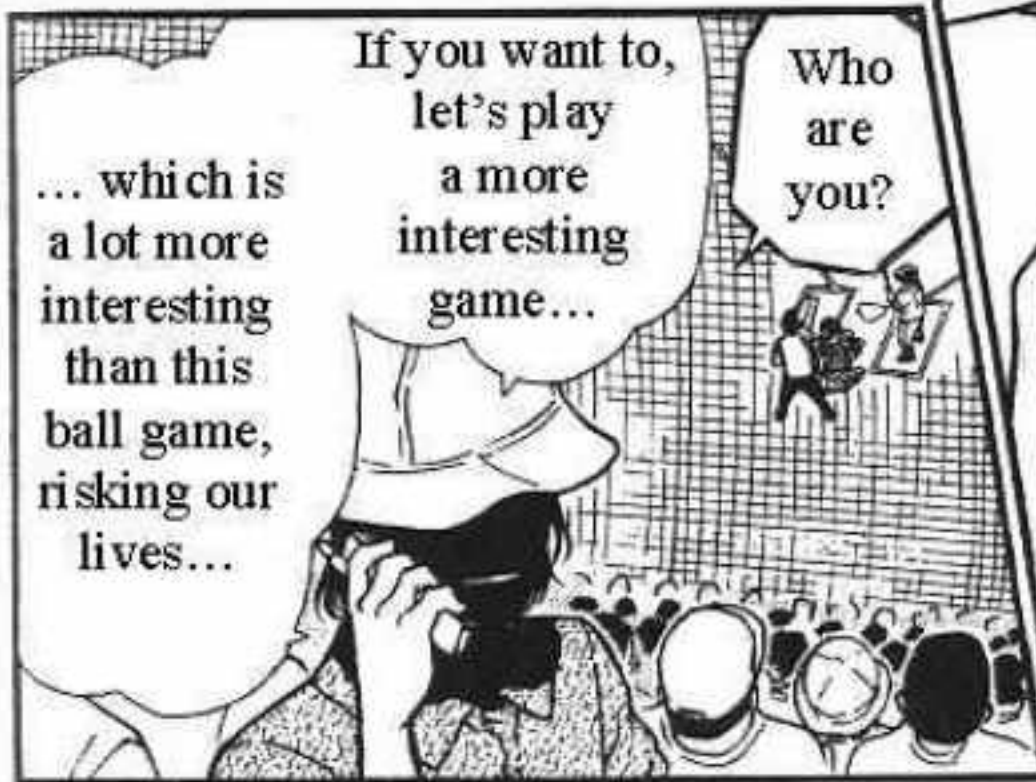

Koshien really is a nice place...

...that my efforts of that time weren't useless, so I shouldn't give up...

...and I realize all the more keenly...

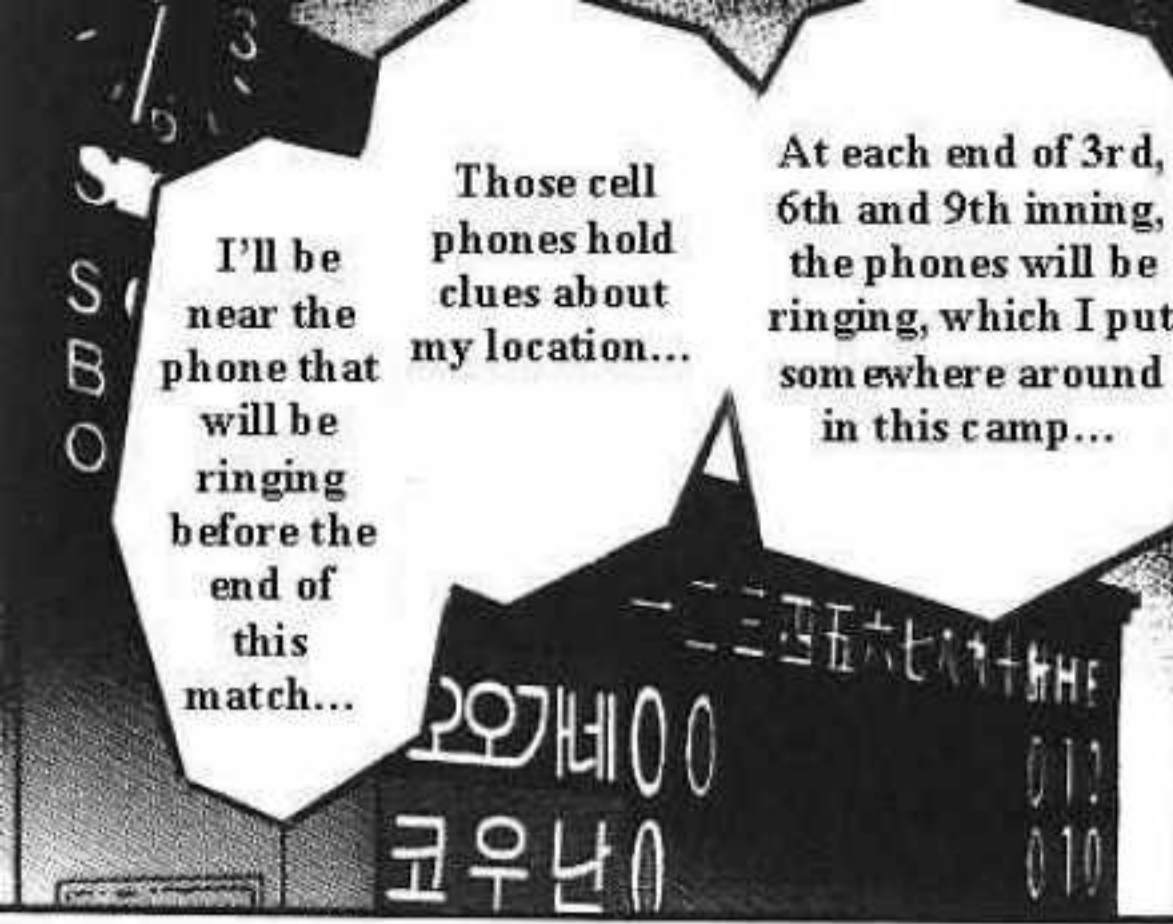

Anyway, it is me, whose life will be taken!
He he he...

It is too lonely to go alone, isn't it...?

I'll be near the phone that will be ringing before the end of this match...

Those cell phones hold clues about my location...

At each end of 3rd, 6th and 9th inning, the phones will be ringing, which I put somewhere around in this camp...

The rule is simple.

What did you say?

You'll know if I'm joking or not with the end of the 2nd inning.

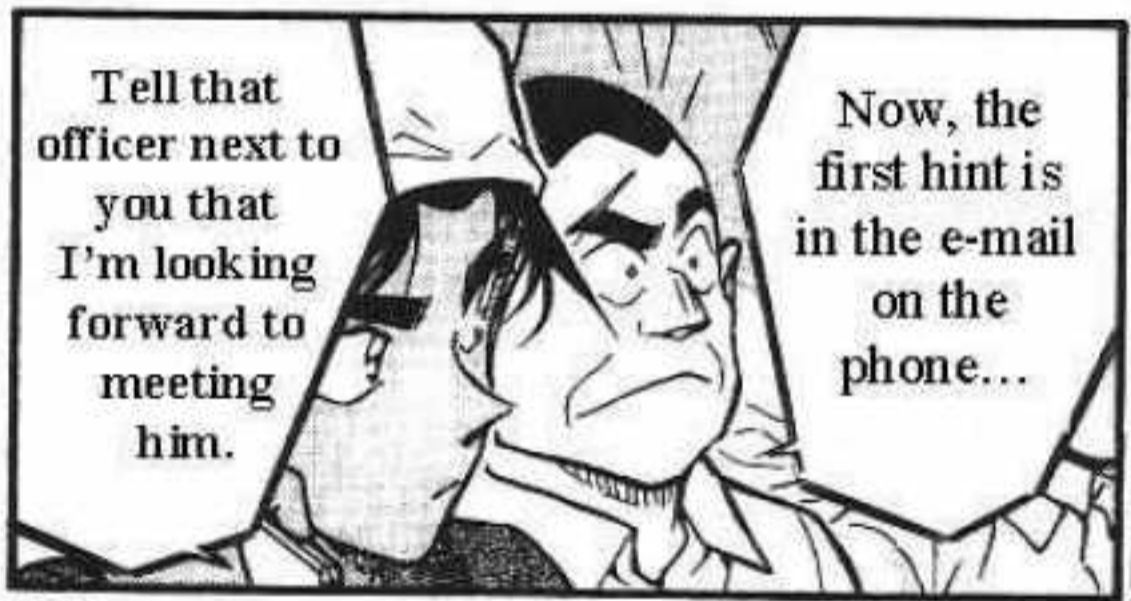

I'll hang up!

Hey! Stop joking!

Of course, if you find all those phones before ringing and find me, you win...

If you don't find and answer the phone until it rings three times, it will be Three Out.

Tell that officer next to you that I'm looking forward to meeting him.

Now, the first hint is in the e-mail on the phone...

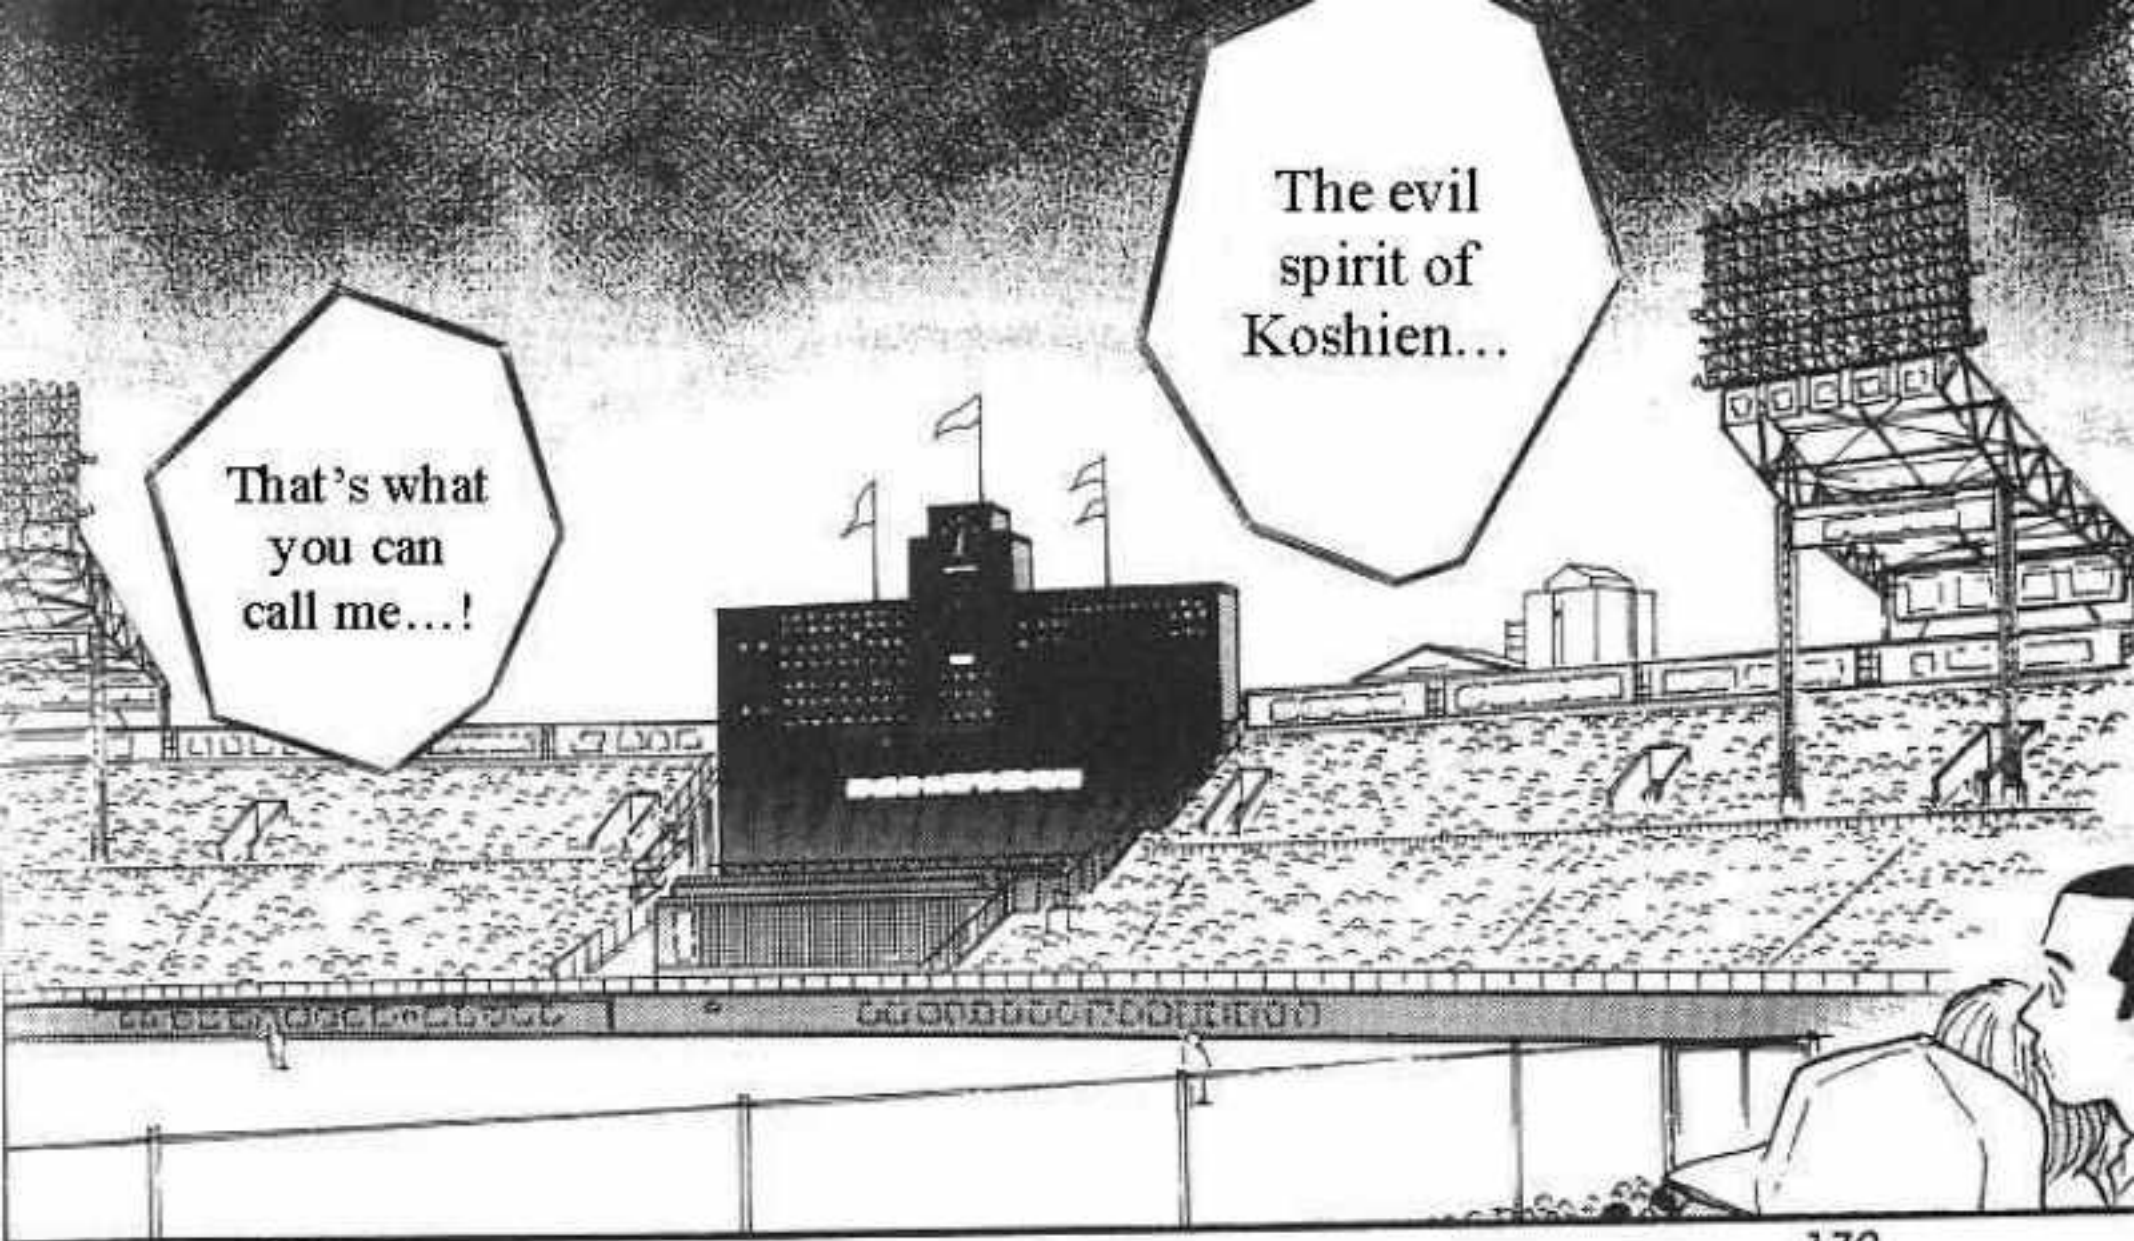

My name?

You can at least tell me your name!

Wait a minute!

That's what you can call me...!

The evil spirit of Koshien...

Hey!
Hey!

96, 7, 13... what is that?

Huh?

This is it...

Beep

* V.l 96[7]13

He wants me to bring this phone there to him!

It's the location of this phone's owner...

What?

I'm sick of those codes!

Is it a code again?

It doesn't look like a seat number ...

But what is that 96, 7, 13?

It would be much more simple if he came here!

Why?

Huh?

...then it would be Alps Stand...

Hmmm... If it was 8, 1, 2...

음화하하하하

If it's Haidi, then, of course, it's "Alps"!

It's because if we read 8, 1, 2 phonetically, it's Ha, I, Di...

This is the important part...

Huh?

Well, that's enough. Officer Otaki! Please help me find him!

Yeah, I agree ...

What's wrong? He was the one who wanted to see it the most!

We'll return it to him and come back soon...

Don't worry!

Yeah! It seems very interesting!

Huh? Conan, you're going, too?

Suicide?

What?

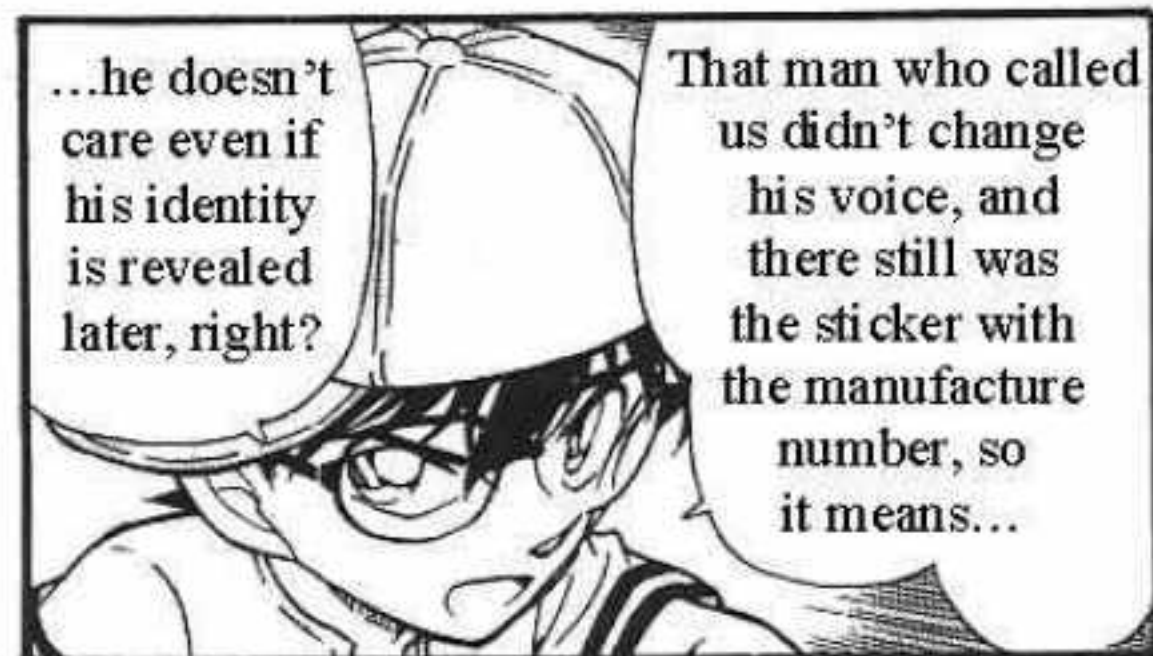

It can't be a joke.

But it can be a simple joke...

Yeah! He says He will die if we don't find him before the end of the match! Moreover, with someone else!

A-are you serious? Heiji!

...he doesn't care even if his identity is revealed later, right?

That man who called us didn't change his voice, and there still was the sticker with the manufacture number, so it means...

178

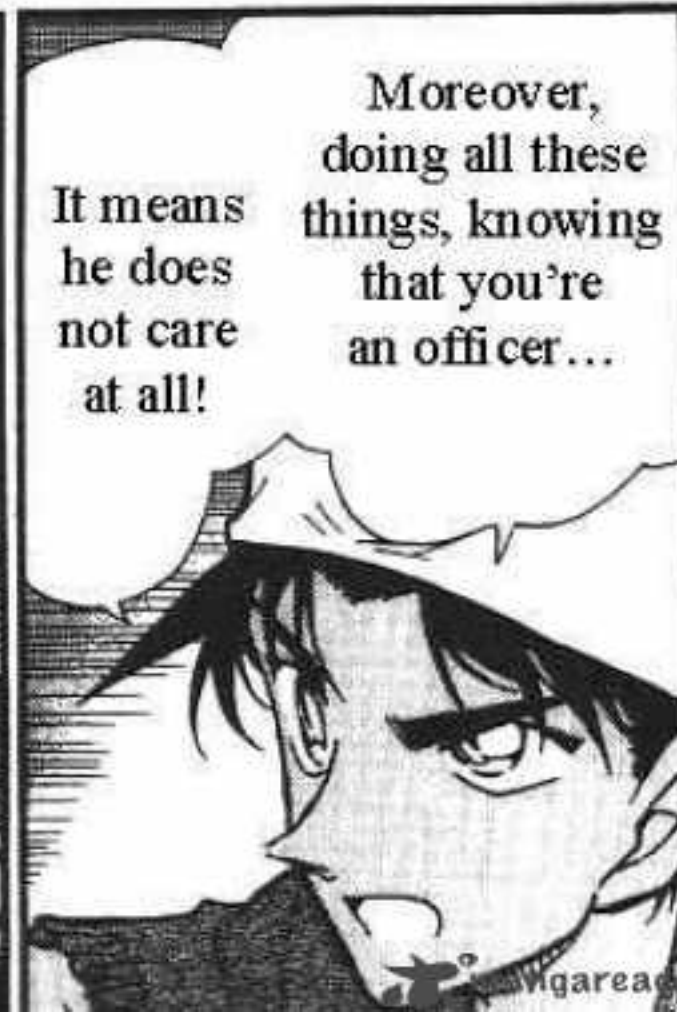

He might still be there...

Because I heard the umpire's strike call over the phone at that time.

Huh? Why the back net?

Anyway, please let us enter the back net with your police badge!

Moreover, doing all these things, knowing that you're an officer...

It means he does not care at all!

Didn't you say he wasn't gonna suicide before the end of the match?

What's up?

O-oh no!

R-really?!

He said he would show us a prove with the end of the 2nd inning!

...he might have done something already...

If that was the cry confirming Three Out ...

The 2nd inning ended!

Oh
no... !

O-okay!

Please inform me if you find a suspicious man with his cap

Officer Otaki, please watch the middle!

Conan, you go down!
I'll go upstairs!

175

The 3rd inning begins. The batter of Kohnan High School is...

Nothing happened...?!
